City Will Borrow $140,000 For Street Work

LOCAL CLUB STEWARD FINED IN LIQUOR CASE

BIG LOAN ORDERS FOR STREET WORK WILL GO TO CITY COUNCIL

Loans Will Include $70,000 for First Street, $20,000 for Sidewalks and $50,000 for Paving --- Other Loan Orders Totalling $90,000 to Be Presented for Memorial Auditorium

Loan orders totalling $140,000 for work to be done under the recommended program of City Engineer Stephen Kenrney will be presented to the city council at its meeting tomorrow night.

For First street, $70,000 will be requested; for sidewalks, $20,000 and for paving $50,000. This represents the whole of the First street and sidewalk loans, but is only one-third of the recommended paving loan.

Mayor George H. Brown also stated today that loan orders amounting in total to $90,000 probably will be presented for the memorial auditorium. When money for this work originally was discussed, Architect Blackall estimated at $63,000 would be necessary for exterior improvements, including a retaining wall, granolithic sidewalks, street grading, extension of the White Way system and a proper promenade along the river bank. Mayor Brown cut this estimate to $60,000, but today announced that the city will have to borrow $90,000 for all necessary work.

Just how this total of $90,000 will be split up, is not definitely known. City Solicitor Edward J. Tierney went to Boston this noon to confer with officials and attorneys of the First National bank on the matter and it appears now that two or more loan orders will be presented to cover the whole amount.

Scores of Guests Rescued When Fire Broke Out in Reno, Nev., Hotel

RENO, Nev., March 15—Scores of guests escaped from upper windows in their night clothes when the Riverside hotel was destroyed by fire here early today.

At 5 o'clock the building was a furnace and the ruins could not be searched, but a check was started to learn whether any guests were missing. No serious injuries were reported.

The fire, believed to have started in the engine room, broke out shortly after 2 o'clock. The flames spread upward quickly and the guests, aroused by the smoke, found the stairways cut off. Most of them were rescued by firemen with ladders.

LAST DAY FOR FILING FEDERAL TAX

Today is the last allowed under the federal law for the filing of the 1921 income tax returns. All day long the offices of the local deputies were crowded with those who have allowed their obligation to go until the last day. According to the schedule given out last week the local office will be open tonight until 8 o'clock.

SCHICK TESTING FOR ALL SCHOOL CHILDREN

Within the near future a clinic for Schick testing of all public school children will be opened under the direction of School Hygiene Director Francis A. Finnegan. Adequate rooms for such a clinic have not been secured as yet.

The Schick test is used to determine whether a person is susceptible or non-susceptible to diphtheria. To those found susceptible, immunity may be given through the injecting of a serum, called toxin antitoxin.

The system is looked upon with favor by many departments of health all over the country and is most successfully carried out. At present it is in use in all Massachusetts juvenile institutions.

Dr. Finnegan has had posted in all schools a large chart, showing periods of exclusion from and time of readmission to public schools of pupils sick with a communicable disease and contacts in the same households.

Small pocket copies of the chart will be given to all school physicians and nurses and later on the same rules will be made to apply to private schools.

The diseases named on the chart are infantile paralysis, chicken pox, diphtheria, spinal meningitis, German measles, influenza, measles, mumps, scarlet fever, septic sore throat, smallpox, trachoma, typhoid fever, typhus fever and whooping cough.

The quarantine period for the patient prescribed by the health department, the length of time a patient is to be excluded from school and the treatment of contacts who are immune and not immune and general remarks are included on the chart, applying to each disease above mentioned.

The chart also states that readmission to schools of pupils and teachers excluded on account of communicable diseases is authorized only upon presentation of a certificate from the health department, through the director of school hygiene and signed by the school physician.

Full Square of Business Buildings Wiped Out, Fireman Killed and Many Hurt in Biggest Fire Since 1871

Ten Alarms Called Out Every Piece of Apparatus Within Five Miles When Fire Assumed Virtually Unlimited Proportions—Incendiarism Suspected—Man Arrested and Questioned—100,000 Thronged District to Witness Spectacular Blaze — Many Struck by Falling Bricks, Etc.

CHICAGO, March 15—A spectacular early morning fire, the most serious since the memorable disaster of 1871, today destroyed a full square of business buildings just outside Chicago's "loop" or downtown district with a loss estimated at from $10,000,000 to $15,000,000. The fire started in the center of the block bounded by Van Buren, Canal and Clinton streets, and West Jackson boulevard, of unknown origin, burned every structure in that area, leaped north across Jackson and wrecked the 21-story Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad's general office building, which also houses the Mercantile Trust & Savings bank, and, aided by a strong wind, dipped over Van Buren street southward and burned nearly through to Harrison street.

The fire was not brought under control until nearly 5 o'clock, and even then firemen were fighting a dozen different fires and others broke out intermittently as the wind wafted sparks about.

One Fireman Killed

One fireman was killed, another seriously injured; 10 or more slightly hurt, and an unknown number of the hundred thousand spectators who thronged the burning district slightly hurt by falling bricks, burning timbers or sparks.

The fire for a time threatened to assume virtually unlimited proportions and every piece of fire fighting apparatus within five miles was called out on a series of 10 alarms.

"The rapidity with which it spread, was astounding," Marshal Buckley, assistant fire chief said: "the fire actually seemed to run from us."

COUNSEL FOR FULLER OPENS

Outlines Case in $100,000 Suit for Alleged Slander Brought by Walker

Will Present Witness to Prove Warner-Hathaway Partnership

TAUNTON, March 15—John W. Cummings, counsel for Lieut. Governor Fuller, this morning made his opening address to the jury, outlining the defense in the $100,000 suit for alleged slander brought by former Speaker Joseph E. Warner of Taunton. Mr. Cummings said the defense would show that Warner never made any specific denial of the charges of Fuller. He would put on the witness stand William. Garcelon of the Arkwright club, who, he said, would testify that Warner introduced Harold F. Hathaway to him, and that Garcelon subsequently engaged Hathaway as attorney for services before a legislative committee in behalf of Fall River manufacturers, for which Hathaway received more than $5000.

Mr. Cummings said Charles Strange of Taunton would testify that Warner had told him he was a partner of Hathaway.

The attorney stressed the Salem rally, where, he said, Warner stood under a tree, his face partly concealed by a handkerchief and that he made no reply to charges voiced by Fuller.

William M. Lovering a Taunton mill man, testified, as first witness today, to mill conditions affecting the purity of the Taunton river.

STRANDED U. S. SHIP IS REFLOATED

HAMBURG, March 15.—The American steamer West Munham, which ran ashore off Helgoland last week while on her way to Russia with a cargo of corn for famine relief, was refloated last evening, and proceeded to the river Elbe in tow. The leakage caused by her grounding has been brought under control.

CALLS HALT ON HONORS GIVEN HIM

PERU, March 15.—"I've got enough to do. I'll be hanged if I chase everybody's cows and chickens, too." It was in this wise that Frank Creamer, "poohbah of Peru" called a halt on the honors being given him at town meetings. The 10 voters of this Berkshire town had just elected "Mayor" Creamer moderator, town clerk, selectman, treasurer, tax collector, overseer of the poor and member of the health board. Then someone nominated him for field driver and he called quits.

U. S. LOAN TO AUSTRIA

Lodge Resolution to Extend Loan of $50,000,000 for 25 Years Adopted

WASHINGTON, March 15—The resolution of Senator Lodge, republican, Massachusetts, extending for 25 years the loan of $50,000,000 made to Austria for famine relief, was adopted unanimously today by the senate and sent to the house.

Extension of the loan as provided by the Lodge resolution has been urged recently by many American organizations. The resolution was approved unanimously today by the senate finance committee and unanimous consent given for its immediate consideration in the senate.

Senator Lodge told the senate that the Austrian government was without sufficient funds to operate and also pay the loan. Other nations which had joined in famine relief work he said, had promised also to extend their loans.

STEWARD PAYS LIQUOR FINE

Bunting Club Representative Arraigned on Charge of Illegally Keeping Liquor

Arthur Gigure Fined $100 for Having Obscene Pictures in His Possession

Walter Kay, steward of the Bunting club, pleaded guilty to a charge of illegal keeping of liquor, when arraigned before Judge Enright in district court this morning, was fined $150 and paid. The case which has caused considerable interest took up no more than five minutes from the time it was called until Kay finished counting off $150 from a roll.

Kay was called and the charge read to him by Assistant Clerk Toye. He pleaded guilty. Sergt. Winn of the liquor and vice squad was called and made a brief outline of the case. There were no questions and the court imposed the fine. Kay then asked for a continuance. When asked his reason for such a request after pleading guilty, he could give no reason. He then paid the fine.

BOMB EXPLODED IN HOME OF CHICAGO ALDERMAN

CHICAGO, March 15—The "gold coast" was shaken to its foundations last night by a bomb exploded at the home of Alderman Charles J. Agnew.

The front of the Agnew home, which is just off Lake Shore Drive, was wrecked by the blast and windows in homes for a block around shattered. Mrs. Agnew was blown from bed by the force of the explosion.

No cause for the outrage was known.

SAYS THAT AT LEAST ONE-FOURTH OF CITY NEEDS REBUILDING

Building Inspector Connor Sends Out General Orders for Repair of Dilapidated Structures and Clearance of Fire Escapes in Spring Clean-up Campaign---Says City's Building Laws Adequate

That at least one-fourth of the city needs rebuilding and that he will insist that all dilapidated structures are at once put in proper condition, or condemnation will follow and that all fire escapes must be cleaned immediately of any and all accummulations of the winter months, were the high lights of a spring house-cleaning crusade outlined today by Building Inspector Francis A. Connor.

General orders relative to the repair of run-down buildings and the cleaning up of fire escapes will be issued within a day or two from the office of the inspector.

During a discussion of whether or not there should be any changes in local building laws and regulations to conform with the stipulations of the national board of fire underwriters, Inspector Connor said it was not a job for any one man, but should be given careful study by a board of four men, preferably a lawyer, a contractor and architect and the building inspector.

"Our building laws are 'good at present,'" said Mr. Connor, "and there is absolutely no call for alarm. During the past 10 years our fourth class buildings (frame construction throughout) are better built than were the second and third class buildings of 25 years ago.

"While the city's wooden structures are not absolutely fireproof, they are fire retarding and are equipped with fire stops. All egresses are wire-lathed and plastered, and the building as a whole is so constructed as to hold a fire in check until the firemen arrive.

"It is no secret," said the inspector, "that at least one-fourth of the city needs to be rebuilt. Older sections, where buildings have been standing for a great many years, constitute our greatest fire hazards."

In his campaign to have dilapidated buildings put in proper repair, Inspector Connor will seek the aid and co-operation of the police department and will request that all such structures are reported to his office. He then will follow up each report and unless repairs are made he will condemn the building.

The inspector states that his inspection force is not large enough to cope with the situation without some outside aid.

Miss Kenney of Northfield Indicted

GREENFIELD, March 15.—Miss Elizabeth Kenney of Northfield, former bookkeeper and housekeeper for Warren J. Wright, town treasurer, was indicted by the grand jury which reported today on the charge of the larceny of $15,000 of Northfield town funds. The indictment contained 24 counts, eight charging forging and uttering and 16 charging larceny. Miss Kenney has been confined in the Franklin county jail since her arrest March 4 near Boston, owing to inability to furnish $10,000 bail. Miss Kenney entered pleas of not guilty to all counts.

$50,000 to Aid Unemployed Veterans

BOSTON, March 15.—Governor Cox proposes to ask the legislature for a second appropriation of $50,000 to be used in employing war veterans in clearing up the debris left by the ice storm of the early winter. Herman A. MacDonald, the governor's secretary, made this announcement today at a conference at the State House on the unemployment situation attended by Major General Clarence R. Edwards, commanding the first army corps area, State Commander Charles H. Cole of the American Legion and the mayors of several cities.

Wall Street Brokers Plead Guilty

NEW YORK, March 15.—Isador Friedman and George Markelson, among the first Wall street brokers to be indicted during the bucket shop investigation conducted by the district attorney's office, pleaded guilty in supreme court today to grand larceny. They will be sentenced March 20. Samuel M. Small, 19 years old, who was indicted with them, will be placed on trial tomorrow.

AUTO PARTY UNDER FIRE

Officer Captures Trio After Forcing Driver to Run Auto Over 10-Foot Bank

BOSTON, March 15.—Mounted Officer Frank Sullivan captured three men in an automobile chase early today after firing five shots and forcing the driver to run the car over a 10 foot embankment on Brookline avenue. The three men who escaped injury, gave these names: John W. McAuliffe, Roland Rothwell and William Beatty. McAuliffe was charged with intoxication and the others were held as suspicious persons.

ICE IS RELEASED WHEN BOOM BREAKS

Fully as much water and perhaps a trifle more is sweeping between the banks of the Merrimack river today than yesterday. The 10 o'clock reading by the Locks and Canals at the Pawtucket dam showed that the height of the water was approximately a half a foot lower, but absence of flash boards in many places makes an accurate reading difficult.

The early morning reading of the gauge in back of the Boott mills, however, showed 43.35 against 43.41 at the same time yesterday and the Locks and Canals feel that perhaps this reading is more accurate and that the river is a little higher than it was yesterday.

MORE WIVES APPEAR

Isaiah Moore Declares He is Sure He Only Married 13; —Forgets Names

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 15.—Two more wives were added today to the list of matrimonial ventures of Isaiah Moore, who is under arrest here charged with bigamy and embezzlement.

"I have kept a pretty good record of my marriages, and I am sure there are only 13," said Moore.

Moore told the police in the original list of 11 marriages he had neglected to include one at Denver, Colo., where he said he was married under the name of James Vaughan, and also one at Ridgeway, Md., where he gave the name of Harry Forbes. He said he could not remember the names of either of the wives.

"I have always been subject to severe nervous disorders. Petting and affection have caused my nervousness. I would get tired of one woman and desert her. Then I would feel the need of affection and would get married again," Moore said.

The breaking of the boom in the river just above the Gage locks, at the head of the Pawtucket canal, caused large quantities of logs to fill the lower river around the locks, hour. It passed through the canal and out into the river again near the Prescott mill in East Merrimack street.

TREATY FOES ARE BEATEN

Amendment Defeated in Senate After Stormy Debate, 30 Voted in Favor

Lenroot Says Harding May Make Treaties Issue at Polls in November

WASHINGTON, March 15.—After another stormy debate in which possible political consequences of the administration treaty program were discussed from several angles, the senate late yesterday rejected by a division almost on party lines the first two of the proposed amendments to the four-power Pacific pact.

At the peak of their strength with 31 short of the full membership present and voting, the opposition to the treaty marshaled 25 democratic and 4 republican votes, within two of a third of the full senate membership, but three fewer than enough to upset the two-thirds needed for final ratification if all senators participate in this vote.

Leaders on both sides conceded, however, that at best the division was but a poor index to senate sentiment on the question of ratification itself.

Four Democrats With Majority

The first of the two amendments acted upon was offered by Senator Robinson, democrat, Arkansas, and provided that the four powers should refrain from aggression against non-signatory as well as signatory nations and that all interested nations whether signatories to the treaty or not should be invited to any conference over a Pacific controversy. The proposal was lost, 30 to 55. Later a similar amendment in different form was presented by Senator Walsh, democrat, Montana, and was voted down, 27 to 50.

On both rollcalls four republicans—Borah of Idaho, Johnson of California, France of Maryland and LaFollette of Wisconsin—voted in the affirmative, while an equal number of democrats—Pomerene of Ohio, Ransdell of Louisiana, Underwood of Alabama and Williams of Mississippi—joined the opposition.

Of the New England delegation, Senators Walsh of Massachusetts and Gerry of Rhode Island, democrats, voted for the amendment, while Senators Fernald and Hale of Maine, Keyes of New Hampshire, Dillingham and Page of Vermont, Lodge of Massachusetts, Colt of Rhode Island, and Brandegee and McLean of Connecticut, republicans, voted against the amendment. Senator Moses of New Hampshire, republican, was absent.

Senator Lenroot, republican, Wisconsin, warned the democrats that should the four-power pact be defeated, President Harding might withdraw the other treaties and ask the country for a verdict at the polls in November.

By Senator McCumber, republican, North Dakota, the president was invited to say what had become of the republican campaign pledge for 1920 for an "Association of Nations." Senator McCumber put into the Record a plan of his own for such a world "Association."

Senator Walsh of Montana, democrat, argued for the Robinson amendment.

Both Senators Lodge, republican, Massachusetts, the republican leader, and Underwood, democrat, Alabama, the democratic leader, argued against the amendments on the ground that they would necessitate reopening the negotiations. When Senator Walsh suggested that the American people would not be satisfied with such an explanation, Senator Lodge retorted that "We'll risk that."

Opposing the amendment, Senator Williams, democrat, Mississippi, declared that he saw "no reason to mutilate or defeat a treaty which provided for preserving the peace within a limited area."

"The other parties to this treaty," continued Senator Williams, "are France, Japan and—unfortunately—Great Britain. I say unfortunately, because if Great Britain were not a party, all the German-American and Irish-American opposition would have ceased long ago.

"It's a pity, perhaps, that Great Britain exists at all. But she does and is a party to this treaty, and along with Japan and France is a member of the League of Nations. As members of the league they are all three required to sit down, as they would do under this amendment, and talk over their controversies.

"Now, I am a democrat, a Bourbon democrat, a plain, plain fool Mississippi democrat; but I do not mix politics with foreign relations."

Senator Williams declared that if a republican president had sent the Versailles treaty to the senate, three-fourths of the republicans would have voted for it.

And if President Wilson had sent the treaties to the senate two-thirds of the democrats would have voted for them.

He added: "It seems to me it's about time we stopped our politics at the coast line."

Stanley Praises Irish Race

Senator Stanley, democrat, Kentucky, interrupted to deplore what he termed "nauseous adulation of Great Britain."

Senator Williams' position was assailed by Senator Robinson. He charged that Secretary Hughes had made two great mistakes: In signing with 39 other republicans before election a statement that the way to secure entrance of the United States into the League of Nations was to elect Harding president, and in regard to the expense of the army of occupation on the Rhine, charging:

"Because Mr. Hughes failed to safeguard our rights in one way or another we are in danger of losing this $241,000,000."

Senator Stanley, democrat, Kentucky, made an impassioned address praising the Irish race and regretting "a gratuitous, unprovoked and unwarranted assault upon a great and patriotic body of American citizens," declaring Irish antipathy to Great Britain was justified.

13 NATIONS ENTERED FOR CUP TOURNEY

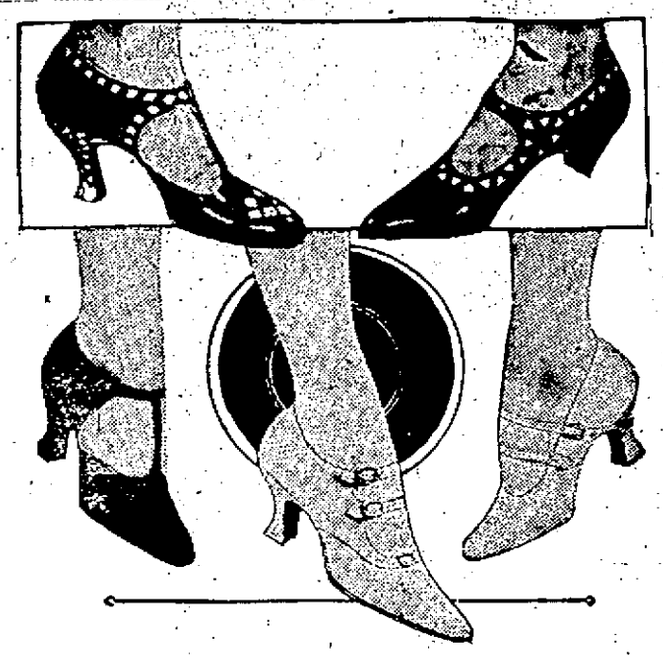

NEW YORK, March 15.—A record-breaking list of 13 nations, already entered for competition, marks the Davis cup international team tennis championship tournament entry closing at noon today. The drawings will be made on Friday and the various countries entered immediately informed of the results.

The list consists of Australia, British Isles, Canada, India, Denmark, France, Spain, Italy, Belgium, Czecho-Slovakia, Japan, Rumania and Hawaii.

Last year Japan defeated Australia three matches to two at Newport in the final round and was in turn defeated by the United States team, five matches to none in the challenge round at Forest Hills, N. Y.

SIX JURORS FOR ARBUCKLE TRIAL

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—With six jurors accepted temporarily, attorneys for state and defense today resumed their efforts to fill the remaining six seats in the jury box for the third trial of Roscoe Arbuckle, on a manslaughter charge growing out of the death of Miss Virginia Rappe, film actress.

STRAPS AND BUCKLES

By MARJAN HALE

NEW YORK, March 14.—Summer footwear, as the latest styles from London indicate, will be very much a thing of straps, buckles and cut designs. Some of the most clever of the new things are black patent leather sandals with cut designs of white following the lines of stitching and ornamenting the heels. Sometimes the toes are left quite plain, occasionally they sport a small cut design.

The one-strap slipper on pump lines will be worn much. Very often the slipper of this type is of fabric, satin or brocade and ornamented with beading.

The small buckles which made their appearance last year are holding their own in the field of fastenings. They are used more, however, on suede footwear, while buttons are reserved for satin. Satin and suede are often used in combination.

WEATHER BUREAU ISSUES WARNING

WASHINGTON, March 15.—The weather bureau today issued the following storm warning:

"Advisory 9.30 a. m., northeast storm warnings displayed on the Atlantic coast from Norfolk, Va., to Atlantic City, N. J. Disturbance central over North Carolina and moving eastward will be attended by strong northeast and north winds, diminishing tonight."

DISPUTE BETWEEN IRISH TROOPS ENDS

TEMPLEMORE, Ireland, March 15 (by the Associated Press).—The dispute between different factions of Irish army troops over the occupation of the barracks here has been amicably adjusted as the result of a visit from Owen O'Duffy, chief of staff of the Irish republican army, and Adjutant General Sullivan.

TO ERECT MONUMENT TO STRIKE RIOT VICTIM

PAWTUCKET, R. I., March 15.—The wood makers' union has started a movement to erect a monument to the memory of Jose d'Assuncao, the Portuguese national who was killed at the strike riot in this city on Feb. 21. Other labor unions, as well as the Portuguese residents, will be asked to contribute to the fund.

Ban on Mass Picketing

No attempt was made today to test the order of Sheriff Jonathan Andrews against mass picketing at the mill gates. A few pickets appeared at most of the factories and they report no change in working conditions there. The labor leaders intend to have a conference today with the sheriff on the question of picketing.

REVOLUTIONISTS ROUTED

Artillery, Tanks and Airplanes Used in Capture of Fordsburg, So. Africa

LONDON, March 15 (by the Associated Press).—With all sectors of the disaffected area in South Africa cleared of rebels except certain portions of the Johannesburg, or central region of the Rand, the struggle apparently has entered its final phase. Jeppestown, in the east end of Johannesburg, seems to be the principal remaining centre of resistance.

Artillery, tanks and airplanes were used in the capture of Fordsburg from the revolutionists yesterday. They capitulated after 75 minutes of bombardment.

In the East Rand extensive properties and mines were recovered and 168 revolutionists captured. Their leaders, however, escaped.

Jewelers in London are complaining because women are wearing less jewelry than formerly.

MRS. OBENCHAIN CRIES

Woman Accused of Murder in Tears as Counsel Attacks State's Theory

LOS ANGELES, Cal., March 15.—Another day of argument today was ahead of the court where the trial of Mrs. Madalynne Obenchain for the murder of her sweetheart, J. Belton Kennedy, is drawing to a close.

Alfred F. MacDonald, junior defense counsel, began placing the defendant's cause to the jury late yesterday and was ready to resume when court opened this morning.

Mrs. Obenchain cried softly yesterday when Mr. MacDonald addressed the jury, declaring the state's theory that she was "a woman scorned" had been disproved.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth"—bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver—constipation, you'll find quick, sure and pleasant results from one or two of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take them every night just to keep right. Try them. 15c and 30c.—Adv.

CONFERENCE ON WAGE SCALE

Miners Seek 20 P. C. Increase While Mine Owners Favor Decrease

NEW YORK, March 15.—Anthracite miners and operators were prepared today to begin negotiations for a new wage agreement to take the place of the two year contract which expires at the end of this month.

The miners are asking for a 20 per cent. increase in contract rates among other things, while the mine owners are on record as favoring a decrease below the present working basis.

It is not expected that an agreement will be reached before the end of the month, and in that event the scale committee of the hard coal workers is under instructions of the Shamokin convention to order a suspension of mining until a satisfactory agreement is in sight.

A shortage of anthracite coal is not anticipated unless the expected suspension should run into the summer.

The miners enter the joint conference determined, they said, to resist with all their power any effort to reduce their present wage scale as indicated by the operators.

Beyond the general statement that the workers should share in the general deflation by accepting a wage cut, the mine owners have not indicated what proposition they will make.

The principal demands of the miners follow:

A two year contract.

A 20 per cent. increase in the contract wage scale; a one dollar a day increase to all labor paid by the day and that differentials existing between different classes of employes prior to the 1920 award be restored.

A uniform wage scale in all collieries for occupations of like character.

An eight hour day for all employes, those working underground to count their hours from the time they enter the mine until they leave it.

A standard check off provision.

That where coal is paid for by the car the system be changed to a tonnage basis.

CRASH ROCKS TOWN

Ball of Fire Bursts Into Three Forks of Lightning Which Strike Earth Miles Apart

TRURO, N. S., March 15—A ball of fire, descending from a low-lying storm cloud, illuminated this town last night and with a crash that rocked buildings, burst into three forks of lightning which struck the earth miles apart.

One fork set on fire a barn on McClure road; another killed a horse in a stable, about two miles farther north.

When the lightning bolt fell, C. H. Wetherbee was throwing coal into the furnace at his residence. The shovel was wrenched from his hands and flung to the ceiling of the basement, but he was unhurt.

Many persons thought the phenomenon was caused by a meteor.

ACCEPT WAGE CUT AND SAVE TWO LYNN FIRMS

LYNN, March 15—Business agents of two locals prevented two firms leaving Lynn by offering them a 16 per cent wage reduction just in the nick of time.

The reduction was accorded to McGrath Brothers, a leather firm, 454 Union street, when that firm was ready to move to Boston because of the high labor costs in Lynn.

Similar action was promised by Michael J. Carroll of Cutters' Local 61, U. S. of A., in the case of the Frank C. Stuart trimming establishment at 292 Union street.

The 16 per cent cut was made effective by Agent Carroll when he went to the plant and persuaded the McGrath cutters to accept the cut. The allowance of a 16 per cent wage reduction cuts the war bonus of 56 per cent to 40 per cent.

Agent Carroll declared that by allowing the wage cut he prevented some 100 cutters being thrown out of work.

the conflagration grew possibly was of incendiary origin, was the statement of Shirley P. High, city fire attorney, who early this morning announced the arrest of an unnamed man on information supplied by H. T. Schiff, president of the Confectionery Specialty Co., at 521 West Jackson boulevard, where the fire started.

Mr. High refused to divulge the name of the man arrested, but said that he was being questioned regarding threatening letters Mr. Schiff said the man, a former employe, had sent to him. Mr. Schiff told Mr. High the man was discharged when he became incensed over refusal to permit him to purchase stock in the company and within the past two months had made a series of threats. Mr. Schiff placed his personal loss at $50,000.

Traversing the main burned area, the Metropolitan west side elevated line today was seriously handicapped in delivering its thousands of patrons to the downtown district, as was the Aurora and Elgin Electric Interurban line.

Fireproof Structure Checks Blaze

The huge Burlington office building, called a fireproof structure, kept the fire from spreading westward, while progress of the flames toward the south was stopped by the access the firemen had to the smaller buildings—two to six stories—which begin south of Van Buren street.

Cash and securities valued at approximately $6,000,000 are said to be in the vaults of the burned Mercantile Trust & Savings bank and it may be several days before they can be examined.

So intense was the heat in the burning district that the steel supports of the elevated structure could be seen at white heat.

The Van Buren street tunnel of the Chicago surface lines, under the Chicago river, debouches just at the burned area and for hours a stream of water poured into it until the tunnel was filled to street level.

The Mercantile Trust & Savings bank later announced that the cash and securities in its vaults were amply protected by heavy steel, cement and asbestos walls and that it was quite safe.

It was estimated that more than 35,000 persons were made jobless through the fire.

$300,000 LOSS

Fire Destroys Eight Garages in Hoboken

HOBOKEN, N. J., March 15.—Fire early today in the Fisher-Sweeney Bronze Co. building, at Grand and 13th streets, destroyed the structure, spread to a five-story tenement in Clinton st. and burned eight garages before it was controlled. The loss was $300,000.

$5000 FIRE LOSS

New Dwelling at Shawsheen Village Burned

ANDOVER, March 15—Fire, caused by an oil stove which had been left burning to dry plaster, destroyed one of the new American Woolen company's dwellings at Shawsheen village early this morning, entailing a loss of $5000. The house was not occupied. Bad roads prevented the firemen from reaching the house and a hose line 1000 feet long, had to be laid.

By Their Hair Shall Ye Know Them— At Least Judge Graham Says So

JUDGE THOMAS F. GRAHAM AND ACTRESSES PORTRAYING THE HAIR-DRESSING TYPES THAT HE SAYS TELL THEIR OWN STORY

By GENE COHN

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—It's all "in the way she does her hair!"

Superior Judge Thomas F. Graham, famed divorce court mediator, who has won the title of "the great reconciler," has concluded, after a considerable amount of experimentation, that considerable of a woman's character is betrayed by the particular way her locks are arranged.

He finds that he can almost invariably predict the part a woman sitting in the courtroom will play in a particular divorce action.

And here is his general schedule of how the hair betrays the type:

Spit Curls—Here is the jazz lady. Chances are the 'spit curl wasn't in evidence when she started jazzing around, but was acquired as a matter of course. It's to be found about cabarets and wherever the jazz bands play. Inclines to flapperism, flighty and very likely to be the defendant in a divorce action involving inconstancy.

Bobbed—Accompanies short skirts, cigarets, smocks, tam o' shanters, bohemianism—all so-called "modern girl" sort of thing. Indication of "advanced thought," ultra-modern theories.

Mona Lisa—The kind with hair parted trimly in middle and falling in sleek order over the ears. She's the "career hunter"—the lady seeking her soul. Seemingly demure and generally not unlovely.

Ear Muffs—Likely to have too much petting and pampering at home. The kind you'd expect to run home to mother if "friend husband" asked her to cook a meal.

Marcel Wave—Disposition likely to resemble the hair—that is, artificial, as rigidly set as the curves of the hair and hence, stubborn, unreasonable, etc.

Hair Dishevelled—Runs her house as she fixes her hair. Is likely to throw a dish or bring a rolling pin into play if a man were to complain about her bad housekeeping or her cooking.

Oh, yes—the judge adds—there is a type whose hair is soft and silky and combed without eccentricities; hair that seems to form almost a halo about the head; graceful and womanly—

"Only we don't see her in court very often!" he says.

EPSOM, N. H., March 15.—Epsom wants a doctor. A town of 655 persons, it has had no physician to minister to its ailments for so long that the town meeting last night directed the selectmen to get one and to provide him with a home and an office.

BATTERY B HOLDS ATHLETIC MEET

Tuesday night the local armory was the scene of some real live sporting events in which some of Lowell's best talent competed.

The first event of the evening was a 15-minute wrestling bout between Private Fournier and Kid O'Grady. The bout furnished plenty of action but neither man scored a fall.

The next was a wrestling bout between Tiger Pearsall, a whirlwind in the grappling art, and Private Dougherty, both Battery B men, which ended in a victory for the Tiger. He threw his man in nine minutes, with a headlock and body smother.

Then came a 20-yard dash, won by Andromedas, the well known Greek athlete, in 2 4-5 seconds. He also won the shotput at 46 feet.

The next event was a running high jump, which narrowed down to two participants when the bar was moved up to 4 feet 10 inches, George Cargas and Andromedas. Both men cleared this, and it was moved up to 5 feet, but Cargas dropped out, unable to clear it. Andromedas won with a jump of 5 feet 6 inches to his credit.

A four-round bout was then staged between Young Conlon of the Battery and Dukey McGregg, which proved a thriller, Conlon being a shifty, two-fisted boxer, and McGregg a southpaw with a hard punch and the ability to take 'em. It was a no-decision bout.

Young Croft, a well known local wrestler, then took on a wrestler by the name of Silva for 15 minutes, during which there were no falls registered.

The last event of the evening brought the crowd to its feet when Young Duffy, the 110-pound amateur champion, took on Young McKenzie. They fought hard and fast for two rounds, both rounds being even, but in the third round McKenzie was forced to quit when a hard right burst a spy in his eye.

The events were well appreciated by all, and much credit is due Private Johnson, a well known wrestler and physical instructor of Battery B, who was the promoter of the matches. He is a hard worker for the interests of the battery and his intentions are to stage some real live events in the near future.

During the evening Corp. David Dobson entertained between bouts with some Scotch songs.

The referee for the bouts was First Sergeant Judge and the timekeeper was Paul Cote.

MYSTERIOUS CREATURE NOT PLESIOSAURUS

BUENOS AIRES, March 16. (By the Associated Press.)—It was not a plesiosaurus that was seen swimming in an Andean lake recently, but probably a descendant either of the horny plated glyptodon, or of the megatherium, in the opinion of Prof. Onelli, director of the Buenos Aires zoo.

Prof. Onelli explained that while the plesiosaurus dates back ten million years, the glyptodon and megatherium belonged to the quaternary era of only a million years ago. He said that from 1890 to the present time there had been 12 places in Patagonia between latitudes 38 and 52, at which mysterious creatures were reported to have been seen.

Oh! My Back Is Hurting Me So

Old, reliable St. Jacobs Oil will stop all Backache, Lumbago and Stiffness at once!

Back hurts you? Can't straighten up without sudden pain, sharp aches and twinges? Now listen! That's lumbago, sciatica, or maybe from a strain, and you'll get relief the moment you rub your back with soothing, penetrating St. Jacobs Oil. Nothing else takes out soreness, lameness and stiffness so quickly. You simply rub it on your back, and out comes the pain. It is harmless, and doesn't burn the skin.

Limber up! Don't suffer! Get a small trial bottle of old, honest St. Jacob's Oil from any drug store, and after using it just once you'll forget that you ever had backache, lumbago or sciatica, because your back will never hurt, or cause any more misery. It never disappoints, and has been recommended for 60 years.—Adv.

IF "Cover mouth and nose when you cough or sneeze. If you don't, you'll spread disease."

If everyone would take this precaution, there would be fewer epidemics of Influenza. Colds whether taking the form of Influenza with sneezing, running nose and a rough feeling throat, or with chilly and feverish symptoms, should never be neglected in the earliest stages. If you hope to avoid a disagreeable experience, don't eat too heartily; drink plenty of water; get to bed early in a well-ventilated room; have your body well-warmed, and be sure to have your bowels move freely.

SOLDIERS' BONUS BILL WINS, 19 TO 5

WASHINGTON, March 15—A favorable report on the Soldiers' bonus bill was ordered yesterday by the house ways and means committee, 10 to 5.

Chairman Fordney plans to submit his formal report Wednesday or Thursday, but said the time of calling the measure up in the house would not be fixed definitely until after the return of Speaker Gillett to bring any message on the bonus from the executive and that the subject of the conference with the speaker would be the question of calling up the bill next Monday under a suspension of the rules. Some members of the house, however, expressed the belief that Mr. Gillett would be prepared to give the president's views on the compromise bill.

The vote on the measure yesterday in the committee was taken 10 minutes after Secretary Mellon, Controller of the Currency Crissinger and Gov. Harding of the Federal Reserve board had been questioned for two hours in open session as to their ideas of the bank loan adjusted certificate plan.

The five members voting against a favorable report were Garner of Texas, Kitchin of North Carolina and Collier of Mississippi, democrats, and Treadway of Massachusetts and Tilson of Connecticut, republicans.

JUSTICE TAFT TALKS ON COLLEGE ATHLETICS

WASHINGTON, March 15.—Chief Justice Taft, speaking at a meeting here last night of the Yale Alumni association, of which he is honorary president, said he believed the growth of big collegiate athletic exhibitions was militating against the intellectual life of the institutions and should be curbed. Athletic contests in the form of great public exhibitions, he said, were not helping the educational purposes for which the institutions were founded.

"I would be glad to see a stop put to them and rejoice to see several institutions leading to that end," he declared.

CHINESE FETE THIS EVENING

The Chinese fete to be conducted under the auspices of the Lowell Art association in Colonial hall this evening, will be one of the most novel society events in the city for some time. With the assistance of a dozen or more Chinese students from the Textile school and Chinese young women from Wellesley college, examples of Chinese dramatic art and customs will be staged. The fact that persons having seats on the floor of the hall have been asked to appear in some sort of oriental dress should make the affair unusual and decidedly picturesque.

MEN'S MEETING

A men's evangelistic rally will be held at the Y.M.C.A. Sunday afternoon at 3.30. T. C. Henderson who is conducting evangelistic meetings in Lowell will be the speaker. Mr. Henderson hails from the west and is a forceful and direct speaker. He is especially at home when addressing men's meetings and the men Sunday afternoon who hear Mr. Henderson are promised a treat. The subject of his address will be "The Undertow."

BASEBALL SCHEDULE

ANDOVER, March 15—Sixteen games will be played by the Phillips Andover Academy baseball team, according to the schedule announced yesterday, by Coach Fred J. Daly. The season will open April 19, and will close June 10, when the annual game with Exeter will be played in Andover.

Normal adult can hold his breath from 40 to 45 seconds.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

By Theatres' Own Press Agents.

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

"Blackface" Eddie Ross with his African harp will coax many a laugh from you at the B. F. Keith theatre this week. There is no more effective coaxer in this particular than is Ross. And there are few who are as artistic in their story telling as is he. Furthermore, his plucking of the banjo is artistic in the extreme. His act is of A1 quality. Harry Holmes and Florrie La Vere in "Themselves" are of topline quality every second they are in view. Their act is distinctive and their fun is original. It is the first time this lively pair has ever visited Lowell. Another hit of the week is "A Regular Guy," with Bobby Bernard & Co. playing it. The Ja Da trio, made up of three former sailors, are lively to the limit, and Kay Neilan is a dainty singing comedienne. Other nots are those of the Seebacks and The Kitaros.

OPERA HOUSE

Seldom if ever has such an artistic and elaborate stage production been given in local stock circles than what Miss Marguerite Fields and her popular players are giving at the Opera House this week. "The Two Orphans," a play that is too well known to need comment, is the attraction, and judging from the manner in which it is being received, it still retains all of the drawing power of old. The Players are doing wonderfully good work in it and deserve the many good things that are being said of their efforts. Better get your tickets early for the remaining performances. Box office, Tel. 261.

RIALTO THEATRE

Rex Ingram's latest production, "Turn to the Right" is having wonderful success at the Rialto theatre. In the minds of some it excels his great "The Four Horsemen." It is comedy and pathos from beginning to end and both are blended perfectly. On the same program today is a Johnny Hines comedy, "Dog-Gone 'Porchy" and beginning tomorrow the added attraction will be "Jonathan and David."

SPECIAL AT THE STRAND

Montagu Love, one of the most popular screen stars of the present day, will appear in person at the Strand, both afternoon and evening during Thursday, Friday and Saturday, in his original act—the same that scored such a pronounced hit at the opening of The State theatre, Boston, earlier in the week. Montague Love is well and favorably known hereabouts. He has a wide circle of personal friends and admirers in and about Lowell, and no doubt they will turn out in large numbers at all performances during the week-end. There will be no advance in the prices, and assurance is given that the usual high class photo-play program will not be neglected in the slightest way. Mr. Love will hold receptions in the theatre lobby, and on Friday night, the management will give a complimentary dancing party to him in the theatre foyer to which all patrons in attendance on that night are cordially invited. When Mr. Love appeared with Viola Dana, Bert Lytell and other stars in Boston during the first part of the week, Mr. Love proved the real star. He has a happy faculty of "getting close" to his audiences by telling good stories and relating anecdotes of himself and the other screen stars. He will present the same act that scored so heavily in the Hub. It should prove a big hit here.

THE STRAND

Without question one of the strongest triple-featured bills of the season is being presented at the Strand for the first three days of the week, and will be shown for the last time today. Viola Dana in "There Are No Villains," Buster Keaton in his funniest comedy, "The Playhouse," shown exclusively, and Hoot Gibson in "Sure Fire." Don't miss it today.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

MANY CASES OF RHEUMATISM NOW

Says We Must Keep Feet Dry, Avoid Exposure and Eat Less Meat

Stay off the damp ground, avoid exposure, keep feet dry, eat less meat, drink lots of water and above all take a spoonful of salts occasionally to keep down uric acid.

Rheumatism is caused by poisonous toxin, called uric acid, which is generated in the bowels and absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine. The pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly, cold weather the skin pores are closed, thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate this uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jads Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism.—Adv.

"The Grim Comedian," a Goldwyn creation, and a drama of the human being back of the glittering portals of the stage is the headliner for the last three days of the week, beginning with matinee on Thursday. Jack Holt is the star and he receives the assistance of a most capable cast. It's a story carved right out of life and has some angles that will prove mighty interesting to all. The other feature will show Gareth Hughes in "The Hunch," a story that deals with the adventures of a young Wall street broker who wakes up one morning after a convivial party and develops a "hunch on a certain stock that he believes will jump. The outcome is interesting.

On Friday night, immediately after the performance, general dancing will be provided the patrons. The music will be by a jazz orchestra and the spacious foyer will furnish an excellent dance surface.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

Final performances will be given today at the Merrimack Square theatre of "Moran of the Lady Letty," starring Rudolph Valentino and Dorothy Dalton, and "The Red Peacock," starring Pola Negri.

The features for Thursday, Friday and Saturday, marking the close of the 10th anniversary of Paramount Week, will be "Three Live Ghosts," a George Fitzmaurice production starring Anna Q. Nilsson and Norman Kerry, and "Love's Boomerang," featuring Ann Forrest and David Powell.

"Three Live Ghosts" is a picturization of Frederic S. Isham's famous stage play and is unquestionably one of Mr. Fitzmaurice's best screen productions. Comedy and pathos are delightfully blended in the story and the portrayals are highly artistic. It has to do with three world war veterans, of entirely different characters, temperaments and general stations in life, who return to England after having been thought dead. Their adventures make a mighty amusing story.

The leading roles are well handled. Miss Nilsson is a capable actress and one of the most beautiful women on the screen. She is a native of Sweden and after a stage experience in Europe and this country, she entered motion picture work. She supported William S. Hart in "The Toll Gate" and played the heroine role in "The Fighting Chance."

Norman Kerry is an American screen player who scored heavily in "Proxies" and in "Get-Rich-Quick Wallingford." He has been seen in many picture successes but his role in "Three Live Ghosts" marks his first appearance in a Paramount picture made abroad.

"Love's Boomerang," the other feature for the week-end, is exceptionally meritorious.

The story deals with a young artist who adopts a motherless girl and learns to love her. She weds another man for whose murder she is later arrested. Of course, she is innocent and how this was demonstrated, vests the development of the story with drama, real thrills and genuine appeal. Ann Forrest as Pernetua and David Powell as Brian the artist, are quite artistic in their portrayals. The supporting cast is a brilliant one, some of the more notable players including John Miltern, Geoffrey Kerr, Amy Willard and Tom Volbecque.

As a special added attraction Manager Nelson has secured exclusive pictures of the royal wedding of Princess Mary, with views of Lloyd George, King George and Queen Mary. Next Monday will bring George Arliss in his noted production, "The Ruling Passion."

In 75 years, from 1783 to 1857, the kingdom of Naples lost nearly 112,000 inhabitants by earthquakes, or more than 1200 a year.

Michael Kirtio Offers Proof

Mr. Michael Kirtio, 185 Benwich St., Newburgh, N. Y., writes.

"Your Bosak's Horke Vino helped me. I was bothered somewhat with a stomach ailment, but from the time I started to use your Bosak's Horke Vino, I immediately began to feel better, and by continuing the treatment, the ailment disappeared. For everything that you advertise I will prove that by myself. I thank you for what Bosak's Horke Vino has done for me."

Coughs and Cold Never Bother Him

"Every year I have been troubled with coughs and colds," writes Mr. M. Gazdik, 1127 Hays Ave., Carrick, Pa. "I tried various cough medicines; none of them seemed to give me any relief, the cough would always run its spell. I secured a bottle of Bosak's Horke Vino and I almost instantly felt better. I continued its use and the cold very rapidly disappeared. I think it is such a valuable medicine that every time I take a slight chill I take your Bosak's Horke Vino and am no longer troubled with coughs and colds. It seemed to build up my entire system and protect it from attacks of this kind."

The genuine BOSAK'S HORKE VINO is for sale at Campbell's Drug Store, 223 Central St., and the Barkinshaw Drug Co., 418 Middlesex St., and all good dealers. Adv.

GET RID OF YOUR FAT

Thousands of others have gotten rid of theirs WITHOUT DIETING OR EXERCISING often at the rate of over a pound a day and WITHOUT PAYMENT until reduction has taken place.

I am a licensed practising physician and personally select the treatment for each individual case, thus enabling me to choose remedies that will produce not only a loss of weight harmlessly, but which will also relieve you of all the troublesome symptoms of overstoutness such as shortness of breath, palpitation, indigestion, rheumatism, gout, asthma, kidney trouble and various other afflictions which often accompany overstoutness.

My treatment will relieve that depressed, tired, sleepy feeling, giving you renewed energy and vigor, a result of the loss of your superfluous fat.

You are not required to change in the slightest from your regular mode of living. There is no dieting or exercising. It is simple, easy and pleasant to take.

If you are overstout do not postpone but sit down right now and send for my FREE TRIAL TREATMENT and my plan whereby I am to be PAID ONLY AFTER REDUCTION HAS TAKEN PLACE if you so desire.

NO one is in a better position to know how to wash silk, woolen, or fine cotton, than the manufacturers of these products. It is a matter of business to these manufacturers that the lovely fabrics and garments they make should receive careful laundering.

One careless washing, for instance, may ruin a silk blouse. A baby's woolen shirt or band will shrink or yellow almost beyond recognition in three careless washings.

When this happens, the manufacturers of the fabric or garment are held responsible by their customers.

For this reason, such prominent manufacturers as Belding Brothers and the William Carter Company felt that it was essential for them to work out the safest way to wash their products.

Thorough washing tests have been made by the domestic science department of a famous university. Samples of silks, woolens, linens and fine cottons were laundered the average number of times. Careful records were kept and the washed samples compared, after each laundering, with samples of the material which had never been washed.

As a result, the manufacturers whose goods were tested are recommending Lux to their customers. They know that Lux could not stand up under these severe tests unless it was absolutely pure and mild.

They say without reservation that Lux is safe—that if water alone won't harm a fabric or color, Lux can't.

Lux is sold everywhere. Get a package from your grocer or department store today. Lever Bros. Co., Cambridge, Mass.

"The Sheik's Wife" Will Cure Your Yearning to Be a Desert Bride

MARCEL VILBERT, HE'S THE SHEIK IN "THE SHEIK'S WIFE," NW VITAGRAPH RELEAS

EMMY LYNN, SHE WEDS A SWARTHY SON OF TH DESERT IN "THE SHEIK'S WIFE"

By JAMES W. DEAN

NEW YORK, March 15.—"The Sheik's Wife," an antidote for "The Sheik." Any impressionable young lady with a yearning to rush into the burning sands of the nearest desert to be wooed and won by a tribal chieftain will find her yearning waning after one view of "The Sheik's Wife."

Many such young ladies there are. Their yearnings arose after they saw the romantic way in which Rudolph Valentino tamed Agnes Ayres in "The Sheik."

Agnes had an easy time of it in her movie harem compared to the experiences of Emmy Lynn in "The Sheik's Wife."

As Emmy arrives at her new home in the desert her sheik commands, "Hide well thy face. We have reached the home of my stern parents."

Then come the formalities of introduction. Emmy meets the sheik's mother, then she meets his father's second legal wife, then his father's third legal wife.

Then comes Emmy's first faux pas. She invites herself to eat with her husband, but Arab sheiks do not sit with their wives at wedding breakfasts. Brides eat what is left by their masters.

It was sacrilege for Emmy to look upon the face of a European man.

Desert love must be a hardy thing to endure. The surprise in "The Sheik's Wife" is that it does endure without the sheik turning out to be a European posing as an Arab. That was the silly turn of affairs in "The Sheik."

Sheik Types

The American idea of a sheik as personified in Rudolph Valentino is that of a dapper, beardless youth who remains dapper in spite of sandstorms and weary treks over the desert.

The European idea is exemplified in "The Sheik's Wife," made by a French company directed by Henry Roussell. Marcel Vilbert is the Arab chief in that.

Marcel has a weak chin and the eyes of a girl, but a bit of chin whisker gives him a touch of desert atmosphere—it seems that all sheiks have whiskers.

The travesty of both the American and European films is that neither of them has for hero a man of domination. Yet the motive of each is man's domination over woman, or rather, woman's desire to be dominated.

The photography of the European picture is inferior to the American product, but it reaches a greater degree of realism. That, because it was filmed in Algeria and has real people of the desert as extras.

Comedy of Manners

I heard one girl at the New York Strand, where "The Sheik's Wife" had its American debut, say that customs of the Arabs weren't much different from customs of Americans. She probably compared the sheik who ignored his wife at mealtime to the American husband who hides behind a newspaper at breakfast. She might also have observed that even swarthy daughters of the desert use powder puffs.

Tom Mix wrote "Clean Up Sudden," his next picture. Patsy Ruth Miller is the heroine.

A Boy Scout film is to be made by Universal. That was suggested by Will Hays.

NEW BODY LINES OAKLAND FEATURE

The new Oakland models have distinctly new body lines. A higher radiator, hood and cowl, together with noticeable body refinements, give a smartness and an appearance of power that must impress even the casual observer.

These new body lines of the Oakland "6-44" models are indicative of the numerous improvements which have also been incorporated in engine and chassis construction—improvements particularly designed to increase both pride in ownership and driver satisfaction.

The Oakland engine is of the six-cylinder, overhead valve type, noted for its constant power and reliability, and possesses many refinements and improvements. Improved pistons and piston rings have been added and the cylinders are specially honed to insure a perfect individual fit.

A silent chain drive has been made standard at the front of the motor, insuring freedom from noise and excessive vibration at all road speeds. Engine changes are along the lines of the most recently approved engineering design and the "6-44" is fitted with an unusually reliable power plant, with flexibility and quick pickup. Proof of the confidence which engineers have in this improved engine construction is indicated by the special 15,000-mile guaranty which goes with every "6-44" model.

Drum type, no-glare headlights, with exterior means for focussing, are standard. Nickel-plating is used on the radiator and other parts of the car where it will add most to the appearance. Oaklands is continuing the policy of individually tailored tops and curtains and in the open cars the curtains open with the door.

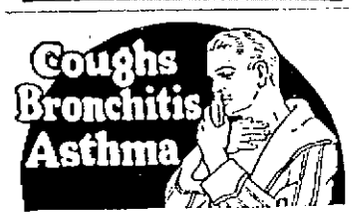

Rear windows and windshields are of plate glass and in the closed models there is plate glass throughout. Heater, rear view mirror, visor windshield wiper and snubbers are furnished in coupe and sedan. The wheel base is 15 inches.

Committee Appointed to Look Into Town Affairs

At a meeting of the finance committee of the town of Billerica held recently the following special committee was appointed to look into the methods of town affairs and make recommendations to the committee at a later date: Thomas Talbot Clark, chairman; Edgar P. Sellew, P. J. Mahoney, Alex. H. Mitchell and George Rogers. At the opening of the meeting Thomas F. Sheridan was appointed chairman of the finance committee and P. J. Mahoney, secretary.

Tendered Resignation

Ralph E. Dodge, who at the last annual town meeting was elected a member of the board of assessors, has tendered his resignation to the board of selectmen, the said resignation to take effect immediately. The board will convene next Monday night at which time they will take action on the election of a successor to Mr. Dodge.

SIGN OF SPRING

A sure sign of spring is found in the office of the city clerk, where the first licenses have already been issued to local fishermen. The season does not open by law until April 15, but the more ardent disciples of the whipping rod and swirling line are getting their kits in readiness.

FORD COUPE BURNED

Lowell police were last night notified by the Lawrence police that a Ford coupe was found badly burned near the Lawrence pumping station. The number plate, which was 97637, is registered to a Buick touring car owned by a Mr. Drancband, who formerly lived at 495 Moody street, but who recently sold the Buick car and sailed for France.

MEN BLIND TO WOMAN'S SUFFERING

How many men, think you, have any idea of the pain endured by women in their own household, and often without a murmur? They have no patience when the overworked wife and mother begins to get pale, have headaches, backaches, faint spells, or is melancholy and cannot sleep. There is help for every woman in this condition, as evidenced by the many voluntary letters of recommendation which we are continually publishing in this paper for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It will pay any woman who suffers from such ailments to give it a trial.—Adv.

SHOT NEAR HEART

Man Wounded While Demonstrating "Bullet Proof" Vest

NEW YORK, March 15—Pierpont Potter, aged 36 years, employe of the United States Armorer Corporation, donned a bullet-proof vest yesterday and took his place against a wall in the basement of the building to demonstrate the device to prospective customers. Edmund C. McGrath, another employe, leveled a pistol and fired. Potter fell with a dangerous wound near the heart and the customers went away without placing an order.

Taken to a hospital by police, McGrath approached the bed of the wounded man with tears streaming down his cheeks.

"It's all right, Mac," Potter whispered, grasping his hand. "It was an accident; you couldn't help it."

ALLEN'S LUNG HEALER

Is Wonderfully Effective

To mothers who hesitate to give their babies strong medicine we wish to state emphatically that Allen's Lung Healer is as harmless as honey. A child of five once drank a whole bottle without harm. It contains no narcotic and less than one per cent. alcohol.

DOSAGE FOR CHILDREN

1 to 2 years, ¼ teaspoonful.
3 to 4 years, ½ teaspoonful.
5 to 7 years, 2-3 teaspoonful.
8 to 12 years, 1 teaspoonful.
13 to 16 years, 1½ teaspoonfuls.

These are approximate doses, an overdose will do no harm, but will be a needless waste.

WOOD DECORATED BY KING OF ITALY

LAWRENCE, March 15.—The award by the King of Italy to William M. Wood, president of the American Woolen Co., of the royal degree of chevalier, with the cross and crown of Italy, was made known by the Italian vice consul here yesterday. He said the insignia had been received at the Italian consulate in Boston from the embassy at Washington and would be forwarded to Mr. Wood at Palm Beach, Fla.

The vice consul explained the degree as "a personal reward of merit granted only to those who through some exceptional philanthropic deed have become worthy and have gained favor in the eyes of the king."

It was learned yesterday that Mr. Wood had recovered from his recent indisposition and would return to his home in Andover within two weeks.

EXTENSION COURSE IN AUTOMOBILES

Extraordinary interest has been shown in the state university extension course in gasoline automobiles, which begins this evening at the Lowell high school at 7.30 o'clock, and as many enrollments have already been received it is expected that the first session will be well attended and a number of new enrollments received.

The class, which is open to both men and women, will have for its instructor John J. Gildee. Discussions of the parts and types of automobiles will be included in the course, along with a study of engines, transmissions and lighting and starting systems.

Applications may be filed by those interested either at tonight's session or at the office of Superintendent of Schools Molloy in city hall.

PLANS ALL LAID FOR BIG BANQUET

Arrangements for the banquet of the American Irish Historical society of Lowell were finally completed last night, when the committee in charge got together and attended to the last small details. The committee reports that the informal reception from 6.30 to 7.30 o'clock and the program of music and speaking to follow the banquet are the main features of the affair.

The president of the society, Dr. Michael A. Tighe, will call to order at 7.30 and present the toastmaster, Dr. William P. Lawler. The invocation will be given by Rt. Rev. Monsignor William O'Brien, and the main speakers will be Hon. W. T. A. Fitzgerald and Joseph Smith, both of Boston. Other speakers will be Jeremiah J. O'Sullivan, Hugh J. Molloy, Rev. Appleton Grannis and Mayor Brown, and all of them will have something to say relative to the objects of the society and the work which it has outlined. A musical program by a well known quartet will enliven the evening's entertainment.

Cotton on hand Feb. 28, in consuming establishments amounted to 1,596,582 bales of lint and 177,472 of linters, compared with 1,327,155 of lint and 206,243 of linters a year ago, and in public storage and at compresses stocks were 4,221,830 bales of lint and 122,645 of linters compared with 5,503,139 of lint and 322,863 of linters a year ago.

Imports during February amounted to 34,761 bales, compared with 28,055 in February last year.

Exports for February were 338,440 bales, including 12,694 bales of lint, compared with 493,426 bales, including 9713 of linters in February last year.

Cotton spindles active during February numbered 33,797,329 compared with 32,496,856 in February last year.

BEQUESTS IN WILL OF SAMUEL STEVENS

SALEM, March 15—By the will of Samuel D. Stevens of North Andover filed for probate, the North Parish, No. Andover, is left $5000; No. Andover Historical society, $5000; North Andover Improvement society and Lawrence hospital $1000 each and Andover Village Improvement society, $500.

By the will of Harriet A. Clarke of North Andover, a trust fund of $10,000 after the death of a brother, is left to the First Unitarian society of Lawrence, the income to be used to provide good music at the church services. $1000 is also given to First Christian church, North Dighton for similar purposes.

About 400 cubic feet of air, weighing more than 30 pounds, pass through the human lungs every 24 hours.

HIGH PRAISE FOR CHEVROLET SEDAN

"The Lowell public is really astonished at the wonderful coach work in this new superior Chevrolet sedan," says Messrs. Senter and Woodell, local Chevrolet agents. "And well they may be, for it is the classiest closed car ever offered at so low a price."

The body is low, strongly built and beautifully balanced throughout for greatest comfort and economy of wear, fuel and tires. A moulding around the body gives a more finished appearance and carries out the streamlike effect. Four wide doors afford easy entrance and exit to and from both front and rear seats. Three doors have inside latches—the right foredoor has an inside Yale lock and key. All doors are equipped with anti-rattlers. The color is black on upper structure, hood, running gear and wheels. Cowl and lower body panels are a toned Brewster green. Cord tires, straight-side, non-skid 30 by 3½ inches are standard equipment with demountable rims. Fuel supply is from 10-gallon gasoline tank on rear with Stewart vacuum system. Top material all in one piece and held under drip moulding positively prevents leakage.

The front seat is undivided for greater comfort and convenience of passengers and adds greater stability to the body frame. It is low, allowing ample head room and comfortable back rest. Rear seat is removable, affording easy access to back body panel. Both front and rear seats are deep and are finished in striped French plait velour over long coil springs. A cord robe rail with nickel fittings is attached to the rear of the front seat. Clutch and service brake pedals, foot accelerator, starting button, emergency hand brake and gear shift levers and 18-inch steering wheel are arranged for greatest driving convenience. The windshield is adjustable both top and bottom and has an additional permanent visor with rain gutter as protection from glare and storms. Windows are easily raised and lowered with Turnstedt window regulators. Rear window has a silk curtain. Mahogany garnish rails around all windows add to the effect of stability and custom coach work. Polished nickel hardware—door latches, window regulators, door-pull-to handles and dome light add to the distinctive interior appearance. All floor space is carpeted.

CAUSES OF STRIKES

At the Gompers meeting Monday Mrs. Conboy hit the nail on the head when she said that if the manufacturers would come out and show that a 20 per cent cut is necessary, the operatives would accept it. It is the unheralded posting of notices of a cut and the take-it-or-leave-it attitude of the manufacturers, that provokes the operatives to fight the reductions by every means in their power.

A plain, candid statement of the economic and industrial conditions that compelled the cut—if such existed—would probably have prevented the textile strikes and maintained the good feeling between employer and employed.

If the causes had been made clear, the consequences would have been accepted. The strikers are now and always have been open to conviction.

As we have already said, a friendly conference might have prevented all the trouble by removing all misunderstandings.

During the war, as Mr. Gompers intimated, the toilers attained a higher dignity than ever before in this country; and the principle of collective bargaining seemed to have been conceded by employers in general, in some cases reluctantly, it is true. But since the war there has been a growing tendency on the part of employers to recede from that position and to fix wage scales and working conditions rather arbitrarily.

This has naturally led to trouble, and it is one of the basic causes of most of the labor conflicts in progress over the country today.

Possibly there is a reason for it that does not appear to the public or to those on the outside; but if so, it would be well for the textile industry —manufacturers and operatives alike —to have it removed.

It is a well known fact that the textile business in New England is dull, very dull, that the manufacturers are face to face with industrial and economic conditions that in many cases have wiped out their profits. The annual report of the Merrimack Mfg. company shows this; and if these conditions were thoroughly explained to the operatives, we do not believe they would demand the impossible.

Let one of the mills concede collective bargaining and we venture to say that it will find that the surest means of retaining the good will and loyalty of the operatives even under the most adverse conditions. Wise diplomacy is better than war.

BOOM—DON'T BUST LOWELL

"Boost Lowell, boom Lowell, but don't bust Lowell."

That was the final appeal of a very plain and logical statement made to the city council by Tyler A. Stevens on the financial and economic condition of our city and the need for retrenchment in municipal expenditures. As member of the budget and auditing commission Mr. Stevens laid before the commission the inevitable consequences of a continuation of our policy of municipal extravagance. He pointed out that while the average tax rate of the state is $20.13, our tax rate is $31.10 and that if our expenses increase at the present rate the tax rate in 1925 will be $40 and in 1930 about $53. Another increase in the valuation of property which may come unless economy is practised, would put rents higher than at present when in line with the general tendency to lower prices, they should be coming down. Mr. Stevens' warning is timely, logical and to the point. It is the duty of the city council to hew to the line as closely as possible even in the face of obstacles that may seem insuperable.

The city government is conducted for the benefit of all the people and hence the council should not be dragooned into adopting any course that will increase the tax rate if by any reasonable policy of economy, it can be kept down. Any city whose tax rate is above the average for the cities of the state, is handicapped in seeking new industries as manufacturers always look to the tax rate as one of the basic items in the cost of production.

We have a housing problem awaiting solution. The people expect some easement in the housing situation either from new construction or from a reduction in line with the cost of living which must eventually affect all values. Unless the ratio of expenditure be reduced the tax rate will continue to soar with disastrous results to the city and the inevitable consequence of putting all municipal departments on short allowance for a number of years.

"Boost Lowell, boom Lowell, but don't bust Lowell," is good advice and the city council in voting the appropriations should accept it as the course of safety and sanity in dealing with our finances and the economic problems presented in maintaining the public service through the municipal departments.

CLASH WITH THE ALLIES

It looks as if we have made a false step in our relation toward the allied nations of Europe, because of a lack of diplomatic tact. We had only announced our decision not to enter the Genoa conference when we put in a demand for payment of $241,000,000 for the services of our troops in the Rhineland since Armistice day; and not merely a demand for payment, but an assertion of the alleged priority of our claim for payment from the money paid by Germany under the reparation agreement of the Versailles treaty.

That must have come like a thunderbolt to the allied representatives, although it was originally agreed that the armies in the Rhineland should be paid for.

But it is objected that the American claim would call for the greater part of all the money paid thus far by Germany under the reparation agreement.

We showed our generosity toward the allies by refunding the war loans and even by letting the interest account run; but in the present instance we put forward our claim with the coarseness of a bailiff who threatens to smash down the door when serving a summons.

Our claim is just, and had a little tact been used in submitting it, we should have fared quite as well as a creditor, and at the same time held the good will of the debtor nations.

These nations now deny that we have a prior claim on the reparations and that as we did not sign the Versailles treaty, we may not stand on an equal footing with the nations that did, nor have the right to claim priority in this particular case.

The bill, however, appears to be legally contracted under an agreement made after the armistice to the effect that the payment of the expenses for the Rhineland armies should have first claim on the reparation funds turned over by Germany.

These seems to be a misunderstanding about this matter: but while the allied powers will probably do what they can to meet this demand, yet it is plain that they are piqued over the blunt and undiplomatic manner in which the demand was made.

It is presumed that this claim with others from each of the allies against the body will be considered simultaneously and dealt with under a common policy based upon existing agreements. To insist on payment as at first proposed, would cause the allied powers to become our lasting enemies.

This is what we finally get for our disinterestedness in refusing to ask any indemnity or to accept any mandatories; but in the end the army bill will be paid. We need the money, but the allies will find it difficult to pay such a bill at the present time. They are likely also to object that it is excessive as it is undoubtedly much greater than the bills of other powers for maintaining occupation forces. The Americans want to live better than the others.

PHONOGRAPHS

Phonograph makers say they'll sell 1,500,000 machines this year.

Phonograph sales rise and fall with the tides of prosperity. About 540,000 machines were sold in 1914. Sales crept up to 600,000 in 1916, 900,000 in 1917, and reached a peak of 2,225,000 in 1919, when the boom exploded. We express ourselves in music more ardently when times are good.

How many records have you? The average is 35 to a machine. A New York banker heads the list, with 2100.

Ninety-five out of each 100 phonographs are sold on the installment plan, according to a check-up by the National Retail Dry Goods association.

Ninety per cent of the installment-plan buyers pay in full.

Ten per cent have their machines taken away by the collector.

There's a revelation in credit. Only one in 10 buyers bites off more than he can chew, though some of the others find the final installments like pulling teeth.

HIGH FREIGHT RATES

The railroads, by high rates, in 18 months have lost 23 per cent of the business they might have had at low rates.

This is the estimate by Fred W. Putnam, of Minnesota railroad commission.

One estimate, dealing with something that never existed, probably is as good as another. But no one can deny that high prices, in the midst of a period of generally falling prices, strangle business.

Only a certain per cent of the public's income can be spent for transportation. Freight charges regulate volume of traffic.

OUR SOLDIER DEAD

When the army transport Cambrai reaches New York around the end of the month, it will bring 1224 flag-draped caskets, the last large funeral procession of American soldiers who died in France.

Some 15,000 already have been brought home. About 32,000 of those who died overseas will be concentrated in American cemeteries abroad.

Thus the war slowly retreats into the mists of history and yet the bonus question is still unsettled.

If the coal mines close on April 1, the government should be ready to take charge and operate the mines until the parties in conflict see fit to settle their controversy. There is some difference between coal mines and cotton mills.

If those who have a longing for alcoholic liquor continue to patronize bootleggers, it will soon be necessary to open an institution for the blind in this city.

We need a new map of the western hemisphere showing how far the half of one per cent lines extend over the Atlantic and the Pacific. Volstead is not satisfied with the three-mile limit.

President Gompers will die fighting the battles of labor. He bears the weight of years with remarkable felicity.

Ten weeks' casualties in Belfast, Ire., show 83 killed and 157 wounded, offering proof of the inability of the local government to control the situation.

Still the stills are found and still the sales go on. With 27 drunks in the dock on Monday morning, it does not look as if the city were bone dry.

Those private distilleries make more work for the fire department, not to speak of the destruction of property.

SEEN AND HEARD

Love in a cottage isn't so bad if you have some groceries.

Made Bad Break

Mr. Jones at a dinner party had been trying to say something nice to his hostess. "What a small appetite you have, Mr. Jones," she remarked. "To sit next to you, Mrs. Smith," he replied, "would cause any man to lose his appetite." And then he wondered why he wasn't invited to the next affair.

A Thought for Today

For myself I am certain that the good of human life cannot lie in the possession of things which for one man to possess is for the rest to lose, but rather in things which all can possess alike, and where one man's wealth promotes his neighbor's.—Spinoza.

A Word a Day

Today's word is specter. It's pronounced—speck-ter, with accent on the first syllable. It means—a ghost, a spirit, an apparition, a phantom. It comes from—Latin "spectrum," an image. Companion word—spectral. It's used like this—"Appearance of a specter at Antigonish, N. S., has sent a party there to investigate."

In Wrong Anyway

He saw her sitting in a dark corner, and knew that his chance had come. Softly he stole up behind her, and before she was aware of it, he kissed her passionately. "How dare you?" she cried. "Pardon me," he replied calmly, "I thought you were my sister." "You fool!" she snapped. "I am."

Offered Substitute

"Hair's getting a little bit thin on top, sir," said the barber. "Yes," was the customer's reply, "that's the result of too much Anno Domini, you know." "No doubt," remarked the barber after a pause. "Never did think much of those new-fangled hair restorers. Try a bottle of our own make, sir."

Proved His Point

"All the world loves a lover." "It's not true. The other evening there were two of them in a picture theatre. He was pleading and she walked, just to draw his on. He kept whispering, 'Be my darling again'—O, be my darling again.' After half an hour of this somebody shouted out: 'For heaven's sake be his confounded darling.'"

Shock Crazed Him

Mrs. Boren (buying a railway ticket) —"What became of the ticket clerk who used to be at this window?" Ticket Clerk—"He's in the lunatic asylum." "You don't say so. What was the reason?" "A shock." "Shock, eh?" "Yes, one day last week a woman came to his window, bought a ticket, paid for it and walked away without stopping to ask a string of questions."

Beware

Swish, swish, swish!
Tish, tish, tish!
I'm the elusive,
Highly amusive,
Ghost of Antigonish.

Who lights the fires that burn so blue?
Who ties the knots in Old Brindle's tail?
Who turns the walls a ghastly hue?
Who leaves the bucket but steals the pail?
Who puts lizards' teeth in the old grain chest?
Who fills each chamber with a mawkish light?
Who slaps Mary Miles across the wrist?
Who sours fresh milk on a winter's night?

Swish, swish, swish!
Tish, tish, tish!
Watch my glance,
Take no chance,
I'm the Ghost of Antigonish.

MAN ABOUT TOWN

I noticed that in several of the school yards the boys are furnished with standards for high jumping and pole-vaulting and that they are deriving much benefit from the exercise thus afforded. Many of the youngsters are developing wonderful ability in high jumping and pole vaulting. This exercise serves to keep them interested and offers an equal opportunity to all the children to practice jumping over the bars. A few other pieces of apparatus might be conveniently used in some of the school yards, so as to offer variety that would interest all of the pupils for the reason that those who do not care for the high jump might like some other kind of exercise. But the shotput should be barred as dangerous in school yards. Already a very serious accident has resulted from its use.

Much interest is centered in the question of short skirts worn by high school girls in the city of Lawrence. Objection was made to the dresses worn by two girls as being too short and both were suspended. The father of one of the girls took the case to court and the judge decided that the school board had no right to suspend the girls on any such charge. It appears that the board insisted that the dresses should come at least three inches below the knees, but it seems the court was not inclined to allow any such authority to be exercised by the school board so long as the girls were modestly dressed even though their skirts were somewhat short.

Men from the park department are bitter in their comments upon the mischief done by boys on the various parks. Even the flower beds do not escape the reckless frolics of the youngsters. They think it no harm to run over flower beds that have been carefully graded by skilled gardeners. They break the buds of the tulips, sink some of the seeds so that they never reach the surface. One employe of the department working at Fort Hill park said that a great many boys seem to think that it is all right to destroy anything that belongs to the city, whether it is flowers, shrubs or street signs. Somebody is to blame for this state of affairs.

If the spring training doesn't produce any new men able to hold their own the two New York clubs are again going to start the season with a distinct advantage in having a well equipped pitching staff.

HARDING PARTY AT ST. AUGUSTINE

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla., March 15.—(By the Associated Press.) Arriving here early today by train from Palm Beach, President Harding and his party planned to make a final two days stay here before leaving Friday on the return trip to Washington. The president breakfasted on his car and went immediately to the links for a round of golf.

Invitations have been accepted by the president and Mrs. Harding to be the honor guests at a public reception to be given at the Ponce de Leon hotel here tonight, for which about 1500 invitations have been sent out.

REOPENING OF THE ITALIAN PARLIAMENT

ROME, March 15. (By the Associated Press.)—The reopening of parliament this afternoon aroused only ordinary interest. Premier De Facta's speech outlining the policy of the government was not expected to contain pronouncements of any unusual character.

During the present session the treaties signed at the Washington armaments conference will be presented for ratification and this is anticipated without much opposition.

LONDON STRING QUARTET

At Colonial hall on Saturday evening of this week, the London String quartet will give one of its superb concerts under the auspices of the Middlesex Women's club. This is one of the milestones in musical activity. Where'er these artists have appeared they have been received with great acclaim. They were first heard in America last year at Pittsfield, where they played in the festival conducted by Mrs. Coolidge. They visited a few cities, then returned to London, coming back to America this winter for a tour. They made an instantaneous impression, in Boston and have returned several times since the first concert in November. The Boston Evening Transcript had the following to say on their last visit: "They came; they played; they conquered. Not a delicate modulation, an accidental figure escapes the discerning four, as they weave and proportion the web of the music. When that web parts into strands, they set them in clear tracery. Cool heads, warm hearts and quick energies guide and spur them. To the beauty in which they drenched Beethoven's slow movement, to the light fire with which they tipped his finale, an expert audience answered not only with applause, but with cries and cheers."

WRIST FRACTURED

Spiros Thomas, of 18 Lewis street received a fracture of the wrist yesterday afternoon and his wagon was badly smashed when it was struck by an automobile truck owned by E. A. Wilson & Co., in Broadway. Aleck Haesolies, who was riding in the wagon with Thomas, was thrown out and dragged in the street, but escaped with slight injuries. The accident occurred at a point near Wilson's coal yard.

GIRL BURNED TO DEATH

FALL RIVER, March 15.—Virginia E. Gadouas, 4-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Gadouas, 158 Hunter street, died yesterday afternoon in a hospital as the result of setting fire to her clothes while playing with matches. Her mother found her a blazing torch behind the door of the pantry in her tenement. The little girl was burned from her head to her waist.

FIGHT OVER 48 HOUR LAW IN R. I.

Three Bills Involving Working Hours up for Consideration in Legislature

R. I. State House Becomes Center of Interest in Textile Strike Situation

PROVIDENCE, R. I., March 15.—With three bills involving the 48 hour week up for consideration today in the legislature, the state house became the center of interest in the Rhode Island textile strike situation. Leaders of the striking textile workers had given orders that there should be no demonstration while the house and senate were considering working hours legislation, but Thomas F. McMahon, president of the United Textile Workers, and several of his lieutenants were prepared to take part in discussion of the bills before a senate committee. Representatives of the mill owners, on the other hand, were making determined efforts to head off a 48-hour law.

The main fight centered about the bill introduced in the house by Representative James F. Lavender of Bristol, providing for a 48 hour week for women and children under 16 years. The measure was placed on the calendar of the house last week without reference to a committee and a vote on the principle of the bill was looked for today. Friend and foes of the bill alike admitted that the vote would be close. Employing interests of the state, including the cotton textile mill owners, Employers' association and Metal Trades' association, focussed their fight upon having the bill referred to a committee or continued on the calendar. Labor representatives were insisting that the vote be taken and the bill advanced on its way to passage.

Two bills were to be the subject of a public hearing before the judiciary committee of the state senate. One fathered by Senator Joseph E. Noel of West Warwick, is similar in its terms to the Lavender measure, providing a 48 hour working week for women and children.

The other, introduced by Senator John J. Barry of Central Falls, asks for a 48 hour week for workers generally.

In a petition addressed to the legislature asking that action on the Lavender bill be deferred eleven cotton manufacturers whose mills are closed or crippled by the strike, declared that it would be unfair to adopt the 48 hour week in Rhode Island while industries in other states competing with Rhode Island industries, had longer working hours.

"It is an injustice and a menace to the very existence of the industry of any one state, if the 48 hour rule is applied only to it," said the petition.

The petition was signed by the Apponaug company, the Crompton company, of Crompton, Crown Manufacturing company, of Attleboro, Mass., Dexter Yarn company, of Pawtucket; Hope company, of Hope, and Phenix, Interlaken mills of Arkwright; Jenckes Spinning company, of Pawtucket; B. B. & R. Knight Inc., largest owners of mills in Rhode Island; Sayles Finishing plant, Inc., of Saylesville; Slater Yarn Co. of Pawtucket and the United States Finishing Co., of Pawtucket.

McMahon Returns

PROVIDENCE, March 15.—Thomas F. McMahon, president of the United Textile Workers of America, who returned this morning from accompanying President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor on his tour of New England textile cities, announced that a meeting of the emergency board of the International United Textile Workers would be held in Boston at 11 o'clock Saturday morning.

Mr. McMahon refused to say for what purpose the meeting was called, except that it was to consider matters which had a bearing on the textile strike in Rhode Island and other centres.

EXISTING RATES ON RAW WOOL UPHELD

WASHINGTON, March 15—Existing rates on raw wool from the west destined to manufacturing points around Boston, were held reasonable today by an Interstate Commerce commission examiner who reported to the commission his recommendations after investigating the complaint of the Boston Wool Trade Association. The rates attacked by the association were chiefly the charges for combination rail and water hauls on wool produced in the west and moved to the Pacific coast for trans-shipment, via the Panama Canal.

The examiner declared that the railroad practice of refusing to halt cars moving to the Pacific coast at various points along the lines to allow picking up of small wool shipments, which privilege is given to cars moving east with an all rail haul of wool in view, constituted a discrimination against the rail and water traffic. This it was suggested, the railroads should be required to remove. The report will not be made effective until approved by the commission itself.

FATALLY INJURED IN FRIENDLY TUSSLE

PROVIDENCE, R. I., March 15.—Russell Kendall, 20, of Montclair, N. J., Brown sophomore, who fractured a vertebrae in a friendly tussle with a fraternity brother here on Feb. 27, died at a hospital today. It was stated that death was due to kidney trouble, which set in after the vertebrae fracture.

Berton Braley's Daily Poem

On The Way

Youth passes, blithe and gay, and sweet;
Before my window down the street
The young girls saunter on their way
To shopping and to matinee,
Silk-stockinged, slim, with dainty feet.

At times with glances indiscreet
They flirt with someone that they meet.
(That's natural when some lithe, gay
Youth passes!)

And now and then, from this my seat,
I try to catch a glance that's fleet;
But—I am forty, getting gray,
And to those flappers I'm passe.
Once I was young—now, I repeat,
"Youth passes!"

LYNN BEAUTY ATTEMPTS SUICIDE

LYNN, March 15.—Helen Hughes, 16 years old and winner of many beauty prizes, jumped off Red Rock into Lynn harbor yesterday, but as the water only came to her waist, she then waded ashore.

She was taken to a hospital, where her condition was said to be serious due to shock and exposure. Police said she admitted having attempted to end her life because of despondency over separation from her mother.

HOOVER OPENS WAR ON VICIOUS CYCLE

By HARRY HUNT

WASHINGTON, March 15.—As an engineer, not as secretary of commerce, Herbert Hoover has set under way a study of how to control or eliminate the "business cycle" which now swings the nation alternately from periods of prosperity to hard-time levels of depression and unemployment.

At a conference called for Washington March 21, representatives of trade associations will be asked to cooperate in the study and to assist in carrying out whatever final recommendations may be made.

Hoover hopes to produce a gently undulating plan of general prosperity.

The new undertaking is an outgrowth of views and material developed by the president's unemployment conference held last fall.

Convinced that only sane and scientific control of the economic factors entering into the recurrent ups and downs of business can solve the problem that conference undertook, Hoover secured from the Carnegie foundation an appropriation of $50,000 to finance an expert inquiry into how such control could be effected.

Then he secured Wesley C. Mitchell of the national bureau of economic research of New York to direct the investigation, with Edward Eyre Hunt as right hand assistant.

To Take Six Months

All sorts of national business, social and labor agencies, will contribute to the study, which is expected to consume about six months. In setting the inquiry under way, Hoover says:

"There is a solution somewhere, and its working out will be the greatest blessing yet given to our economic system, both to the employer and the employe."

The viewpoint from which the experts who are to study the situation approach it is set out by Hunt, who will be secretary of the committee.

"Unemployment on a vast scale is always a result of business depression," says Hunt. "The problem of unemployment, then, is only a part of the larger one of preventing or mitigating alternations of business activity and stagnation.

"The business cycle is marked by peak periods of boom between valleys of depression and unemployment.

Penalties of Booms

"The peak periods of boom are times of speculation, over-expansion, extravagance in living, relaxation in effort, wasteful expenditure in industry and commerce, with consequent destruction of capital.

"The valleys are marked by business stagnation, unemployment, and suffering.

"Both these extremes are vicious, and the vices of the one beget the vices of the other.

"It is the wastes, the miscalculations, the mal adjustments grown rampant during booms that make inevitable the painful process of liquidation.

"The most hopeful way to check the losses and misery of depression is therefore to check the feverish extremes of 'prosperity.' And the best time to act is at a fairly early stage in the growth of the boom!"

Organizations Active

Uniting in the effort to chart a pleasantly level landscape for American business, under Hoover's new program, will be experts from the federated American engineering societies, the department of commerce, the department of labor, the United States chamber of commerce, national bureau of economic research, the bureau of railway economics, the Russell Sage foundation, and many others.

NEW MODEL BUICK ROADSTER

A new Buick model roadster to be known as the "Special 6-54," was exhibited for the first time at the New York show by the Buick Motor Car Co., a subsidiary of General Motors. The new car speaks for itself. It has been designed because of the continued popularity of the Buick "54" which was brought out in 1916, but has not been manufactured since that time. Buicks are at the show in Mechanics building and at the Copley-Plaza at the Boston show.

"Like its elder brother," says Mr. Hale of the Lowell Buick Co., "the new 'Special 6-54' is built on a big chassis, with 32x4½ cord tires and a gear ratio of 4 1-3 to 1. It looks impressive and its performance bears out its appearance. The Buick power plant can always be relied upon to deliver full measure, and the present car's distinction lies in its appearance and its aid to comfortable and even luxurious driving. It is fitted with soft, easy-riding springs and snubbers front and rear and carries more conveniences in the form of attached accessories than are to be found in other cars of the same general design.

"The body is enamelled in Buick maroon, with black fenders and red wire wheels of the Houck type demountable at the hub. The top is of khaki, with special nickel and leather binding, and nickel finish is repeated on the radiator, windshield wiper, spotlight, deck rails, running board binding and hood fasteners. Special etched aluminum threshold plates are furnished with the running board step plates of rubber and nickel silver guards on the side apron. Lamp equipment consists of special design drum type headlamps and cowl lamps.

LOWELL LODGE OF ELKS ELECTS OFFICERS

At one of the best attended meetings in years, the Lowell lodge of Elks held their election of officers last night for 1922 and 1923, the officers-elect to be installed early in April by a visiting suite.

JOHN T. DURKIN
Exalted Ruler

The officers elected were: Exalted ruler, John T. Durkin; esteemed leading knight, Walter E. Turnbull; esteemed loyal knight, James E. Donnelly; esteemed lecturing knight, Thomas J. Dowd; secretary, John J. Lee, P.E.R.; treasurer, John J. Healey; tyler, John J. Gilley; trustees, John H. Farrell, P.E.R.; Edward F. Saunders and James H. Walker; delegate to the grand lodge convention, in Atlantic City, Exalted Ruler, Sam Scott; alternate to the convention, Richard T. Robinson, P.E.R.

FRATERNAL NEWS

Commander George D. Crowell occupied the chair at last evening's meeting of Walker-Rogers post, 662, Veterans of Foreign Wars, which was held in Memorial hall. Several new members were admitted and plans for the Memorial day observance were discussed. The invitation to attend the dedication of the Comrade Buchanan bridge at Lynn in the near future was accepted from Overseas post of that city.

Ladies' Auxiliary

The Ladies' Auxiliary to Walker Rogers post held their regular meeting in Memorial hall last evening with Mrs. Ida Hart in the chair. Routine business was transacted and it was announced that the election of officers will be held at the first meeting in May.

They are Happy and Well

You Should Be the Same

A LARGE number of women's ailments are not surgical ones. Serious displacements or radical changes have not yet taken place.

A tiny part in a fine clock may become loose and cause the clock to gain or lose. If not attended to in time, the part may fall from its place and cause serious trouble. So it is with women's ailments, they start from simple causes; but if allowed to continue, produce serious conditions.

When the warning symptoms are first noted, take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve the present troublesome ailment, and to prevent the development of serious trouble.

Portland, Ind.—"I was troubled with irregularity and constipation and would often have to lie down because of pains. One Sunday my aunt was visiting us and she said her girls took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and got well, so mother said she guessed she would let me try it. It is doing me good and I praise it highly. You are welcome to use this letter as a testimonial."—Stella Newton, R. R. No. 8, Portland, Ind.

Baltimore, Md.—"For several months I suffered with severe backache and general weakness. I could not sleep comfortably at night for pains in my back. I found your book at home and after reading it began at once to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I have had very good results and some of my girl friends are taking it now. You may use this letter to help other girls as the letters in your book helped me."—Rose Waidner, 3018 Roseland Place, Baltimore, Md.

"DANDERINE"

35-cent Bottle Ends all Dandruff, Stops Hair Coming Out

Ten minutes after using Danderine you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp. Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them, helping the hair to grow long, strong and luxuriant. One application of Danderine makes thin, lifeless, colorless hair look youthfully bright, lustrous, and just twice as abundant.—Adv.

One Player in the Big Leagues is Worth Two in the Bush

Who will fill George Burns' place in center field for the New York Giants? McGraw hated to give up Burns, but was forced to in order to get Heine Groh. Filling the vacancy left by the departure of Burns is one of McGraw's big problems.

The three players trying for the position are I. M. Boone, who was a whale of a hitter in the minors; Cunningham, with the Giants last year, and Ralph Shinners, for whom McGraw paid $35,000 to the Indianapolis club. Shinners has the call. In spring practice he has made a big hit with the New York leader.

BOXING

In bringing Billy Woods of Manchester and Cleveland Johnny Downes together here tomorrow night "Deak" Dodge has signed up what can be termed a real "natural match."

Both of the principals are not only well known locally but both only recently won over the same man here, Johnny Avila. Three weeks ago Downes and Avila met in a match that went over the distance, Downes was awarded the decision. Then last week Woods came to town and engaged Avila in battle. And again the Lowell welter lost a decision after ten fast rounds.

Downes' bout here with Avila was his first and only appearance in Lowell, but he made a fine impression. Woods, though, has performed here on many occasions, and early this season sprung one of the greatest pugilistic surprises of the year, when he set down Sailor Jarden.

The semi-final number between Billy Murphy, the popular Acre boy and Johnny Lucas, is looked upon as an event that ought to prove a hummer. Murphy has been a sensation since taking up the ring game, while Lucas has been enjoying much success in and around Boston this season.

Lefty Williams, who is traveling along at a fast clip, will meet an aggressive performer from Lawrence, named Danny Murphy. In one preliminary and Young Mullin of the Acre and Kid Hooker of Belvidere will entertain in the other.

Benny Valgar appears to be back in form. His victory over Jimmy Fruzetti of Brockton at Lynn the other night, according to reports, was clean cut.

Harry Greb, of Pittsburgh, gave the old dope a kayo blow in New York the other night when he won over Tom Gibbons of St. Paul. Gibbons, with a string of kayos a mile long was regarded as a sure winner, and was made a top heavy favorite in the betting. And it was also whispered around the country that he would be the next opponent of Jack Dempsey. But Greb "spilled the beans," and now the Pittsburgher is on the trail of "Tiger Jack."

Martin Flaherty, Jr., whom fans consider one of the the most likely looking prospects, presented here in recent years, has already received several offers for bouts out of town. Promoters remembering his famous "dad" are among those who have opened negotiations to show the young fellow at their clubs. He is training every day under the watchful eye of Martin, Sr., and will soon be ready to tackle any boy of his weight in this vicinity.

According to some of the best known critics, the small town of New Holland, in the eastern part of Pennsylvania, has produced one of the greatest middleweights seen in that section of the country in recent years. The name of the new sensation is Lew Schupp, a boy of twenty-two years, three of which have been spent in the ring.

Schupp has never yet had a chance to show his wares outside of his native state, and his manager, Joe Kennedy, is desirous of having him appear in this section. One of Schupp's notable performances was a victory over Tommy Loughran, the Philadelphia middleweight, who defeated Bryan Downey in Philadelphia last week.

Fred Fulton, Minnesota heavyweight, got his famous haymaker working at Philadelphia last night and knocked out Jim Holland, Baltimore, in the sixth round of a scheduled eight-round bout. Fulton floored Holland four times in the first round, but the Baltimorean came back strong in the second round and was on even terms until the knockout blow, a left hook to the jaw.

Jim Palmer, Philadelphia, won from Mickey Walker, Newark, N. J., on a foul in the fifth round.

Eddie O'Dowd won the decision over Willie Spencer, New York, in a 12-round bout at Columbus, Ohio, last night.

The 10-round bout between Benny Leonard, lightweight champion, and Johnny Dundee, scheduled for March 27 at Milwaukee, has been postponed until late in April. It was announced from New York today. Postponement is said to be due to inability to obtain a permit for a March 27 bout, as another fight is scheduled near the Mulkern arena for that date.

TIGER ROOKIE LOOKS LIKE REAL STAR

BY BILLY EVANS

Is the name of Johnson destined to shine in American league circles even after the passing of the great Walter?

The pitcher who bids fair to uphold the prestige of the name is Sylvester Johnson, a Detroit recruit. It's a big task, but many experts believe the youngster can do it.

During the winter I received letters from several umpires who have worked behind Johnson. All of them agree that Johnson is ready for the majors.

One of them was very strong in his praise for the Tiger recruit. "Johnson is a big league right now" is the way he put it. "He ought to be able to step right in and take his regular turn. What is more, with a club like Detroit behind him, he should win at least 60 per cent. of his games."

During one of the major league meetings I had a talk with Duffy Lewis. In his day as a big leaguer Duffy could beat Ty Cobb for batting honors in the Coast league. Lewis led that organization at bat with a mark better than .400. That is the first time such a thing has ever happened in the Coast league.

If there was one style of pitcher that Lewis liked it was the fast ball pitcher. A sweeping hook bothered Duffy, but a fast ball was made to order for him, and the faster the better. Detroit had announced the purchase of Pillette and Johnson, I asked Lewis what he thought about them.

Made Lewis Pop Up

"They are great prospects," he replied "Both of them have a great fast ball. You know I always could hit a fast ball, Bill. Well, those two birds had me popping the ball in the air all the season."

That statement struck me as quite a compliment, coming from a player known as a fast ball hitter. It would seem to mean that both these young men have something on the fast ball.

Sam Crawford, one of the greatest hitters in the history of the game is now playing in the Coast league. Last year he batted against the pair many times. Here is what he says about Johnson:

"This Johnson has one of those hoppy fast balls, much like the one Walter had when he came to the American league. It is a tough ball to hit. He also has plenty of other stuff and should develop into one of the very best pitchers in the majors."

SPORT FLASHES FROM SOUTHERN CAMPS

Pitching, as in past years, is going to decide the issue in the major leagues.

That is why pitching receives so much attention in the gentle spring. That is why major league managers send their battery men south a couple of weeks ahead of the rest of the squad.

The New York Giants won the World's Series because the fine pitching of the National leaguers was too much for the sluggers from the American league.

The pitching of the New York Americans did not suffer in comparison. The Yankee twirlers were almost as effective as the Giants' pitchers.

The breaks favored the Giants and the breaks decided the result. In some of the games the break was old Timely Hit himself.

I never umpired or watched a World's Series that featured better pitching than the 1921 clash. On the side of the Giants it was Nehf, Douglas and Barnes, while the Yankees had only two aces, Mays and Hoyt.

Never in my life have I seen a better curve ball than Barnes used in the series. It fairly snapped. Curve ball pitching of the style used by Barnes is most troublesome to a free swinging club like the Yankees. Douglas, on the other hand, crossed the Yankees by using a curve instead of the spitter as generally expected.

Cleveland failed to repeat in the American league last year because of lack of consistent pitching. If Jim Bagby and Walter Mails are able to win say 40 games between them in 1922 the Indians are going to be very much in the running.

Despite the fact that every club has an army of pitchers in the south, interest centers northward about second Johnson and Alexanders have been few and far between. Possibly the recruit pitchers are not going to startle the baseball world.

Any number of stories about infielders, outfielders and catchers have been spread broadcast. A good many have been picked to stick beyond a doubt. But so far no one seems to continue to any great extent over the pitching possibilities of the rookies.

VICTORY FOR C. Y. M. L.

Y. M. C. I. "Victory Parade" Halted in Fast Game—Score 26 to 12

The C.Y.M.L. team halted the victorious sweep of the Y.M.C.I. last night at the Crescent rink and won the third game of the seven-game series by the score of 26 to 12.

The game was more open than the previous clashes between these two outfits, and the fact that less holding and wrestling occurred gave the lyceum quintet an opportunity to display their famous teamwork, and the victory was accomplished mainly because of this fact.

The result came as a surprise to all but the C.Y.M.L. players and their rooters. They felt all along that once the old combination got working, the picture would change. Their confidence was justified soon after the game got underway.

Eight points right off the reel for the lyceum gave them confidence and a feeling that the "worm had turned," and with such an auspicious start they played on at a winning gait and their superior work could have but one result.

The Y.M.C.I. team after winning the first two felt there was "nothing to it," and even after the bad start, the players had hopes of coming back in the later stages and landing on top. But they did not seem to have the "pep," so characteristic of their previous endeavors, and while they rallied in the second session, the rival aggregation set them at every turn and refused to be denied.

Roddy Martin and Phil Flynn, the lyceum heavyweights, were the stars of the game, the former getting five baskets and the latter four, two of which were on long shots.

Harry Glasheen refereed the game. He put in a busy evening, but kept the play opened up all the way, and his work met with general satisfaction. He called 34 fouls, 18 on the Y.M.C.I. and 16 on the C.Y.M.L. The lineup:

C.Y.M.L.		Y.M.C.I.
Keyes, Martin, lf	rb,	McGowan, Adams, Low
Foley, rf	lb,	Lepper, Low
Allen, c	c,	Lane, Adams
Martin, Randall, lb	rf,	Keenan
Flynn, rb	lf,	Grant, O'Connor

Summary: Goals—Allen 1, Flynn 4, Keenan 3, Foley 1, Martin 5, O'Connor 1. Fouls—C.Y.M.L. 16, Y.M.C.I. 18. Referee—Glasheen.

Sacred Hearts Win

In the preliminary game of an elimination series to decide which of three teams will be the challenger of the winner of the St. Anne's-St. Patrick's series, the Sacred Hearts defeated the Broadways by the score of 20 to 7. The lineups were as follows:

SACRED HEARTS		BROADWAYS
Foley, lf	rb,	J. O'Connor
Maguire, rf	lb,	Manning
Harrington, c	c,	G. O'Connor
McDonald, rb	lf,	Rogers
S. Sheehan, lb	rb,	Keefe

Much interest is being shown in the visit here on next Friday night of the famous Germantown team of Clinton, Mass. The team has set up a fine record this season and points to a 14 to 11 victory over Lew's Lowell Five as one of its accomplishments.

The move to bring the Clinton outfit here to meet Lew's team is due to the fact that a team was sought that would give the local man's star aggregation a contest. In two games already played here by Lew's club, the opposition in both instances proved easy picking. First the Lawrence military team and then the Pere Marquette club. The Lowell five set both down without much effort and fans began to regard the outfit as invincible. After looking over the season's record it was discovered that the Clinton team had "set 'em back" and negotiations were immediately opened to bring the clubs together.

The Clinton lineup will include Strunz, Vallen and Pittroff forwards, Dietel center, Baer and Braunhardt, guards and Schmider, substitute. Lowell Five will have Arthur and Richard Ryan, Mulvanity, Wing, Winn Keenan and Lew.

Fans throughout the city are still talking about the great amateur games between St. Anne's and St. Patrick's teams, and now with each having won one apiece, indications point to the third contest being one of the greatest on record. Already plans are underway for meetings of the rival rooters and many new cheers are expected to feature the final clash.

DUGAN JOINS SOX IN SOUTH

Star Infielder Arrives at Hot Springs—Hopes to Make Good at Shortstop

Boechel and Watson Only Missing Braves—Cooney a Versatile Player

Roth Suspended and Ruth Made Captain of New York Yankees

BOSTON, Mar. 15.—Joe Dugan, former third baseman for the Athletics, is happy over the prospects of being shortstop for the Red Sox. Arriving with Al Waters, catcher, at the Red Sox training camp at Hot Springs, Ark., Dugan said he was still a bit weak after his recent illness but ready to go out and do his best to make good in the new position, filling the gap left by the transfer of Everett Scott. Walters was in good shape and ready to join the squad in practice today. Rain continues to hamper workouts at Hot Springs, however, and there was no assurance of a full day's work.

With the exception of Boeckel and Watson, the Braves' team is complete at St. Petersburg, Fla. Manager Mitchell was reported to be in a quandary over what to do with John Cooney. The lad pitches well with his left hand, makes difficult stops and throws in the infield, and dazzling one-hand catches as an outfielder. Cooney's father played on "Pop" Anson's Chicago team, and the Braves call him a "ball hawk," good at any position. Mitchell plans to have the first practice game between the Regulars and second team tomorrow.

Ruth Yankee "Cap"

NEW YORK, March 15.—Just when New York fans of American league persuasion were sitting back and sighing contentedly over their team's lineup, they learned today that Bobby Roth, one of Miller Huggins' outfielders, had been off the reservation and had been indefinitely suspended by the mite manager. To balance this news, it was learned that George Herman Ruth would act as field boss of the Yankees during the coming season. Ruth has been playing in the outer works, but has aspired to cavort around first base, and his appointment as field marshal may give him a chance to come in closer to the umpires some time during the ensuing campaign.

John McGraw's Giants are suffering acutely from sunburn down at San Antonio, and Cecil Causey has followed John Hawkings to the hospital for treatment. The Giants ran a marathon against the Camp Travis team yesterday, scoring 18 runs, while the soldiers were amassing a single tally.

Brooklyn's entry for the National league stakes has been reinforced by the acquisition of George Whitted from Pittsburgh. Burleigh Grimes' contract is still unsigned.

The ball this year, according to several of the Yankees, is not as lively as last season and home runs will not be as cheap as they were in 1921. Everett Scott, the new shortstop, said the ball does not come down to short as fast as last season. Only two balls have been hit over the fence so far, both in the batting sessions and the two exhibition games with the Phillies. Willinger hit one over the left field fence in practice and Ruth one over the centerfield wall.

Philly Teams in Action

PHILADELPHIA, March 15.—Both the Phillies and Athletics were in action yesterday at their training camps at Leesburg, Fla., and Eagle Pass, Tex. The American leaguers had a family game, the Hawks defeating the Owls 10 to 7, while the Phillies trounced the Leesburg team, 17 to 2.

Ruth Halts Indians

CLEVELAND, March 15.—The Cleveland Indians were forced by bad weather into another day of idleness, except for a short workout chasing flies and playing catch yesterday, according to advices received from Dallas.

Cobb Orders Long Session

DETROIT, March 15.—A harder practice session than usual was on the Detroit Americans' program at Augusta, Ga., today. Manager Cobb wishing to make up for time lost yesterday when the team knocked off early to be the guests, along with Baseball Commissioner Landis, at a Rotary club barbecue.

White Sox vs. Giants

CHICAGO, March 15.—The Chicago Americans and World Champion Giants faced their third meeting of the spring exhibition series today, the scene of hostilities having been shifted from San Antonio to Seguin, Tex., the training camp of the American leaguers.

The Chicago Cubs, who have been working from dawn to dusk, were put through another hard drill yesterday at their Catalina Island, Cal., training camp.

TUFTS TRACK SCHEDULE

MEDFORD, March 15.—Six meets, including two intercollegiate competitions are on the schedule of the Tufts college track team, announced yesterday. The dates follow:

April 29, New Hampshire college at Durham.

May 10, Boston university at Medford.

May 13, Eastern Intercollegiates at Springfield.

May 16, Northeastern college at Medford.

May 19-20, New England Intercollegiates at Worcester.

June 3, Massachusetts Aggies at Amherst.

THREE BOXERS SUSPENDED

NEW YORK, March 14.—The New York state boxing commission yesterday announced the suspension of three boxers. K. O. Laughlin and Ralph Schapperi were suspended for 30 days from March 13 for an unsatisfactory contest at the College City Athletic club, Troy, on that date, and Jimmie Mara for 30 days for failure to fulfill a contract with Rinkewood Grove Sporting club on March 1.

PIRATES SELL WHITTED

PITTSBURGH, March 15.—The Pittsburgh National league baseball club yesterday announced that George H. Whitted, outfielder, has been sold to the Brooklyn club for the waiver price of $2500.

LOWELL DRIVING CLUB

All Holidays Decided Upon as Racing Dates—Other Club Notes

All holidays were decided upon as racing dates at last night's meeting of the Lowell Driving club and Agricultural Society, Inc., held in the club rooms. It was voted that all 1923 memberships would be entitled to admission, with lady, to all events.

The following were elected to membership: Frank J. Sherwood, Harvey B. Greene, Frederick Harrington, Worcester; Charles Stacey, Mantaug. Officials of the club expressed the hope that every business man in the city would join the club and help boost this popular sport.

Norbert A. Hugg was appointed a committee of one to obtain information in regard to the local club joining the junior league of amateur driving clubs. The junior league is to be entertained by the Boston Driving club on the Charles River speedway some time this coming summer.

It was announced that work of laying a water pipe from Chelmsford street to the track so that the oval will be well watered during the coming season is underway.

During the hobnobbing of the meeting the subject of two-minute trotters was brought up. One of the members submitted a clipping from a horseman's magazine, which contained the following list. It is singular to note that Uhlan, whose name heads the list, is practically a Lowell product, having been gaited in Bedford, a town a few miles south of Billerica.

The complete list is as follows: Uhlan, bg. 1.58 record at 8 years old; Lee Axworthy, bh. 1.58¾ record at 6 years old; Lou Dillon, chm. 1.58¾ record at 5 years old; Arion Guy, bc. 1.59½ record at 8 years old; Major Delmar, bg. 1.59¾ record at 5 years old; Peter Manning, bg. 1.57¾ record at 6 years old.

BRITTON HAS GREAT RECORD

Britton is the only holder of a fight title who has never been knocked out. Britton has lost decisions, had his back on the rosin, but he has never failed to get up before the count of ten.

Benny Leonard, holder of the lightweight title, has twice been knocked out in his first year as a professional, 1912, Joe Shugrue stopped him in four rounds. The following year Frankie Fleming knocked him out in the same number of rounds.

Johnny Dundee, holder of the junior lightweight title, was kayoed in the first round of his fight with Willie Jackson in 1917.

Jimmy Wilde, holder of the world's flyweight title, went out of his class to meet Pete Herman and was out on his feet when they stopped the bout.

Georges Carpentier, holder of the world's light heavyweight championship, has been the most knocked out of all champs. He has taken the count three times.

Johnny Kilbane went out of his class to meet Lightweight Champion Benny Leonard and lasted only three rounds.

Jim Flynn once knocked out Jack Dempsey. That was when Dempsey was an unknown. It is claimed Jack purposely picked out a soft spot.

All of Cleveland is convinced that Byran Downey knocked out Middleweight Champion Johnny Wilson, not once, but three times, in their bout in that city.

SUNDAY GOLF MOOT QUESTION FOR YEARS

CHICAGO, March 15.—That Sunday golf has been a moot question since the game was youthful, is shown by the researches of a student of the game's history, and golf has been played in its present form probably longer than any other competitive sport.

Many scoldings by preachers, public condemnations by magistrates and even fines by judges have been uncovered from the lore of Scotland, but also an antique writer of the native heath of golf has recorded that no less strict a teacher than John Knox was not opposed to golf during the afternoon of the Sabbath.

Back in the 16th century, however, there was entered in the records of the kirk of Tyninghame that certain members were "rebukit for playing gowff on the Sabbothe and they promeislet not to use any pastyme on ye Sabbothe."

McGraw Likes Big Pitchers

Manager John McGraw of the New York Giants is very partial to big pitchers.

If a hush league heaver is a six-footer he always has a better chance of getting a real tryout with the Giants.

Three rookies who hope to stick with the Giants are George Stanton, a southpaw, who is 6 feet 5 inches; McGloughlin, who is more perpendicular, measuring 6 feet 6 1-2 inches, and Claude Jonnard, who is the midget of the trio, although he is 6 feet 1 inch.

Billy Evans Says

Perhaps 15 years ago Connie Mack originated the idea of holding a meeting before each game. The object was to talk over the weakness or strength of the opposition.

Mack's baseball idea was more or less a slight change in a football custom that has been in vogue for years. As long as one can remember it has been the policy of football coaches to talk to their elevens before and between halves.

For years Mack was the only major league leader to use the daily conference idea. Now it is a part of the routine of every major league club and a number of minors.

Ball players refer to these conferences as "skull practices." At these meetings the mistakes of the previous games are discussed. Incidentally plans are made for winning the afternoon's game.

"Donie" Bush, formerly of Detroit, now with Washington, always used to say that at these meetings the players learned how to make runs without base hits. Often players say it is a meeting held to arrange details as to how the game should be played, and then have the players do the opposite when they get on the field.

While these meetings are held to discuss everything in a serious vein it is only natural that something humorous should crop out every now and then to afford a bit of amusement. In this connection I recall an experience that I heard Lefty Leifeld relate last fall.

It seems Manager Fohl, aside from the routine business, would every now and then spring some stuff on the recruits relative to the rules and the like. Leifeld was appointed instructor to the recruits.

According to "Hefty," each evening he would look up a dozen questions in the rule book, set the answers down in black and white, and the next day, paper in hand, would be ready to spring the questions.

In the spring of the year Bill Gleason was playing second base for the Browns. One day Leifeld picked on Gleason thusly:

"Say, Bill, what is the distance from the home plate to second by a direct line through the pitcher's box?"

Gleason didn't know the exact figure, but rather than confess his ignorance of the question, replied:

"How should I know I never run that way. It is customary for me to touch first on the way to second."

That broke up the meeting for the day.

BOWLING

The result of last evening's match in the big bowling tournament started in this city among the various leagues, was as follows:

Lawrence Mfg. Co., 5684 and Barnes league, 5626.

Lowell Textile, 5728 and Bay State 5362.

Y.M.C.I., 5480 and Mass. Mill 5587.

Bridge street, 5476 and Waterhead, 5561.

DEMPSEY TO HUNT DEER IN MAINE

PORTLAND, Me., March 15.—Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion, is to hunt deer in Maine next fall. He has accepted an invitation to be the guest of Walter Hinds of this city at his camp at Oxbow, 45 miles northwest of Houlton, in Aroostook county, and will be accompanied by Jack Kearns, his manager, and a few friends. The party plans to reach here on October 1, the opening day of the deer hunting season.

LYNCH WINS FROM MARTIN

PROVIDENCE, March 15.—When Referee Phil Powers of Boston gave Joe Lynch of New York, ex-bantamweight champion, the decision after a terrific 12-round battle with Terry Martin of this city yesterday evening the crowd showed its dissatisfaction by staging a near-riot.

Police escorted the referee from the ring.

Martin scored a knockdown in the initial session and, in the opinion of local newspapermen, carried seven of the 12 rounds.

In the semi-final Billy Harmon of Boston won from Jimmy Kirke of New York, when the referee stopped the fight in the eighth round. Harmon won all the way.

LONGMEADOW GOLF CLUB

The annual meeting of the Longmeadow Golf club was held late yesterday afternoon at the Washington club. The following officers were elected: President, Gen. Adelbert Ames; vice president, Charles L. Marren; secretary, John J. Flaherty; treasurer, George H. Hart; directors, John M. O'Donoghue and William C. Purcell.

Tornado Death Toll Stands at 24

NEW ORLEANS, March 15.—The death toll from the series of tornadoes and cyclones that struck various points in Louisiana, Mississippi, Arkansas and Oklahoma, Monday and early yesterday, stood today at 24. At least 89 persons were injured. Property damage was estimated at several hundred thousand dollars.

Ship Sold Prior to Date Set for Bids

WASHINGTON, March 15.—Secretary Denby told the house naval committee today that the steamship Great Northern, formerly the flagship Columbia of the Atlantic fleet, was sold by the shipping board prior to the date set for opening of bids, but with the distinct understanding that any bidder offering more than the sale price, would get the ship.

Oppose Commission to End Coal Dispute

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 15.—(By the Associated Press)—Disapproval of the appointment of a governmental commission to effect a settlement of the threatened coal strike April 1, was expressed in a telegram sut Sertary of Labor Davis by President Frank Farrington of the Illinois mine workers at noon today.

Leather-Pushing Prince Is Spending $130,000 a Year

By EDWARD M. THIERRY

NEW YORK, March 15.—Roaming across the United States in a racing automobile is a sure-enough prince scattering dollar bills. He's Prince Mohamed Ali Ibrahim, nephew of the Sultan of Egypt, and his income is a mere $200,000 a year.

With him is his social secretary, Louis "Blink" McCloskey, pugilist and former Philadelphia newsboy, who landed his secretarial job by knocking out his predecessor. The prince himself is a leather-pusher of parts.

"I teach him boxing and help him spend his roll," says Blink.

"Ah, but I do not spend it all," smiled the prince. "I save money. Ne c'est pas, Blink?"

"Oui, Monsieur. You bet," said "Blink," who speaks French with a Philadelphia accent.

"How much do you spend a year?" the prince was asked.

"Oh, only about 30,000 pounds," he said, carelessly. "I put the rest away. Some day it may rain."

Pause for mathematical calculation: That's $130,000 spending money, at present exchange rates.

How does he spend it? The prince shrugged his tailored shoulders. Traveling, clothes, automobiles, petrol, cigarets and what not—one has difficulty keeping track of such things.

He isn't married—and swears he isn't going to be. "Wives," he says, "are too expensive."

The prince admitted a fondness for the movies. His favorite actresses are Pearl White and Mary Miles Minter. He's going to take a house at Hollywood for a few weeks before he returns to Egypt three months hence.

"I want to see for myself," he explained, "if Hollywood beats Paris and Cairo."

LAUNCH NEW SCHOONER

Puritan Hopes to Represent U. S. in Championship Races in Fall

ESSEX, March 15.—The schooner Puritan, which will fish out of Gloucester and in the fall will contend for the honor of challenging for the international fishing vessel championship trophy, was launched here today. A product of the same designer and the same builders that shaped the Mayoflwer, which was barred from the races last year, the Puritan took the water from the same ways.

She was christened by Miss May Adams of Gloucester, a niece of Captain Benheim, managing owner of the Manta club syndicate that is financing her, in the presence of several hundred persons. Most of the gathering was from Gloucester, among them several skippers who have been members of racing schooner crews. They commented on the Puritan's trim appearance.

The new schooner is somewhat smaller than the Mayflower, 139 feet overall and 106 feet on the waterline, 29.6 feet wide, and with a 12-foot depth of hold.

She was taken in tow at once for Gloucester, there to take on sail and to be further equipped for the fisheries on which she will start within a month.

"WAR" IN KENTUCKY

Protest to Governor Against Troops Using Armored Tanks and Machine Guns

NEW YORK, March 15.—Charges that state troops were using armored tanks and machine guns in Newport, Ky., "in a fashion which suggests enemy occupation of a country in time of war," were made today in a letter of protest to Gov. Morrow of Kentucky from the American Civil Liberties union.

The troops were called out to preserve order in connection with a strike of rolling mill employes.

SUDDEN DEATH OF FORMER LOWELL MAN

The many friends of Charles H. Joyce, a former well known Lowell business man, will be pained to learn of his death which occurred at sea while he was en route to New York.

Deceased was in business here for many years, his last place of business being in Middle street. He was born in this city and lived here up to within a few years ago. He had been ailing for some time and while it was known that he had not long to live, yet it was not expected that he would pass away so suddenly. The body has been removed to his late home in Watertown.

Deceased is survived by his wife, Regina Dalton Joyce, and one daughter, Alice, of Watertown; his mother, Mrs. Ellen T. Joyce, and five sisters, Mary, a teacher in the high school, Rose, Anna, Jane and Alice, all of Lowell.

GOLD CERTIFICATES WITHOUT DEMAND

WASHINGTON, March 15—Issuance of gold certificates without demand, discontinued in 1917, was resumed today by the treasury.

Gold certificates have always been available upon demand but during the war silver certificates were issued on ordinary checks. Resumption of the ordinary use of gold certificates was said by treasury officials to remove the last artificial currency situation growing out of the war and to indicate a return to normal conditions.

The treasury now holds approximately $3,000,000,000 in gold and it was said there is now no reason why gold certificates should not be freely available.

Steward Pays Liquor Fine

$100. An appeal was taken through counsel. The men were arrested by Officer John W. Mahan, who does duty in a local theatre.

Testimony given showed that Gigure, while in the navy, purchased the pictures in Italy and Greece. He showed some of them to Christos in the theatre. Christos, in turn, showed the pictures to Officer Mahan. The officer claimed that he had reason to believe there were more pictures in the suit and did nothing about the matter at that time. A few days later he requested Christos to get the pictures for him. Christos got the pictures, more than 20 in number, and gave them to Mahan. The arrests followed. The court ruled that Christos was guilty of no offense but he was satisfied that Gigure was guilty. The smallest fine allowed by the law was imposed.

New Yorkers Arraigned

Robert P. Cooney and Joseph Lamar, who gave residences as New York city, were charged with larceny of $20 worth of shirts. The government requested a continuance which was granted. The date set for trial was March 25. Each was held in bonds of $300.

George Newell, who conducted a store at 20 Pearl street, pleaded not guilty to a charge of illegal keeping of liquor. His case was continued until March 25. Members of the liquor and vice squad raided the place yesterday afternoon. They found the store empty, but in a room above it six quarts of whiskey were found.

Feared Her Husband

Antonio B. Perelsa was found guilty of drunkenness and sentenced to two months in the house of correction. His wife appeared against him and said that she was afraid he would kill her if he was not locked up.

The breaking and entering and larceny charges against Victor L. Mascoll and Hugh Muldoon were filed. The men have been indicted already by the grand jury on other charges.

The larceny case involving William Reynolds, Herbert C. Lough and the disappearance of a large quantity of liquor from the Bay State storage company was continued until March 21, owing to the illness of a government witness.

MURDER OF CIRCUS MAN

Sister of Victim Said to Have Received Letter From Brother Telling of Threats

RIVERSIDE, N. J., March 15.—Burlington county authorities today were in possession of a letter said to have been written to his sister by John T. Brunen, circus proprietor, slain at his home last Friday, in which he told of an attempt on his life by his wife Mrs. Doris Brunen, and of his intention of making a will cutting her off with one dollar. He expressed belief that he was being "framed by his own household."

Prosecutor Jonathan Kelsey said one arrest and "possibly more" would be made today.

Brunen furnished Ellis Parker, Burlington county detective, with a long list of persons he believed were planning his death two months before he was slain, Parker said today.

DYE FADED WRAP SKIRT, DRESS IN DIAMOND DYES

Each package of "Diamond Dyes" contains directions so simple any woman can dye or tint her old worn, faded things new. Even if she has never dyed before, she can put a rich, fadeless color into shabby skirts, dresses, waists, coats, stockings, sweaters, coverings, draperies, hangings, everything. Buy Diamond Dyes—no other kind—then perfect home dyeing is guaranteed. Just tell your druggist whether the material you wish to dye is wool or silk, or whether it is linen, cotton, or mixed goods. Diamond Dyes never streak, spot, fade, or run.—Adv.

WHEAT KING IN 1921

Led All Other American Agricultural Exports During Past Year

WASHINGTON, March 14.—Wheat was king of American agricultural exports in 1921.

An analysis of the 1921 exports of 32 of the principal agricultural products grown in the United States, made public today by the department of agriculture shows that more wheat was exported during 1921 year than in any preceding year in the history of the country and that for the first time the export value of wheat and wheat flour exceeded the value of cotton exports.

The principal agricultural exports during 1921 and their declared values were:

Wheat, cotton, corn, rice, barley, cotton, $534,000,000; pork and pork products, $216,000,000; leaf tobacco, $205,000,000; corn and corn meal, $87,000,000; sugar, $13,000,000; rye, $14,000,000; condensed and evaporated milk, $85,000,000; cotton seed oil, $21,000,000; rice, $1,000,000 and barley, $21,000,000.

Exports which showed an increase in quality over 1920 were:

Wheat, cottonl corn, rice, barley, pork and pork products except bacon; oleo oil, cottonseed oil and cake, refined sugar, green apples, eggs, tobaccos, dried apples, dried apricots and dried prunes.

Exports which showed a decrease in quantity were: Wheat flour, rye and rye flour, oats, beef, bacon, butter and cheese, condensed milk, potatoes hops dried peaches and raisins.

Wheat exports in 1921 totalled 6,-bushels as compared with 218,287,000 bushels in 1920.

Cotton exports in 1921 totalled $6,-678,000 bales of 500 pounds each, as compared with 6,359,000 bales in 1920.

Imports of eggs in the shell jumped from 1,709,000 dozen to 3,063,000 dozen.

Monks in the middle ages possessed not a single article of their own.

Association of Nations Urged in Senate

WASHINGTON, March 14.—Creation of an association of nations was formally proposed in the senate today by Senator McCumber, republican, North Dakota, during debate on the four power Pacific treaty.

STOCK PROMOTER HELD

Is Charged With Defrauding Investors Out of $1,000,000

NEW YORK, March 14.—Seymour J. Cox, promoter, of Houston, Texas, charged with defrauding investors out of $1,000,000 in worthless stocks, waived examination and removal proceedings when arraigned in federal court today. He stated that his affairs in Texas were "all right" and that he was anxious to go back there and answer any complaints against him.

USE SOFT COAL AND CUT FUEL BILL IN HALF

BOSTON, March 14.—The declaration that the time had come "for the people of this state who use anthracite coal to stand up and fight for decent treatment, and their common rights with all legitimate means and weapons" was made by Eugene C. Hultman, state fuel administrator, today. He was speaking before the joint committee on mercantile affairs of the legislature in favor of recommendations of the state commission on necessaries.

The commission has recommended that the legislature appropriate $10,000 a year for three years to be expended through the division of industrial cooperation and research of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, for the study of the substitution of bituminous coal for anthracite for household use, compilation of instructions for burning fuel in small heating units and compilation of methods for cutting down loss of heat through walls and windows.

"The bill paid by the householders of this commonwealth for anthracite coal this season," said Mr. Hultman, "will be about $60,000,000. If the best grade of smokeless bituminous coal had been used for domestic purposes we would have saved approximately $40,000,000 on our domestic coal bill this year.

"Both the operators and the miners know that since the divorce of the mines from the railroads there is even greater opportunity than heretofore to charge all the traffic will bear. Anthracite coal is a luxury at its present price, compared with the prices of other fuels.

"Will the people of Massachusetts continue to burn only anthracite coal in their homes and thus allow themselves to be periodically or continually exploited by outside interests? Shall we continue to pay tribute to the state of Pennsylvania because God placed a deposit of anthracite coal within its boundaries? 'Taxation without representation' has never been and never will be popular in Massachusetts.

"There is colossal ignorance of and unreasonable prejudice against soft coal on the part of most householders. With volatile or smokeless bituminous properly burned there is but little more smoke than with anthracite. The ash content is 50 per cent lower, and the heat unit value is nearly 20 per cent greater than in anthracite.

"The only problem we have to solve in order to have a high grade fuel to compete with anthracite is that of combustion. The people of our commonwealth can employ the services of the Institute of Technology to work out this problem at a cost of about one-fifth of a cent per ton on the present consumption rate of anthracite coal."

FAMOUS DIVA LOSES CHAUFFEUR HUSBAND

SAN FRANCISCO, March 14.—Margarete Matzenauer, famous diva, apparently has lost her chauffeur husband, whom she termed "100 per cent man."

The husband, Floyd Glotzbach, has come back to his job at the Del Monte hotel here, driving tourists about.

A year ago he took Mme. Matzenauer out for a drive—for hire. Later came the engagement and marriage and Glotzbach left the driving wheel.

But he did not enjoy breakfasts in bed. Nor did sitting up night after night through the mad scene of Lucia appeal to an ear attuned to the hum of a smooth-running motor.

Madame Matzenauer, it is said, wants her husband back.

Glotzbach, a six-foot westerner, comments: "Orchids will thrive in hot houses, but wild mustard needs the California sun."

WORD RECEIVED FROM MISSING WOMAN

SALEM, March 14—Word was received this noon from Mrs. Bessie W. Buxton, missing Peabody woman and president of the Peabody Woman's club, that she was at the American Woman's association in New York. The news came in a letter to her sister, Mrs. Lena Wiggin of Boston, who is visiting Mrs. Thomas E. Wilson of Danvers. Mrs. Buxton gave no reason for her sudden disappearance from her home early Saturday morning, but asked that money be sent her under the name of "Raymond" at the above address. Somebody will leave at once for New York. Mr. Buxton, her husband, is in Essex heading a searching party for his wife, and does not know of the arrival of the letter.

First trans-Atlantic airplane flight in 1919 took 16 hours and 12 minutes.

BRIEF BUT IMPORTANT WIRE DESPATCHES

BOSTON, March 14.—Counsel for John V. Dittmore, who has been seeking for several years to compel the directors of the Christian Science church to restore him as a fellow member, today filed with the supreme court a counter affidavit to the directors' recent motion asking for the discharge of Judge Frederic Dodge as master.

NEW YORK, March 14.—David Willoughby, 41, a prosperous looking engineer, was arrested today on a charge of defrauding the Hotel Touraine of $166. Police said he was wanted in Brookline, Mass., where he was alleged to have jumped his bail after being arrested for passing a worthless check for $690.

BOSTON, March 14.—Women will be admitted to the schools of law and of commerce and finance at Northeastern college, beginning next September, President L. P. Speare announced today.

PARIS, March 14.—The wine interests of France, who are observing "national wine week," and holding a seven day conference here to consider ways and means of retrieving France's former supremacy in the wine industry, and their hopes of restored markets in the United States dampened by reports at today's conference session. They were cheered, however, by advices declaring there were prospects of larger sales in Canada.

BOSTON, March 14.—District Attorney O'Brien announced today that the trial of Justice Edward P. Pierce of the supreme court on an indictment charging him with conspiring to obstruct justice would not take place until the legislature had opportunity to pass on a petition for his impeachment.

BELFAST, March 14.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Fermanagh Assizes court today sentenced three men to 16 years penal servitude for participating in the recent kidnapping raids into Ulster. Eight others were given sentences ranging from five to eight years.

CAMBRIDGE, March 14.—In the arrest early today of Charles H. Haskell, 17, and James M. Grogan, 18, the police expressed the belief that they had taken into custody the persons responsible for several breaks in this city.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—The first issue of the senate fight over ratification of the four power Pacific treaty will be decided today when a vote is taken on the amendment proposed by Senator Robinson, democrat, of Arkansas.

224 BOTTLES OF SCOTCH SEIZED

SAN FRANCISCO, March 14.—Customs inspectors today located and confiscated 224 bottles of Scotch whiskey tied to the anchor of the steamship Melville Dollar.

When you call you will see one good reason why we are here. An artist would call it The Precious North Light, from the three large windows of the wide frontage on Merrimack street. The great masters knew the value of a north light when they mixed the colors for those matchless gems that modern artists imitate, but never equal.

When you select the material for your dress or coat, come up one flight at 212 Merrimack Street, and get the benefit of a true north light and the largest line of fine woolens in Lowell, at prices that will prove to you that our business methods eliminate the middleman's profit. Truly,

Adventures of the Twins

THE GOAT DISAPPEARS

IT WAS A WONDERFUL LEAP

Onward went the little procession, Nancy first, then Nick, and last of all the goat carrying the basket with the chocolate cake.

At last they came to the first of the Seven mountains, but right at the foot of it a toll gate closed the road. The twins didn't know what a toll gate was; all they saw was a great wooden beam directly in their path, and they stopped to consider how they could get 'round it or over it or under it.

"I know a way," said the goat. "If you take the basket and set it on the other side I'll show you how."

All this time no one was in sight. A queer little house with a roof like a hairbrush squatted at the side of the road, but no one came out of it to help them. There was nothing to do but to take the goat's advice.

Nick took the basket and set it carefully on the other side of the gate. "Now watch me," said the goat. "Do just as I do. After we're over we can pick up the basket and climb the mountain. We ought to get to the top before sunset. We'll be safe there for I understand that from the top you can see the world like a map. I'm anxious to see where we are going, particularly the Princess Therma in her castle of mirrors. I intend to marry her."

"You!" cried Nancy and Nick.

"Ahem! Well, perhaps," answered the goat, who had forgotten that he was speaking aloud. "But I'll never marry anybody and neither will you if we stand here at this stupid place all day. Watch out everybody! Clear the track!"

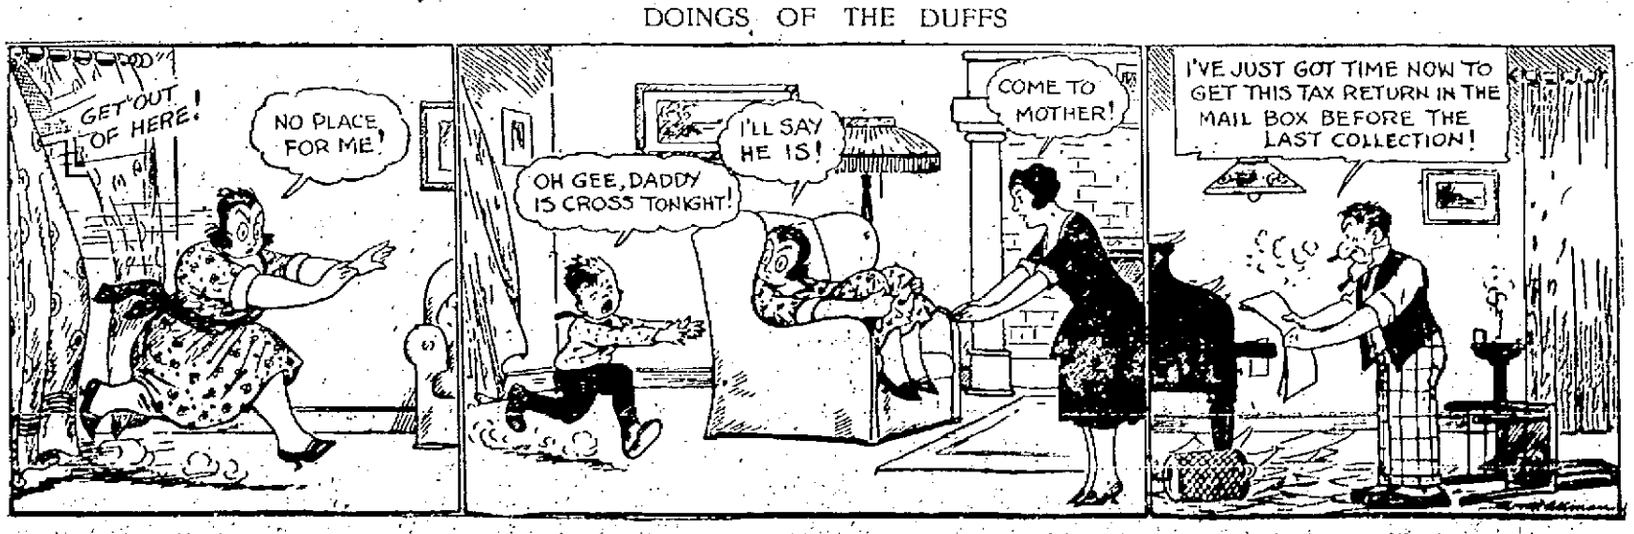

The goat ran back a few steps, then turning, he lowered his head and gave a spring.

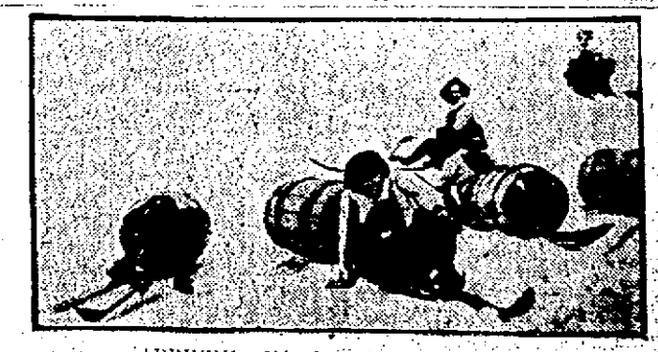

It was a wonderful leap, and he landed almost half way up the mountain. But lo and behold! The mountain, you know, my dears, was rubber and the goat bounced back. For miles and miles he went through the air like a black and white comet. Finally the twins lost sight of him, but he was still going.

FARMERS MEET IN BILLERICA CENTRE

There was a large gathering of men and women at the Farmers' Institute meeting, which was held today at the Billerica Centre Congregational church. The affair was held under the auspices of the Middlesex North Agricultural society and was successful in every way.

During the morning session, which opened at 10 o'clock there was an interesting discussion on "The Business of Farming." At noon an appetizing dinner was served in the vestry of the church by the Ladies' Aid society and at the close of the meal vocal selections were given by Miss Lelia Bull, while Miss Evelyn Spaulding gave interesting readings.

During the afternoon session, which opened at 2 o'clock there was a very instructive and interesting talk on "Books and Reading for the Home" by Miss E. Kathleen Jones, general secretary of the division of public libraries, department of education of Boston. It was announced that today's meeting will be the last this season.

REQUIEM MASSES

There will be an anniversary requiem mass at the Sacred Heart church Thursday morning at 8 o'clock for John Joseph O'Donnell, who lost his life on the U.S.S. Manley during the world war.

Interesting Talk on "Shoddy" by Representative of Springfield, Vt., Company

"Reworked Wools," more commonly known as "shoddy," was the subject of the sixth of a series of lectures on industrial problems connected with textiles given in the assembly hall of the Textile school before the student body yesterday afternoon by J. Walter Bliss of the John T. Slack Co., Springfield, Vt. The speaker was introduced by President Herbert Smith of the Lowell branch of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers. Mr. Bliss was accompanied by Edward A. Bigelow, L.T.S. '05, a trustee of the school, who is also associated with the Boyleville Manufacturing Co. of Worcester.

The speaker began with an explanation of the general misunderstanding in regard to shoddy, stating that but one-fifth of the wool needed to clothe people of cold climates is grown in the world, the other four-fifths must necessarily be made up of reworked wool.

The single wool fibre, from the original fleece to a suit of wool, was traced through its every stage by Mr. Bliss, who then explained the up to date method of reclaiming wool from rags. This operation may be performed six or seven times, according to the results of the experiments by the bureau of standards, in Washington, before the fibre finally becomes worn out and useless.

Specimens of various manufactured textiles were exhibited to prove that high-grad reworked wool may be the basis of very desirable fabrics, the display being under the care of P. M. Bloomfield, secretary of the Wool Fibre association of America. The specimens shown formed part of the exhibits at the recent Boston Textile exposition.

A motion picture, showing the manufacture of woolen and worsted fabrics, taken in the Textile school under the direction of the United States department of agriculture, was shown at the end of the lecture.

DEATHS

McALLISTER—The news of the death of Mrs. Emma E. McAllister, which occurred last evening at her home, 69 Warwick street, will cause much sorrow among her friends and throughout the community, as her husband, Melvin P. McAllister, died less than two weeks ago. At that time Mrs. McAllister was in good health and her brief illness followed by her death is tinged with a sadness that makes her passing one of sincere regret. Her age was 53 years 11 months and 7 days. She leaves one daughter, Elva M. McAllister, and three grandchildren, all of Lowell; one sister, Mrs. Addie V. Hachmider of Concord, N. H., and one brother, Benjamin F. Hall of Peterboro, N. H.

PERRY—Richard T. Perry, a well known resident of North Billerica, died last evening at his home, 16 Wilson street, after a long illness, at the age of 52 years. Mr. Perry was born at Ballardvale and had resided at North Billerica for the past 45 years. He took an active interest in town affairs, having served seven years as selectman. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Harriet A. Perry; three daughters, Mrs. Luke A. Woodbury, Mrs. Dana Richardson and Miss Marjorie Perry, also by two grandchildren, all of Billerica; two brothers, John Perry of Lawrence and George H. Perry of Brookline, and two sisters, Mrs. A. B. Bladen of North Easton and Mrs. Matthew Kohlrausch of North Billerica. Mr. Perry was one of the oldest members of Thomas Talbot lodge, A. F. and A.M.

McNAMARA — Thomas McNamara, for many years a resident of the Sacred Heart parish and an employe of the Waterhead mills, died yesterday at his home, 206 Moore street, after a brief illness, aged 55 years. He leaves his wife, Mrs. Margaret McNamara; one daughter, Mary A.; one son, Joseph D.; one sister, Mrs. Jane Noonan of England, and three brothers, James, Peter and John McNamara of England. He was a member of the Holy Name society of the Sacred Heart church, St. Vincent de Paul society and the A.O.H.

WATSON—Mrs. Eugenie (Sarre) Watson died March 6, at the Pichon hospital, Ontario, Canada, aged 45 years. She was the widow of Walter Watson, who died about a year ago. Mrs. Watson had been in failing health for some time. Her parents were born in France and came to Montreal years ago, and Mrs. Watson resided there until her marriage, after which she lived in Bloomfield. She leaves one daughter, Francis; four brothers, John B., Leon E., August P. and Louis Sarre, all of Lowell; two sisters, Mrs. Martin of Los Angeles, Cal., and Mrs. Rosenberg of Lowell. J. B. Sarre and Mrs. Rosenberg attended the funeral, which took place last Thursday in Bloomfield.

SLOAN—Mrs. Maude Sloan passed away early this morning at the age of 33 years. Her home was at 91 Vernon street. She is survived by her husband, Frank A. Sloan; two children, Frank, Jr., and Carol Sloan; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Butler, all of this city; two brothers, Claude Butler of Charlotte, North Carolina, and Ara Butler of Lowell; one sister, Mrs. Eva Slipp of Lowell. Mrs. Sloan was a member of the First Congregational church.

SMITH—Miss Sarah T. Smith, one of Lowell's oldest residents, died this morning at her home, 1 Marion street, aged 91 years, 11 months 9 days. Deceased was born in this city on April 6, 1830. She was one of the pioneer members of St. Patrick's church. Miss Smith leaves one nephew, Thomas E. Smith; three nieces, Mrs. Sarah Garvey, Miss Hannah M. Morris and Miss Mary L. Smith; fifteen grandnieces and nephews and four great grand-nieces and nephews.

CHAMPAGNE—Paul Champagne, a well known young resident of this city, died this morning at his home, 51 School street, after a lingering illness, aged 30 years. Deceased was born in this city and lived here all his life. For 10 years he was employed as a general foreman for Contractor William Drapeau. He leaves his wife, Mrs. Albertine (Desrosiers) Champagne; a foster daughter, Lorette; his mother, Mrs. Marie (Molleur) Champagne, and a sister, Rev. Sister St. Joseph de Nazareth of the order of the Holy Family of Sherbrooke, Que. He was a member of Carpenters' union and Branch Pawtuckville, A. C. F.

DEZIEL—Mrs. Emma (Houle) Deziel, wife of Gaspard Deziel and a resident of this city for 55 years, died last evening at the Lowell Corporation hospital, after a very short illness. She was 59 years of age. Besides her husband, she leaves one daughter, Marie Louise Deziel; one son, Rene Deziel; one sister, Mrs. Gustave Leclair, and two brothers, Philias and George Houle, all of Lowell. She was a member of St. Anne's sodality and the Third Order of St. Francis of St. Joseph's parish. The body was removed to her home, 524 Moody street, by Undertaker Joseph Albert.

SPECIAL MEETING

Of the Holy Name Society of the Sacred Heart Church this evening after services to take action on the death of our late member, Thomas McNamara, 206 Moore Street.

Per Order,
GEO. F. HIGGINS, Pres.
JAMES H. POWELL, Sec.

THE OLD HOME TOWN

LOCAL BARBERS ARE STILL ON STRIKE

Officials of the Journeymen's Barbers' union state that the present strike situation is practically unchanged, and their statement is fully corroborated by members of the master barbers' association.

National Organizer Merlino and Pres. Jordan of the local journeymen's union are doing some active work, visiting the various barber shops which at the present time do not bear the union label, preaching the gospel of organization and attempting to show the master barbers the benefits to be derived by co-operation with the union. They say that there are many of the shops now working under union conditions and are confident that others will fall in line.

One of the arguments frequently used by proprietors of non-union shops is that many men who are members of other unions still continue to patronize them. It is said, however, that the union, at some time in the near future, will take steps to acquaint the public with the status of various shops throughout the city, telling which employ union help and which are conducted on the open shop plan.

Heagney, as sub-deacon. The choir rendered the Gregorian chant, the solos being sustained by Miss Margaret Griffin and Mrs. James A. Murphy. Mrs. Ella Toye presiding at the organ. There were representatives of many of the older families in the church as deceased has been a resident of the city for over 50 years. The bearers were Messrs. Fred W. Ireland, Simon Flynn, Henry Roach, Thomas Mahoney, Joseph Johnson and Edward Bourassa. There were many floral and spiritual offerings. The burial was in the family lot in St. Patrick's cemetery where the committal prayers were read in the mortuary chapel by Fr. Lynch. The funeral was under the direction of Undertakers James F. O'Donnell & Sons.

SWINDLING SOLDIERS' BENEFICIARIES

A communication, dealing with a scheme to swindle soldiers' beneficiaries, was read at last night's meeting of Chapter 5, American Disabled Veterans of the World War, held in Memorial hall with Commander Harry O'Sullivan in the chair. The communication was recently received from the association's headquarters and reads as follows: "It has been called to the attention of these headquarters that a concern styling itself the 'committee on war risk insurance beneficiaries' is apparently sending broadcast, through the mail circular letters to all beneficiaries of term insurance, informing them that they propose to have congress introduce a bill whereby the treasury department shall issue bonds or certificates similar to Liberty bonds in coupon form of $57.50 each, to be turned over to such beneficiaries in order that they may have same cashed and receive the full amount of insurance due them. For such service they are requesting the beneficiary to remit $10 to defray expenses of same. Inasmuch as their proposition is next to an impossibility there can be no other purpose in the mind of the committee than to pick up easy money from the non-suspecting beneficiary. If this 'committee' does communicate with any of the members of your chapter kindly send the communication to the national headquarters."

A communication was also read from Miss May Gleason, supervisor of recreation of the Chelsea Naval hospital, in which she thanked the local chapter for the splendid show it recently put on in the hospital.

Reports from visiting committees were also read. It was announced that Commander O'Sullivan would go to Boston today to settle a number of claim difficulties.

BAND CONCERTS AND MOVING PICTURES

The Centralville Improvement association, at its meeting last night, discussed a number of innovations for the coming spring and summer and reviewed the winter's accomplishments.

Band concerts and moving pictures on a Centralville playground are two of the most important features of the work planned for this summer. The secretary was charged to get in communication with the mayor and see if band concerts in Centralville during the warm months can be arranged. The park board will be asked to provide the moving pictures and playground, the old Lakeview avenue baseball ground to be used in both instances.

A communication from the chamber of commerce, outlining plans for a zone committee, was read to the members. They were asked to name one of their number to serve on this new committee.

The establishment of a skating rink at the Greenhalge school during the winter was commented on favorably, after the committee in charge reported last night that not a single accident or drowning took place in the section during the skating season.

At the next meeting T. P. Fisher of the Vocational school will speak.

INJURED BY AUTO

James Scondras, aged 3 years, was slightly injured yesterday afternoon when he was struck by an automobile in Dutton street. The little fellow, it seems, ran from the sidewalk into the path of an automobile operated by Potter R. Hazard of Nashua road, Tyngsboro and was knocked down. He was taken to the Lowell Corporation hospital, where it was found that his injuries were not serious.

BOULEVARD DANCE HALL

Owners of Dance Pavilion That Collapsed Want Permit for New Venture

An attempt by Bechard brothers and Lirette, which started over two years ago, to conduct a public open air dance pavilion on the Pawtucket boulevard was renewed again last night when the license commissioners received a formal application for a license to conduct same. The new dance hall plans call for a hall about a mile beyond the former site, at the corner of the boulevard and Ferry road near the old windmill landmark. The commission received the application and set March 28 as the date for hearing.

The old dance hall was demolished during the first big ice storm of the season. The roof caved in under the weight of tons of snow and was practically a total loss. The building in question was never used for the purpose for which it was built because of strenuous objections on the part of several prominent citizens.

The proprietors now think they have overcome all objections and with an up-to-date building in mind think they will be granted a permit. They say that the plans for the new roof will be first approved by the city engineer before work commences.

Francis A. Connor, inspector of buildings made his appearance before the commission and heard objections concerning the proposed removal of the commission quarters. Commissioners Putnam and McGrath and Clerk Flaherty were emphatic in their objections to the removal plan. The commissioners contend that if the present quarters are not large enough for them and the district court it should be removed to the Gorham street building. Inspector Connor said that he had nothing definite in view and that he would take the matter to Mayor Brown within a few days.

A number of minor cases were heard by the commission. A case against Ahleas Stilos involving a lodging house license was continued for one week upon request of counsel.

Geo. Mastoulas, a coffee-house proprietor at 495 Market street, charged with allowing gambling in his establishment was given a call down. The case of Joseph Parquette, a pool room proprietor, against whom a charge was made, that liquor had been purchased on the premises, was taken under advisement. Adelard Leblanc was on the carpet in connection with the ownership of an eating house which is conducted at 106 Cheever street. Officers of the vice and liquor squad said that they have had the place under suspicion for liquor violations. This case was also taken under advisement.

The following minor licenses were granted by the commission:

Common victualer, Joseph A. Gagnon, 9 First street; Waldorf System, 25 Merrimack street. Sale of second hand automobiles, Senter Auto Co., 330 Middlesex street, and Milage A. Weindal, 557 Gorham street. Lodging house, Vera J. Murray, 86 Thorndike street; Desrosiers and Ducharme, 671 Middlesex street; Catherine Casey, 28 Lawrence street; Mary Bonet, 30 Cabot street. To sell ice cream on the Lord's day, Harry Ellacopoulos, 467 Market street; Felix Kempinski, 305 Lakeview avenue. Hawker and peddler, Thomas C. Higgins, 157 Cross street; Joseph Cloutier, 75 Ward street; Louis Harris, 166 Chelmsford street; Sam Sandler, 187 Howard street; Edward F. Curley, 210 West Landon street. Junk collector, Morris Stoloff, 168 Grand street. Inn holder, Walter F. Queenan, 38-48 Prescott street.

LOCAL STRIKE SITUATION

Reported That Pickets Induce Nappers to Stay Away From Mill

The napping department of the Hamilton Mfg. Co., which had been operating since last week, is practically shut down today, according to reports made at the strike headquarters this morning. There were about 10 nappers employed there, finishing up the work that had been left on the machines when the strike was declared, and finishing out samples, but yesterday, so it is said, the pickets at the plant succeeded in convincing the workers to remain away from the plant and today it was learned that not one of them reported for work this morning. It is felt at textile headquarters that the closing of the napping department will mean the suspension of operations at the mill altogether within a short time.

The pickets were on duty at the Bay State Cotton Corp. and Hamilton plants this morning and noon and picketing went along in a very quiet manner. The three regular patrolmen were on duty and two other officers were also on the scene. At the plant of the Hamilton in Jackson street this noon a sergeant and two patrolmen were on duty to see that the picketing was peaceful, but their services were not needed.

In an endeavor to unionize all the nappers of the city an open meeting for members of the craft will be held Friday evening in Trades and Labor hall in Central street. The meeting will be addressed by Organizer Reagan and President Hanley of the Lowell Textile council.

The loomfixers who are on strike at the Bay State and the Hamilton held their daily rollcall at their hall in City Hall avenue this morning. At the close of the meeting the secretary reported that every man had responded to the call.

TREASURER MAKES DEMAND FOR TAXES

City Treasurer Fred H. Rourke has made a demand upon Frank Hanchett for taxes based on assessed personal property for the year 1916, as ordered recently by the supreme court, who returned judgment in favor of the city. The taxes amount to approximately $10,000.

When the demand was made, however, the city treasurer found that Mr. Hanchett is traveling with his family in the west, being in Phoenix when last heard from. Through the Union bank, however, the demand has been forwarded to him.

ZONE SYSTEM FOR CITY

Chamber of Commerce Will Appoint Committee to Plan Zone Systm

One of the new projects under consideration by the Lowell chamber of commerce is the creation of a committee to plan a zone system for the city. Of course, any plans of this sort must be approved by the city government and proper ordinances passed before they become effective, but the members of the chamber are hopeful that they may meet with success in the project, which they feel will add materially to the city's attractiveness and mark a decisive advance in civic betterment.

The idea, as conceived by the chamber, is along lines successfully carried out in many of the newer cities of the west and middle west. Although no definite plans have yet been formulated, it is extremely likely that the committee, when organized, will propose the division of the city into zones; the kind of buildings and the use thereof, the industries, the stores and other establishments which may locate in each district to be clearly defined.

This system, it is believed, would act as a check on the location of gasoline stations, small stores and other business enterprises in residential districts, where the citizens are constantly voicing complaints against the intruders. Relative to gasoline stations, for instance, it is thought that such establishments would be confined to the down-town district, and the small variety stores might be allowed to locate on street corners only. Of course, the business places now in operation in these sections could not be disturbed, but it is possible, according to those who have the idea under consideration that the public, once the zone system is thoroughly explained, would patronize enterprises in the locations in which they were assigned to operate.

LOCAL POSTMASTERSHIP

Examination for Position of Postmaster to Be Held at An Early Date

From a letter from Congressman John Jacob Rogers received in Lowell a day or two ago, it is learned that an examination for the position of postmaster at Lowell will be held at an early date.

This rather contradicts the general impression that such an examination would not occur for about six months, the usual length of service of a temporary appointee.

The local postmastership is still in an unsettled state, inasmuch as no word has been received as to whether or not Col. Charles A. Stevens, temporarily appointed by the congressman on the resignation of Postmaster John A. Meehan, will accept the office.

The letter from the congressman was in reply to one sent by a prominent local professional man, urging favorable consideration of the candidacy of Hon. Perry D. Thompson.

DIRECT SENTENCES FOR DRUNKEN DRIVERS

Judge Thomas J. Enright is going to co-operate in every way possible with the state authorities in the enforcement of the motor vehicle laws in this state. Drunken drivers will be given direct sentences, if the practice is kept up, regardless of disposition of similar cases in other places.

Immediately after the opening of the court session this morning his honor read a communication received from Frank A. Goodwin, registrar of motor vehicles for this state in which were given figures of adult and children death and injury cases for the year of 1921. The court said that the showing was frightful and that both public and police must co-operate to stamp out accidents and deaths due to automobiles.

In reading the communication the court stated that he wanted the police and public alike to know the facts of the case so that the horror of the whole thing would be brought home to them more clearly.

The communication read as follows.

Warning! In 1921, 835 pedestrians were killed. In 1921, 6524 pedestrians were injured. In 1921, 193 children were killed. In 1921, 3433 children were injured by motor vehicles in Massachusetts.

"The pedestrian and child have a right on the street without a license.

"You have to have a license and if you hit a child or pedestrian it is your fault as a rule.

"If a pedestrian or child is on the street or on the sidewalk adjacent you must get your car under absolute control and stop if necessary. You may lose a minute, but that is better than taking a life.

"If you want to retain your license don't hit a child or pedestrian."

The above indicates that Registrar Goodwin is going to be strict in enforcing the law this year. The warm weather has brought out many cars that have been stored up for the winter and in a short time the motor traffic will increase by nearly 100 per cent.

To stand in the good graces of both the state officials and the local court, operators will have to use the greatest of caution.

BLOCK CHANGES HANDS

The six-tenement block at 100-102 Pawtucket street, corner of Mt. Washington street, owned by Fred Lavigne, has been sold to Dennis J. Cahill. Each tenement contains five rooms with modern improvements. The property is assessed for about $15,000. The sale was effected through the office of T. H. Elliott.

25,000 MADE JOBLESS BY BIG CHICAGO FIRE

City Will Borrow $140,000 For Street Work

BIG LOAN ORDERS FOR STREET WORK WILL GO TO CITY COUNCIL

Loans Will Include $70,000 for First Street, $20,000 for Sidewalks and $50,000 for Paving --- Other Loan Orders Totalling $90,000 to Be Presented for Memorial Auditorium

Loan orders totalling $140,000 for work to be done under the recommended program of City Engineer Stephen Kearney will be presented to the city council at its meeting tomorrow night.

For First street, $70,000 will be requested; for sidewalks, $20,000 and for paving $50,000. This represents the whole of the First street and sidewalk loans, but is only one-third of the recommended paving loan.

Mayor George H. Brown also stated today that loan orders amounting in total to $90,000 probably will be presented for the memorial auditorium. When money for this work originally was discussed, Architect Blackall estimated at $63,000 would be necessary for exterior improvements, including a retaining wall, granolithic sidewalks, street grading, extension of the White Way system and a proper promenade along the river bank. Mayor Brown cut this estimate to $60,000, but today announced that the city will have to borrow $90,000 for all necessary work.

Just how this total of $90,000 will be split up, is not definitely known. City Solicitor Edward J. Tierney went to Boston this noon to confer with officials and attorneys of the First National bank on the matter and it appears now that two or more loan orders will be presented to cover the whole amount.

Reno Hotel Destroyed; 100 Guests Rescued

RENO, Nev., March 15.—The Riverside Hotel, Reno's chief hostelry, was destroyed by fire early today. The loss is estimated at $250,000. One hundred guests were rescued from third and fourth floor windows. Few of th guests attempted to save any of their personal effects.

MAJOR SWAN ADDRESSES LOWELL AD CLUB

Major Carroll J. Swan, one of Boston's leading advertising men, founder of the Boston Ad club, now known as the Pilgrim Publicity association, and a veteran of the world war, in which he served with the 101st Engineers, was the speaker at today's meeting of the Lowell Ad club.

Maj. Swan, in his opening remarks, expressed his pleasure at addressing the local club, which is the only one of many ad clubs before which he has spoken to have the co-educational feature; no other club he has encountered has been wise enough to ask ladies to become members.

The speaker said he came here with no intention of talking advertising or salesmanship, but to express the thought that almost everything in life is selling. Everyone is selling something. Some may be salesmen of the accepted type, but there are still other salesmen who do not regard themselves in that light. A doctor sells himself to his patients, and when he performs an operation successfully his grateful patient sells him to others; in other words advertises him. Lawyers are salesmen, too. When they argue cases in court they sell themselves to judges and juries. Major Swann referred humorously to a young man's first proposal as "pretty tall selling."

At the recent great conference in Washington, said the speaker, we witnessed one of the greatest examples of selling in history. We saw our secretary of state sell the United States navy for nothing; with the provision, however, that other nations did the same. Briand, the great Frenchman,

SCHICK TESTING FOR ALL SCHOOL CHILDREN

Within the near future a clinic for Schick testing of all public school children will be opened under the direction of School Hygiene Director Francis A. Flanagan. Adequate rooms for such a clinic have not been secured as yet.

The Schick test is used to determine whether a person is susceptible or non-susceptible to diphtheria. To those found susceptible, immunity may be given through the injecting of a serum, called toxin antitoxin.

ICE IS RELEASED WHEN BOOM BREAKS

Fully as much water and perhaps a trifle more is sweeping between the banks of the Merrimack river today than yesterday. The 10 o'clock reading by the Locks and Canals at the Pawtucket dam showed that the height of the water was approximately a half a foot lower, but absence of flash boards in many places makes an accurate reading difficult.

The early morning reading of the gauge in back of the Boott mills, however, showed 48.85 against 48.41 at the same time yesterday and the Locks and Canals feel that perhaps this reading is more accurate and that the river is a little higher than it was yesterday.

The breaking of the boom in the river just above the Gage icehouses, at the head of the Pawtucket canal, caused large quantities of light ice to fill the lower river around the noon hour. It passed through the canal and out into the river again near the Prescott mill in East Merrimack street.

Full Square of Business Buildings Wiped Out, Fireman Killed and Many Hurt in Biggest Fire Since 1871

Ten Alarms Called Out Every Piece of Apparatus Within Five Miles When Fire Assumed Virtually Unlimited Proportions—Incendiarism Suspected—Man Arrested and Questioned—100,000 Thronged District to Witness Spectacular Blaze — Many Struck by Falling Bricks, Etc.—$15,000,000 Loss

CHICAGO, March 15—A spectacular early morning fire, the most serious since the memorable disaster of 1871, today destroyed a full square of business buildings just outside Chicago's "loop" or downtown district with a loss estimated at from $10,000,000 to $15,000,000. The fire started in the center of the block bounded by Van Buren, Canal and Clinton streets, and West Jackson boulevard, of unknown origin, burned every structure in that area, leaped north across Jackson and wrecked the 21-story Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad's general office building, which also houses the Mercantile Trust & Savings bank, and, aided by a strong wind, dipped over Van Buren street southward and burned nearly through to Harrison street.

The fire was not brought under control until nearly 5 o'clock, and even then firemen were fighting a dozen different fires and others broke out intermittently as the wind wafted sparks about.

One Fireman Killed

One fireman was killed, another seriously injured; 10 or more slightly hurt, and an unknown number of the hundred thousand spectators who thronged the burning district slightly hurt by falling bricks, burning timbers or sparks.

The fire for a time threatened to assume virtually unlimited proportions and every piece of fire fighting apparatus within five miles was called out on a series of 10 alarms.

"The rapidity with which it spread, was astounding," Marshal Buckley, assistant fire chief said; "the fire actually seemed to run from us."

COUNSEL FOR FULLER OPENS

Outlines Case in $100,000 Suit for Alleged Slander Brought by Walker

Will Present Witness to Prove Warner-Hathaway Partnership

TAUNTON, March 15—John W. Cummings, counsel for Lieut. Governor Fuller, this morning made his opening address to the jury, outlining the defense in the $100,000 suit for alleged slander brought by former Speaker Joseph E. Warner of Taunton. Mr. Cummings said the defense would show that Warner never made any specific denial of the charges of Fuller. He would put on the witness stand William Garcelon of the Arkwright club, who, he said, would testify that Warner introduced Harold F. Hathaway to him, and that Garcelon subsequently engaged Hathaway as attorney for services before a legislative committee in behalf of Fall River manufacturers, for which Hathaway received more than $5000.

Mr. Cummings said Charles Strange of Taunton would testify that Warner had told him he was a partner of Hathaway.

The attorney stressed the Salem rally, where, he said, Warner stood under a tree, his face partly concealed by a handkerchief and that he made no reply to charges voiced by Fuller.

William M. Lovering a Taunton mill man, testified, as first witness today, to mill conditions affecting the purity of the Taunton river.

Fuller Testifies

TAUNTON, March 15.—Lieut. Gov. Alvan T. Fuller, testifying in his own behalf today in the $100,000 slander suit brought against him by Joseph E. Warner, former speaker of the house, said that after a political rally in Salem during the 1920 campaign Warner had made no answer to a series of questions, some of which concerned the plaintiff's relations with Harold F. Hathaway, an attorney.

Counsel for Fuller by previous testimony had sought to show that Hathaway and Warner were law partners, and that Hathaway had appeared before legislative committees while Warner was speaker.

After the Salem speech, which was early in September, 1920, Fuller said he asked Warner "15 or 16 questions." He said he asked him whether he would deny that Hathaway was his law partner; that Hathaway had appeared before legislative committees which Warner, as speaker, had appointed; that Hathaway had been paid for these appearances or that he had shared fees with Hathaway.

Fuller testified that Warner made no answer to any of these questions. The witness said he then told the former speaker that he would give an affidavit denying that Hathaway was his partner and denying that Fuller's accusations were true, if the witness would support him for lieutenant governor.

Fuller asserted that reports of his speeches as printed in newspapers were "substantially correct."

Mr. Fuller said that in a speech at Brockton he did refer both to Ali Baba and to Hathaway.

Fuller testified that he had sent out about 200 copies of the circular letter distributed in 1920 to motor car companies, in which Hathaway and Warner were referred to as law partners. The circular constitutes the second count of Warner's declaration.

CALLS HALT ON HONORS GIVEN HIM

PERU, March 15.—"I've got enough to do. I'll be hanged if I chase everybody's cows and chickens, too." It was in this wise that Frank Creamer, "poohbah of Peru" called a halt on the honors being given him at town meetings. The 19 voters of this Berkshire town had just elected "Mayor" Creamer moderator, town clerk, selectman, treasurer, tax collector, overseer of the poor and member of the health board. Then someone nominated him for field driver and he called quits.

GOMPERS PLEDGES HELD IN LEGION CAMPAIGN

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 15.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, today informed the national headquarters of the American Legion that organized labor would give "every encouragement" to the Legion campaign to relieve unemployment among veterans of the world war. The campaign ends next Monday.

"This is a most worthy object," wrote Mr. Gompers, referring to the Legion's campaign.

Arthur Gigure Fined $100 for Having Obscene Pictures in His Possession

Walter Kay, steward of the Bunting club, pleaded guilty to a charge of illegal keeping of liquor, when arraigned before Judge Enright in district court this morning, was fined $100 and paid. The case which has caused considerable interest took up no more than five minutes from the time it was called until Kay finished counting off $100 from a roll.

Kay was called and the charge read to him by Assistant Clerk Toye. He pleaded guilty. Sergt. Winn of the liquor and vice squad was called and made a brief outline of the case. There were no questions and the court imposed the fine. Kay then asked for a continuance. When asked his reason for such a request after pleading guilty, he could give no reason. He then paid the fine.

LOWELL MAN INJURED

Driver of Auto and Woman Passenger Badly Hurt on Lawrence Road

METHUEN, March 15.—Mrs. Mary Oakes of Lawrence and Charles Favro of Lowell were badly injured early this afternoon when an automobile driven by the latter crashed into a pole near the state armory on the Lawrence-Lowell boulevard. Two other passengers, Mrs. Margaret Haggerty and Mrs. Margaret Boddy, both of Methuen, were also hurt. All were taken to a local hospital. The party was headed toward Lowell, where the women were to attend a funeral.

SAYS THAT AT LEAST ONE-FOURTH OF CITY NEEDS REBUILDING

Building Inspector Connor Sends Out General Orders for Repair of Dilapidated Structures and Clearance of Fire Escapes in Spring Clean-up Campaign---Says City's Building Laws Adequate

That at least one-fourth of the city needs rebuilding and that he will insist that all dilapidated structures are at once put in proper condition, or condemnation will follow and that all fire escapes must be cleaned immediately of any and all accumulations of the winter months, were the high lights of a spring house-cleaning crusade outlined today by Building Inspector Francis A. Connor.

General orders relative to the repair of run-down buildings and the cleaning up of fire escapes will be issued within a day or two from the office of the inspector.

During a discussion of whether or not there should be any changes in local building laws and regulations to conform with the stipulations of the national board of fire underwriters, Inspector Connor said it was not a job for any one man, but should be given careful study by a board of four men, preferably a lawyer, a contractor and architect and the building inspector.

"Our building laws are good at present," said Mr. Connor, "and there is absolutely no call for alarm. During the past 10 years our fourth class buildings (frame construction throughout) are better built than were the second and third class buildings of 25 years ago.

"While the city's wooden structures are not absolutely fireproof, they are fire retarding and are equipped with fire stops. All egresses are wire-lathed and plastered, and the building as a whole is so constructed as to hold a fire in check until the firemen arrive.

"It is no secret," said the inspector, "that at least one-fourth of the city needs to be rebuilt. Older sections, where buildings have been standing for a great many years, constitute our greatest fire hazards."

In his campaign to have dilapidated buildings put in proper repair, Inspector Connor will seek the aid and co-operation of the police department and will request that all such structures are reported to his office. He then will follow up each report and unless repairs are made he will condemn the building.

The inspector states that his inspection force is not large enough to cope with the situation without some outside aid.

Miss Kenney of Northfield Indicted

GREENFIELD, March 15.—Miss Elizabeth Kenney of Northfield, former bookkeeper and housekeeper for Warren J. Wright, town treasurer, was indicted by the grand jury which reported today on the charge of the larceny of $15,000 of Northfield town funds. The indictment contained 24 counts, eight charging forging and uttering and 16 charging larceny. Miss Kenney has been confined in the Franklin county jail since her arrest March 4 near Boston, owing to inability to furnish $10,000 bail. Miss Kenney entered plens of not guilty to all counts.

$50,000 to Aid Unemployed Veterans

BOSTON, March 15.—Governor Cox proposes to ask the legislature for a second appropriation of $50,000 to be used in employing war veterans in clearing up the debris left by the ice storm of the early winter. Herman A. MacDonald, the governor's secretary, made this announcement today at a conference at the State House on the unemployment situation attended by Major General Clarence R. Edwards, commanding the first army corps area, State Commander Charles H. Cole of the American Legion and the mayors of several cities.

Wall Street Brokers Plead Guilty

NEW YORK, March 15.—Isador Friedman and George Markelson, among the first Wall street brokers to be indicted during the bucket shop investigation conducted by the district attorney's office, pleaded guilty in supreme court today to grand larceny. They will be sentenced March 20. Samuel M. Small, 19 years old, who was indicted with them, will be placed on trial tomorrow.

AUTO PARTY UNDER FIRE

Officer Captures Trio After Forcing Driver to Run Auto Over 10-Foot Bank

BOSTON, March 15.—Mounted Officer Frank Sullivan captured three men in an automobile chase early today after firing five shots and forcing the driver to run the car over a 10 foot embankment on Brookline avenue. The three men who escaped injury, gave these names: John W. McAuliffe, Holland Rothwell and William Beatty. McAuliffe was charged with intoxication and the others were held as suspicious persons.

THIRD ATTEMPT TO AMEND PACT FAILS

WASHINGTON, March 15.—For the third time the senate defeated today an effort to amend the four-power treaty to permit participation of outside nations in international conferences over controversies arising in the Pacific.

An amendment for that purpose by Senator Pittman, democrat, Nevada, similar to two on the same subject rejected yesterday, was defeated, 50 to 27. The treaty opponents indicated, however, that they would bring the proposal forward again later in the form of a reservation in the hope that they might secure the support of a number of senators who object to all amendments as a matter of principle.

The party alignment on the amendments was virtually the same as that which yesterday defeated similar amendments. Except for a temporary absentee, the same few republicans and democrats left the majority of their respective parties.

Isaiah Moore Declares He is Sure He Only Married 13 —Forgets Names

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 15.—Two more wives were added today to the list of matrimonial ventures of Isaiah Moore, who is under arrest here charged with bigamy and embezzlement.

"I have kept a pretty good record of my marriages, and I am sure there are only 13," said Moore.

Moore told the police in the original list of 11 marriages he had neglected to include one at Denver, Colo., where he said he was married under the name of James Vaughan, and also one at Ridgeway, Md., where he gave the name of Harry Forbes. He said he could not remember the names of either of the wives.

"I have always been subject to severe nervous disorders. Petting and affection have caused my nervousness. I would get tired of one woman and desert her. Then I would feel the need of affection and would get married again," Moore said.

SAYS MRS. GOULD NEEDS $45,000 ANNUALLY

NEW YORK, March 15.—Counsel for Mrs. Edith Kelly Gould, divorced wife of Frank Jay Gould, today told Supreme Court Justice Newburger that his client needed $45,000 annually for living expenses.

These were enumerated, as follows: Clothes, underwear, shoes, etc., $15,000; operating automobile, $6000; rent of apartment $6000; food $5000; entertainment, $5000; doctor bills, $2000; dentist, $1000; and dancing and music $4000.

TREATY FOES ARE BEATEN

Amendment Defeated in Senate After Stormy Debate, 30 Voted in Favor

Lenroot Says Harding May Make Treaties Issue at Polls in November

WASHINGTON, March 15.—After another stormy debate in which possible political consequences of the administration treaty program were discussed from several angles, the senate late yesterday rejected by a division almost on party lines the first two of the proposed amendments to the four-power Pacific pact.

At the peak of their strength with 11 short of the full membership present and voting, the opposition to the treaty marshaled 26 democratic and 4 republican votes, within two of a third of the full senate membership, but three fewer than enough to upset the two-thirds needed for final ratification if all senators participate in this vote.

Leaders on both sides conceded, however, that at best the division was but a poor index to senate sentiment on the question of ratification itself.

Four Democrats With Majority

The first of the two amendments acted upon was offered by Senator Robinson, democrat, Arkansas, and provided that the four powers should refrain from aggression against non-signatory as well as signatory nations and that all interested nations whether signatories to the treaty or not should be invited to any conference over a Pacific controversy. The proposal was lost, 30 to 56. Later a similar amendment in different form was presented by Senator Walsh, democrat, Montana, and was voted down, 27 to 50.

On both roll calls four republicans—Borah of Idaho, Johnson of California, France of Maryland and LaFollette of Wisconsin—voted in the affirmative, while an equal number of democrats—Pomerene of Ohio, Ransdell of Louisiana, Underwood of Alabama and Williams of Mississippi—joined the opposition.

Of the New England delegation, Senators Walsh of Massachusetts and Gerry of Rhode Island, democrats, voted for the amendment, while Senators Fernald and Hale of Maine, Keyes of New Hampshire, Dillingham and Page of Vermont, Lodge of Massachusetts, Colt of Rhode Island, and Brandegee and McLean of Connecticut, republicans, voted against the amendment. Senator Moses of New Hampshire, republican, was absent.

Senator Lenroot, republican, Wisconsin, warned the democrats that should the four-power pact be defeated, President Harding might withdraw the other treaties and ask the country for a verdict at the polls in November.

By Senator McCumber, republican, North Dakota, the president was invited to say what had become of the republican campaign pledge for 1920 for an "Association of Nations." Senator McCumber put into the Record a plan of his own for such a world "Association."

Senator Walsh of Montana, democrat, argued for the Robinson amendment.

Both Senators Lodge, republican, Massachusetts, the republican leader, and Underwood, democrat, Alabama, the democratic leader, argued against the amendments on the ground that they would necessitate reopening the negotiations. When Senator Walsh suggested that the American people would not be satisfied with such an explanation, Senator Lodge retorted that "We'll risk that."

Opposing the amendment, Senator Williams, democrat, Mississippi, declared that he saw "no reason to mutilate or defeat a treaty which provided for preserving the peace within a limited area."

"The other parties to this treaty," continued Senator Williams, "are France, Japan and—unfortunately—Great Britain. I say unfortunately, because if Great Britain were not a party, all the German-American and Irish-American opposition would have ceased long ago.

"It's a pity, perhaps, that Great Britain exists at all. But she does and is a party to this treaty, and along with Japan and France is a member of the League of Nations. As members of the league they are all three required to sit down, as they would do under this amendment, and talk over their controversies.

"Now, I am a democrat, a Bourbon democrat, a plain, plain fool Mississippi democrat; but I do not mix politics with foreign relations."

Senator Williams declared that if a republican president had sent the Versailles treaty to the senate, three-fourths of the republicans would have voted for it.

And if President Wilson had sent the treaties to the senate two-thirds of the democrats would have voted for them.

He added: "It seems to me it's about time we stopped our politics at the coast line."

Stanley Praises Irish Race

Senator Stanley, democrat, Kentucky, interrupted to deplore what he termed "nauseous adulation of Great Britain."

Senator Williams' position was assailed by Senator Robinson. He charged that Secretary Hughes had made two great mistakes: In signing with 39 other republicans before election a statement that the way to secure entrance of the United States into the League of Nations was to elect Harding president, and in regard to the expense of the army of occupation on the Rhine, charging:

"Because Mr. Hughes failed to safeguard our rights in one way or another we are in danger of losing this $241,000,000."

Senator Stanley, democrat, Kentucky, made an impassioned address praising the Irish race and regretting "a gratuitous, unprovoked and unwarranted assault upon a great and patriotic body of American citizens," declaring Irish antipathy to Great Britain was justified.

13 NATIONS ENTERED FOR CUP TOURNEY

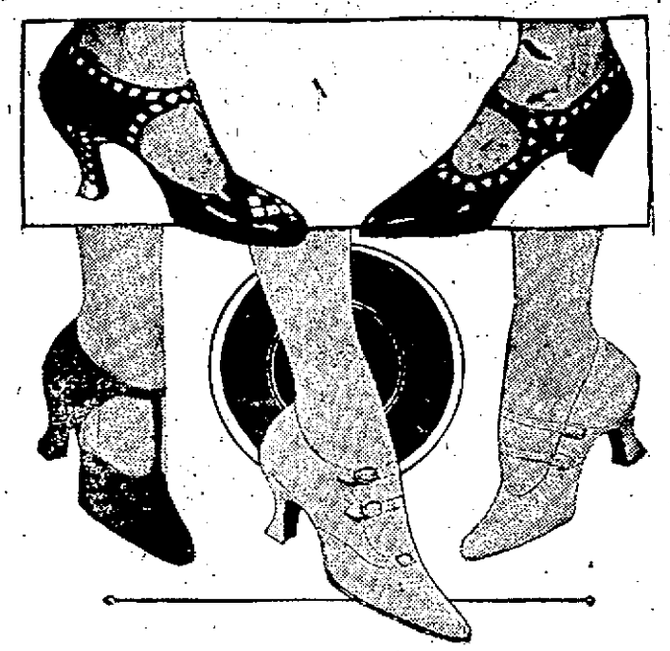

NEW YORK, March 15.—A record-breaking list of 13 nations, already entered for competition, marks the Davis cup international team tennis championship tournament entry closing at noon today. The drawings will be made on Friday and the various countries entered immediately informed of the results.

The list consists of Australia, British Isles, Canada, India, Denmark, France, Spain, Italy, Belgium, Czecho-Slovakia, Japan, Rumania and Hawaii.

Last year Japan defeated Australia three matches to two at Newport in the final round and was in turn defeated by the United States team, five matches to none in the challenge round at Forest Hills, N. Y.

SIX JURORS FOR ARBUCKLE TRIAL

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—With six jurors accepted temporarily, attorneys for state and defense today resumed their efforts to fill the remaining six seats in the jury box for the third trial of Roscoe Arbuckle, on a manslaughter charge growing out of the death of Miss Virginia Rappe, film actress.

STRAPS AND BUCKLES

By MARIAN HALE

NEW YORK, March 14.—Summer footwear, as the latest styles from London indicate, will be very much a thing of straps, buckles and cut designs. Some of the most clever of the new things are black patent leather sandals with cut designs of white following the lines of stitching and ornamenting the heels. Sometimes the toes are left quite plain, occasionally they sport a small cut design.

The one-strap slipper on pump lines will be worn much. Very often the slipper of this type is of fabric, satin or brocade and ornamented with beading.

The small buckles which made their appearance last year are holding their own in the field of fastenings. They are used more, however, on suede footwear, while buttons are reserved for satin. Satin and suede are often used in combination.

WEATHER BUREAU ISSUES WARNING

WASHINGTON, March 15.—The weather bureau today issued the following storm warning:

"Advisory 9.30 a. m., northeast storm warnings displayed on the Atlantic coast from Norfolk, Va., to Atlantic City, N. J. Disturbance central over North Carolina and moving eastward will be attended by strong northeast and north winds, diminishing tonight."

DISPUTE BETWEEN IRISH TROOPS ENDS

TEMPLEMORE, Ireland, March 15 (by the Associated Press).—The dispute between different factions of Irish army troops over the occupation of the barracks here has been amicably adjusted as the result of a visit from Owen O'Duffy, chief of staff of the Irish republican army, and Adjutant General Sullivan.

TO ERECT MONUMENT TO STRIKE RIOT VICTIM

PAWTUCKET, R. I., March 15.—The reed makers' union has started a movement to erect a monument to the memory of Jose d'Assuncao, the Portuguese national who was killed at the strike riot in this city on Feb. 21. Other labor unions, as well as the Portuguese residents, will be asked to contribute to the fund.

Ban on Mass Picketing

No attempt was made today to test the order of Sheriff Jonathan Andrews against mass picketing at the mill gates. A few pickets appeared at most of the factories and they report no change in working conditions there. The labor leaders intend to have a conference today with the sheriff on the question of picketing.

REVOLUTIONISTS ROUTED

Artillery, Tanks and Airplanes Used in Capture of Fordsburg, So. Africa

LONDON, March 15 (by the Associated Press).—With all sectors of the disaffected area in South Africa cleared of rebels except certain portions of the Johannesburg, or central region of the Rand, the struggle apparently has entered its final phase. Jeppestown, in the east end of Johannesburg, seems to be the principal remaining centre of resistance.

Artillery, tanks and airplanes were used in the capture of Fordsburg from the revolutionists yesterday. They capitulated after 75 minutes of bombardment.

In the East Rand extensive properties and mines were recovered and 168 revolutionists captured. Their leaders, however, escaped.

Jewelers in London are complaining because women are wearing less jewelry than formerly.

A bycycle with wings was recently experimented with successfully by its maker, a Frenchman.

MRS. OBENCHAIN CRIES

Woman Accused of Murder in Tears as Counsel Attacks State's Theory

LOS ANGELES, Cal., March 15.—Another day of argument today was ahead of the court where the trial of Mrs. Madalynne Obenchain for the murder of her sweetheart, J. Bolton Kennedy, is drawing to a close.

Alfred E. MacDonald, junior defense counsel, began placing the defendant's cause to the jury late yesterday and was ready to resume when court opened this morning.

Mrs. Obenchain cried softly yesterday when Mr. MacDonald addressed the jury, declaring the state's theory that she was "a woman scorned" had been disproved.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid liver.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No griping is the keynote of these little sugar-coated, olive colored tablets. They relax the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a sick headache, bad breath—a dull, tired feeling, sick headache, torpid liver, constipation, you'll find quick, sure and pleasant results from one or two of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take them every night just to keep right. Try them. 15c and 30c—Adv

CONFERENCE ON WAGE SCALE

Miners Seek 20 P. C. Increase While Mine Owners Favor Decrease

NEW YORK, March 15.—Anthracite miners and operators were prepared today to begin negotiations for a new wage agreement to take the place of the two year contract which expires at the end of this month.

The miners are asking for a 20 per cent. increase in contract rates among other things, while the mine owners are on record as favoring a decrease below the present working basis.

It is not expected that an agreement will be reached before the end of the month, and in that event the scale committee of the hard coal workers is under instructions of the Shamokin convention to order a suspension of mining until a satisfactory agreement is in sight.

A shortage of anthracite coal is not anticipated unless the expected suspension should run into the summer.

The miners enter the joint conference determined, they said, to resist with all their power any effort to reduce their present wage scale as indicated by the operators.

Beyond the general statement that the workers should share in the general deflation by accepting a wage cut, the mine owners have not indicated what proposition they will make.

The principal demands of the miners follow:

A two year contract.

A 20 per cent. increase in the contract wage scale; a one dollar a day increase to all labor paid by the day and that differentials existing between different classes of employes prior to the 1920 award be restored.

A uniform wage scale in all collieries for occupations of like character.

An eight hour day for all employes, those working underground to count their hours from the time they enter the mine until they leave it.

A standard check off provision.

That where coal is paid for by the car the system be changed to a tonnage basis.

CRASH ROCKS TOWN

Ball of Fire Bursts Into Three Forks of Lightning Which Strike Earth Miles Apart

TRURO, N. S., March 15—A ball of fire, descending from a low-lying storm cloud, illuminated this town last night and with a crash that rocked buildings, burst into three forks of lightning which struck the earth miles apart.

One fork set on fire a barn on McClure road; another killed a horse in a stable, about two miles farther north.

When the lightning bolt fell, C. H. Wetherbee was throwing coal into the furnace at his residence. The shovel was wrenched from his hands and flung to the ceiling of the basement, but he was unhurt.

Many persons thought the phenomenon was caused by a meteor.

ACCEPT WAGE CUT AND SAVE TWO LYNN FIRMS

LYNN, March 15—Business agents of two locals prevented two firms leaving Lynn by offering them a 16 per cent wage reduction just in the nick of time.

The reduction was recorded to McGrath Brothers, a leather firm, 454 Union street, when that firm was ready to move to Boston because of the high labor costs in Lynn.

Similar action was promised by Michael J. Carroll of Cutters' Local 61, U. S. of W., in the case of the Frank C. Stuart trimming establishment at 292 Union street.

The 16 per cent cut was made effective by Agent Carroll when he went to the plant and persuaded the McGrath cutters to accept the cut. The allowance of a 16 per cent wage reduction cuts the war bonus of 56 per cent to 40 per cent.

Agent Carroll declared that by allowing the wage cut he prevented some 100 cutters being thrown out of work.

the conflagration grew possibly was of incendiary origin, was the statement of Shirley P. High, city fire attorney, who early this morning announced the arrest of an unnamed man on information supplied by H. T. Schiff, president of the Confectionery Specialty Co., at 521 West Jackson boulevard, where the fire started.

Mr. High refused to divulge the name of the man arrested, but said that he was being questioned regarding threatening letters Mr. Schiff said the man, a former employe, had sent to him. Mr. Schiff told Mr. High the man was discharged when he became incensed over refusal to permit him to purchase stock in the company and within the past two months had made a series of threats. Mr. Schiff placed his personal loss at $50,000.

Traversing the main burned area, the Metropolitan west side elevated line today was seriously handicapped in delivering its thousands of patrons to the downtown district, as was the Aurora and Elgin Electric Interurban line.

Fireproof Structure Checks Blaze

The huge Burlington office building, called a fireproof structure, kept the fire from spreading westward, while progress of the flames toward the south was stopped by the access the firemen had to the smaller buildings—two to six stories—which begin south of Van Buren street.

Cash and securities valued at approximately $6,000,000 are said to be in the vaults of the burned Mercantile Trust & Savings bank and it may be several days before they can be examined.

So intense was the heat in the burning district that the steel supports of the elevated structure could be seen at white heat.

The Van Buren street tunnel of the Chicago surface lines, under the Chicago river, debouches just at the burned area and for hours a stream of water poured into it until the tunnel was filled to street level.

The Mercantile Trust & Savings bank later announced that the cash and securities in its vaults were amply protected by heavy steel, cement and asbestos walls and that it was quite safe.

It was estimated that more than 25,000 persons were made jobless through the fire.

$300,000 LOSS

Fire Destroys Eight Garages in Hoboken

HOBOKEN, N. J., March 15.—Fire early today in the Fisher-Sweeney Bronze Co. building, at Grand and 13th streets, destroyed the structure, spread to a five-story tenement in Clinton st. and burned eight garages before it was controlled. The loss was $300,000.

$5000 FIRE LOSS

New Dwelling at Shawsheen Village Burned

ANDOVER, March 15.—Fire, caused by an oil stove which had been left burning to dry plaster, destroyed one of the new American Woolen company's dwellings at Shawsheen village early this morning, entailing a loss of $5000. The house was not occupied. Bad roads prevented the firemen from reaching the house and a hose line 1000 feet long, had to be laid.

By Their Hair Shall Ye Know Them— At Least Judge Graham Says So

JUDGE THOMAS F. GRAHAM AND ACTRESSES PORTRAYING THE HAIR-DRESSING TYPES THAT HE SAYS TELL THEIR OWN STORY

By GENE COHN

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—It's all "in the way she does her hair!"

Superior Judge Thomas F. Graham, famed divorce court mediator, who has won the title of "the great reconciler," has concluded, after a considerable amount of experimentation, that considerable of a woman's character is betrayed by the particular way her locks are arranged.

He finds that he can almost invariably predict the part a woman sitting in the courtroom will play in a particular divorce action.

And here is his general schedule of how the hair betrays the type:

Spit Curls—Here is the jazz lady. Chances are the spit curl wasn't in evidence when she started jazzing around, but was acquired as a matter of course. It's to be found about cabarets and wherever the jazz bands play. Inclines to flapperism, flighty and very likely to be the defendant in a divorce action involving inconstancy.

Bobbed—Accompanies short skirts, cigarets, smocks, tam o' shanters, bohemianism—all so-called "modern girl" sort of thing. Indication of "advanced thought," ultra-modern theories.

Mona Lisa—The kind with hair parted trimly in middle and falling in sleek order over the ears. She's the "career hunter"—the lady seeking her soul. Seemingly demure and generally not unlovely.

Ear Muffs—Likely to have too much petting and pampering at home. The kind you'd expect to run home to mother if "friend husband" asked her to cook a meal.

Marcel Wave—Disposition likely to resemble the hair—that is, artificial, as rigidly set as the curves of the hair and hence, stubborn, unreasonable, etc.

Hair Disheveled—Runs her house as she fixes her hair. Is likely to throw a dish or bring a rolling pin into play if a man were to complain about her bad housekeeping or her cooking.

Oh, yes—the judge adds—there is a type whose hair is soft and silky and combed without eccentricities; hair that seems to form almost a halo about the head; graceful and womanly—

"Only we don't see her in court very often!" he says.

BATTERY B HOLDS ATHLETIC MEET

Tuesday night the local armory was the scene of some real live sporting events in which some of Lowell's best talent competed.

The first event of the evening was a 15-minute wrestling bout between Private Pournier and Kid O'Grady. The bout furnished plenty of action but neither man scored a fall.

The next was a wrestling bout between Tiger Pearsall, a whirlwind in the grappling art, and Private Dougherty, both Battery B men, which ended in a victory for the Tiger. He threw his man in nine minutes, with a headlock and body smother.

Then came a 30-yard dash, won by Andromedas, the well known Greek athlete, in 2 4-5 seconds. He also won the shotput at 45 feet.

The next event was a running high jump, which narrowed down to two participants when the bar was moved up to 4 feet 10 inches, George Cargas and Andromedas. Both men cleared this, and it was moved up to 5 feet, but Cargas dropped out, unable to clear it. Andromedas won with a jump of 5 feet 6 inches to his credit.

A four-round bout was then staged between Young Conlon of the Battery and Dukey McCregg, which proved a thriller, Conlon being a shifty, two-fisted boxer, and McCregg a southpaw with a hard punch and the ability to take 'em. It was a no-decision bout.

Young Croft, a well known local wrestler, then took on a wrestler by the name of Silva for 15 minutes, during which there were no falls registered.

The last event of the evening brought the crowd to its feet when Young Duffy, the 119-pound amateur champion, took on Young McKenzie. They fought hard and fast for two rounds, both rounds being even, but in the third round McKenzie was forced to quit when a hard right burst a fly in his eye.

The events were well appreciated by all, and much credit is due Private Johnson, a well known wrestler and physical instructor of Battery B, who was the promoter of the matches. He is a hard worker for the interests of the battery and his intentions are to stage some real live events in the near future.

During the evening Corp. David Dobson entertained between bouts with some Scotch songs.

The referee for the bouts was First Sergeant Judge and the timekeeper was Paul Coto.

MYSTERIOUS CREATURE NOT PLESIOSAURUS

BUENOS AIRES, March 15. (By the Associated Press.)—It was not a plesiosaurus that was seen swimming in an Andean lake recently, but probably a descendant either of the horny plated glyptodon, or of the megatherium, in the opinion of Prof. Onelli, director of the Buenos Aires zoo.

Prof. Onelli explained that while the plesiosaurus dates back ten million years, the glyptodon and megatherium belonged to the quaternary era of only a million years ago. He said that from 1890 to the present time there had been 12 places in Patagonia between latitudes 38 and 52, at which mysterious creatures were reported to have been seen.

"Cover mouth and nose when you cough or sneeze. If you don't, you'll spread disease."

If everyone would take this precaution, there would be fewer epidemics of Influenza. Colds whether taking the form of Influenza with sneezing, running nose and a rough feeling throat, or with chilly and feverish symptoms, should never be neglected in the earliest stages, if you hope to avoid a disagreeable experience. Don't eat too heartily; drink plenty of water; get to bed early in a well-ventilated room; have your body well-warmed, and be sure to have your bowels move freely.

At the beginning of a cold, there is no better or safer remedy than the true "L.F." Atwood's Medicine. Two to four teaspoonfuls will quickly relieve congested bowel conditions, drive out impurities from the system, and help to ward off further troubles. Always have a bottle in the house. Any dealer will supply you. Large bottle 50 cents. "L.F." MEDICINE CO., Portland, Maine

Oh! My Back Is Hurting Me So

Old, reliable St. Jacobs Oil will stop all Backache, Lumbago and Stiffness at once!

Back hurts you? Can't straighten up without sudden pain, sharp aches and twinges? Now listen! That's lumbago, sciatica, or maybe from a strain, and you'll get relief the moment you rub your back with soothing, penetrating St. Jacobs Oil. Nothing else takes out soreness, lameness and stiffness so quickly. You simply rub it on your back, and out comes the pain. It is harmless, and doesn't burn the skin.

Limber up! Don't suffer! Get a small trial bottle of old, honest St. Jacob's Oil from any drug store, and after using it just once you'll forget that you ever had backache, lumbago or sciatica, because your back will never hurt, or cause any more misery. It never disappoints, and has been recommended for 60 years.—Adv.

SOLDIERS' BONUS BILL WINS, 19 TO 5

WASHINGTON, March 15—A favorable report on the Soldiers' bonus bill was ordered yesterday by the house ways and means committee, 19 to 5.

Chairman Fordney plans to submit his formal report Wednesday or Thursday, but said the time of calling the measure up in the house would not be fixed definitely until after the return of Speaker Gillett to bring any message on the bonus from the executive and that the subject of the conference with the speaker would be the question of calling up the bill next Monday under a suspension of the rules. Some members of the house, however, expressed the belief that Mr. Gillett would be prepared to give the president's views on the compromise bill.

The vote on the measure yesterday in the committee was taken 10 minutes after Secretary Mellon, Controller of the Currency Crissinger and Gov. Harding of the Federal Reserve board had been questioned for two hours in open session as to their ideas of the bank loan adjusted certificate plan.

The five members voting against a favorable report were Garner of Texas, Kitchin of North Carolina and Collier of Mississippi, democrats, and Treadway of Massachusetts and Tilson of Connecticut, republicans.

JUSTICE TAFT TALKS ON COLLEGE ATHLETICS

WASHINGTON, March 15.—Chief Justice Taft, speaking at a meeting here last night of the Yale Alumni association, of which he is honorary president, said he believed the growth of big collegiate athletic exhibitions was militating against the intellectual life of the institutions and should be curbed. Athletic contests in the form of great public exhibitions, he said, were not helping the educational purposes for which the institutions were founded.

"I would be glad to see a stop put to them and rejoice to see several institutions leading to that end," he declared.

CHINESE FETE THIS EVENING

The Chinese fete to be conducted under the auspices of the Lowell Art association in Colonial hall this evening, will be one of the most novel society events in the city for some time. With the assistance of a dozen or more Chinese students from the Textile school and Chinese young women from Wellesley college, examples of Chinese dramatic art and customs will be staged. The fact that persons having seats on the floor of the hall have been asked to appear in some sort of oriental dress should make the affair unusual and decidedly picturesque.

MEN'S MEETING

A men's evangelistic rally will be held at the Y.M.C.A. Sunday afternoon at 3.30. T. C. Henderson who is conducting evangelistic meetings in Lowell will be the speaker. Mr. Henderson hails from the west and is a forceful and direct speaker. He is especially at home when addressing men's meetings and the men Sunday afternoon who hear Mr. Henderson are promised a treat. The subject of his address will be "The Undertow."

BASEBALL SCHEDULE

ANDOVER, March 15.—Sixteen games will be played by the Phillips Andover Academy baseball team, according to the schedule announced yesterday, by Coach Fred J. Daly. The season will open April 19, and will close June 10, when the annual game with Exeter will be played in Andover.

Normal adult can hold his breath from 40 to 45 seconds.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

By Theatres' Own Press Agents.

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

"Blackface" Eddie Ross with his African harp will coax many a laugh from you at the B. F. Keith theatre, this week. There is no more effective coaxer in this particular than is Ross. And there are few who are as artistic in their story telling as is he. Furthermore, his plucking of the banjo is artistic in the extreme. His act is of A1 quality. Harry Holmes and Florrie La Vere in "Themselves" are of topline quality every second they are in view. Their act is distinctive and their fun is original. It is the first time this lively pair has ever visited Lowell. Another hit of the week is "A Regular Guy," with Bobby Bernard & Co. playing it. The Ja Da trio, made up of three former sailors, are lively to the limit, and Kay Neilan is a dainty singing comedienne. Other acts are those of the Seebacks and The Kitaros.

OPERA HOUSE

Seldom if ever has such an artistic and elaborate stage production been given in local stock circles than what Miss Marguerite Fields and her popular players are giving at the Opera House this week. "The Two Orphans," a play that is too well known to need comment, is the attraction, and judging from the manner in which it is being received, it still retains all of the drawing power of old. The Players are doing wonderfully good work in it and deserve the many good things that are being said of their efforts. Better get your tickets early for the remaining performances. Box office, Tel. 261.

RIALTO THEATRE

Rex Ingram's latest production, "Turn to the Right" is having wonderful success at the Rialto theatre. In the minds of some it excels his great "The Four Horsemen." It is comedy and pathos from beginning to end and both are blended perfectly. On the same program today is a Johnny Hines comedy, "Doz-Gone Torchy" and beginning tomorrow the added attraction will be "Jonathan and David."

SPECIAL AT THE STRAND

Montagu Love, one of the most popular screen stars of the present day, will appear in person at the Strand, both afternoon and evening during Thursday, Friday and Saturday, in his original act—the same that scored such a pronounced hit at the opening of The State theatre, Boston, earlier in the week. Montague Love is well and favorably known hereabouts. He has a wide circle of personal friends and admirers in and about Lowell, and no doubt they will turn out in large numbers at all performances during the week-end. There will be no advance in the prices, and assurance is given that the usual high class photo-play program will not be neglected in the slightest way. Mr. Love will hold receptions in the theatre lobby, and on Friday night the management will give a complimentary dancing party to him in the theatre foyer to which all patrons in attendance on that night are cordially invited. When Mr. Love appeared with Viola Dana, Bert Lytell and other stars in Boston during the first part of the week, Mr. Love proved the real star. He has a happy faculty of "getting close" to his audiences by telling good stories and relating anecdotes of himself and the other screen stars. He will present the same act that scored so heavily in the Hub. It should prove a big hit here.

THE STRAND

Without question one of the strongest triple-featured bills of the season is being presented at the Strand for the first three days of the week, and will be shown for the last time today. Viola Dana in "There Are No Villains," Buster Keaton in his funniest comedy, "The Playhouse," shown exclusively, and Hoot Gibson in "Sure Fire." Don't miss it today.

Michael Kirtio Offers Proof

Mr. Michael Kirtio, 185 Benwich St., Newburgh, N. Y., writes.

"Your Bosak's Horke Vino helped me. I was bothered somewhat with a stomach ailment, but from the time I started to use your Bosak's Horke Vino, I immediately began to feel better, and by continuing the treatment, the ailment disappeared. For everything that you advertise I will prove that by myself. I thank you for what Bosak's Horke Vino has done for me."

Coughs and Cold Never Bother Him

"Every year I have been troubled with coughs and colds," writes Mr. M. Gazdik, 1127 Hays Ave., Carrick, Pa. "I tried various cough medicines; none of them seemed to give me any relief, the cough would always run its spell. I secured a bottle of Bosak's Horke Vino and I almost instantly felt better. I continued its use and the cold very rapidly disappeared. I think it is such a valuable medicine that every time I take a slight chill I take your Bosak's Horke Vino and am no longer troubled with coughs and colds. It seemed to build up my entire system and protect it from attacks of this kind."

The genuine BOSAK'S HORKE VINO is for sale at Campbell's Drug Store, 223 Central St., and the Burkinshaw Drug Co., 418 Middlesex St., and all good dealers. Adv.

MANY CASES OF RHEUMATISM NOW

Says We Must Keep Feet Dry, Avoid Exposure and Eat Less Meat

"Stay off the damp ground, avoid exposure, keep feet dry, eat less meat, drink lots of water and above all take a spoonful of salts occasionally to keep down uric acid.

Rheumatism is caused by poisonous toxin, called uric acid, which is generated in the bowels and absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine. The pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly, cold weather the skin pores are closed, thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate this uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jads Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism.—Adv.

BOLD, BARE TRUTH OF LIFE!

PERCIVAL WILDES' GREAT STORY

"THE HUNCH" with GARETH HUGHES

6 ACTS

"The Grim Comedian," a Goldwyn creation, and a drama of the human being back of the glittering portals of the stage is the headliner for the last three days of the week, beginning with matinee on Thursday. Jack Holt is the star and he receives the assistance of a most capable cast. It's a story carved right out of life and has some angles that will prove mighty interesting to all. The other feature will show Gareth Hughes in "The Hunch," a story that deals with the adventures of a young Wall street broker who wakes up one morning after a convivial party and develops a hunch on a certain stock that he believes will jump. The outcome is interesting.

On Friday night, immediately after the performance, general dancing will be provided the patrons. The music will be by a jazz orchestra and the spacious foyer will furnish an excellent dance surface.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

Final performances will be given today at the Merrimack Square theatre of "Moran of the Lady Letty," starring Rudolph Valentino and Dorothy Dalton, and "The Red Peacock," starring Pola Negri.

The features for Thursday, Friday and Saturday, marking the close of the 10th anniversary of Paramount Week, will be "Three Live Ghosts," a George Fitzmaurice production starring Anna Q. Nilsson and Norman Kerry, and "Love's Boomerang," featuring Ann Forrest and David Powell.

"Three Live Ghosts" is a picturization of Frederic S. Isham's famous stage play and is unquestionably one of Mr. Fitzmaurice's best screen productions. Comedy and pathos are delightfully blended in the story and the portrayals are highly artistic. It has to do with three world war veterans, of entirely different characters, temperaments and general stations in life, who return to England after having been thought dead. Their adventures make a mighty amusing story.

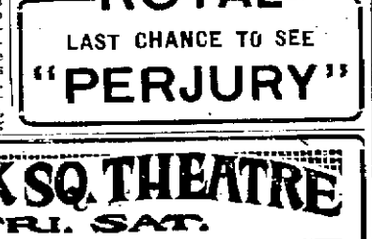

The leading roles are well handled. Miss Nilsson is a capable actress and one of the most beautiful women on the screen. She is a native of Sweden and after a stage experience in Europe and this country, she entered motion picture work. She supported William S. Hart in "The Toll Gate" and played the heroine role in "The Fighting Chance."

Norman Kerry is an American screen player who scored heavily in "Proxies" and in "Get-Rich-Quick Wallingford." He has been seen in many picture successes but his role in "Three Live Ghosts" marks his first appearance in a Paramount picture made abroad.

"Love's Boomerang," the other feature for the week-end, is exceptionally meritorious.

The story deals with a young artist who adopts a motherless girl and learns to love her. She weds another man for whose murder she is later arrested. Of course, she is innocent and how this was demonstrated, vests the development of the story with drama, real thrills and genuine appeal. Ann Forrest as Perpetua and David Powell as Brian the artist, are quite artistic in their portrayals. The supporting cast is a brilliant one, some of the more notable players including John Miltern, Geoffrey Kerr, Amy Willard and Tom Volbecque.

As a special added attraction Manager Nelson has secured exclusive pictures of the royal wedding of Princess Mary, with views of Lloyd George, King George and Queen Mary. Next Monday will bring George Arliss in his noted production, "The Ruling Passion."

NO one is in a better position to know how to wash silk, woolen, or fine cotton, than the manufacturers or these products. It is a matter of business to these manufacturers that the lovely fabrics and garments they make should receive careful laundering.

One careless washing, for instance, may ruin a silk blouse. A baby's woolen shirt or band will shrink or yellow almost beyond recognition in three careless washings.

When this happens, the manufacturers of the fabric or garment are held responsible by their customers.

For this reason, such prominent manufacturers as Belding Brothers and the William Carter Company felt that it was essential for them to work out the safest way to wash their products.

Thorough washing tests have been made by the domestic science department of a famous university. Samples of silks, woolens, linens and fine cottons were laundered the average number of times. Careful records were kept and the washed samples compared, after each laundering, with samples of the material which had never been washed.

As a result, the manufacturers whose goods were tested are recommending Lux to their customers. They know that Lux could not stand up under these severe tests unless it was absolutely pure and mild.

They say without reservation that Lux is safe—that if water alone won't harm a fabric or color, Lux can't.

Lux is sold everywhere. Get a package from your grocer or department store today. Lever Bros. Co., Cambridge, Mass.

"The Sheik's Wife" Will Cure Your Yearning to Be a Desert Bride

MARCEL VILBERT, HE'S THE SHEIK IN "THE SHEIK'S WIFE." NW VITAGRAPH RELEAS

EMMY LYNN, SHE WEDS A SWARTHY SON OF TH DESERT IN "THE SHEIK'S WIFE"

By JAMES W. DEAN

NEW YORK, March 15.—"The Sheik's Wife," an antidote for "The Sheik." Any impressionable young lady with a yearning to rush into the burning sands of the nearest desert to be wooed and won by a tribal chieftain will find her yearning waning after one view of "The Sheik's Wife."

Many such young ladies there are.

Their yearnings arose after they saw the romantic way in which Rudolph Valentino tamed Agnes Ayres in "The Sheik."

Agnes had an easy time of it in her movie harem compared to the experiences of Emmy Lynn in "The Sheik's Wife."

As Emmy arrives at her new home in the desert her sheik commands, "Hide well thy face. We have reached the home of my stern parents."

Then come the formalities of introduction. Emmy meets the sheik's mother, then she meets his father's second legal wife, then his father's third legal wife.

Then comes Emmy's first faux pas. She invites herself to eat with her husband, but Arab sheiks do not sit with their wives at wedding breakfasts. Brides eat what is left by their masters.

It was sacrilege for Emmy to look upon the face of a European man.

Desert love must be a hardy thing to endure. The surprise in "The Sheik's Wife" is that it does endure without the sheik turning out to be a European posing as an Arab. That was the silly turn of affairs in "The Sheik."

Sheik Types

The American idea of a sheik as personified in Rudolph Valentino is that of a dapper, beardless youth who remains dapper in spite of sandstorms and weary treks over the desert.

The European idea is exemplified in "The Sheik's Wife," made by a French company directed by Henry Roussell. Marcel Vilbert is the Arab chief in that.

Marcel has a weak chin and the eyes of a girl, but a bit of chin whisker gives him a touch of desert atmosphere—it seems that all sheiks have whiskers.

The travesty of both the American and European films is that neither of them has for hero a man of domination. Yet the motive of each is man's domination over woman, or rather, woman's desire to be dominated.

The photography of the European picture is inferior to the American product, but it reaches a greater degree of realism. That, because it was filmed in Algeria and has real people of the desert as extras.

Comedy of Manners

I heard one girl at the New York Strand, where "The Sheik's Wife" had its American debut, say that customs of the Arabs weren't much different from customs of Americans. She probably compared the sheik who ignored his wife at mealtime to the American husband who hides behind a newspaper at breakfast. She might also have observed that even swarthy daughters of the desert use powder puffs.

Tom Mix wrote "Clean Up Sudden," his next picture. Patsy Ruth Miller is the heroine.

A Boy Scout film is to be made by Universal. That was suggested by Will Hays.

NEW BODY LINES OAKLAND FEATURE

The new Oakland models have distinctly new body lines. A higher radiator, hood and cowl, together with noticeable body refinements, give a smartness and an appearance of power that must impress even the casual observer.

These new body lines of the Oakland "6-44" models are indicative of the numerous improvements which have also been incorporated in engine and chassis construction—improvements particularly designed to increase both pride in ownership and driver satisfaction.

The Oakland engine is of the six-cylinder, overhead valve type, noted for its constant power and reliability, and possesses many refinements and improvements. Improved pistons and piston rings have been added and the cylinders are specially honed to insure a perfect individual fit.

A silent chain drive has been made standard at the front of the motor, insuring freedom from noise and excessive vibration at all road speeds. Engine changes are along the lines of the most recently approved engineering design and the "6-44" is fitted with an unusually reliable power plant, with flexibility and quick pickup. Proof of the confidence which engineers have in this improved engine construction is indicated by the special 15,000-mile guaranty which goes with every "6-44" model.

Drum type, no-glare headlights, with exterior means for focussing, are standard. Nickel-plating is used on the radiator and other parts of the car where it will add most to the appearance. Oaklands is continuing the policy of individually tailored tops and curtains and in the open cars the curtains open with the door.

Rear windows and windshields are of plate glass and in the closed models there is plate glass throughout. Heater, rear view mirror, visor windshield wiper and snubbers are furnished in coupe and sedan. The wheel base is 15 inches.

Committee Appointed to Look Into Town Affairs

At a meeting of the finance committee of the town of Billerica held recently the following special committee was appointed to look into the methods of town affairs and make recommendations to the committee at a later date: Thomas Talbot Clark, chairman; Edgar P. Sellew, P. J. Mahoney, Alex. H. Mitchell and George Rogers. At the opening of the meeting Thomas F. Sheridan was appointed chairman of the finance committee and P. J. Mahoney, secretary.

Tendered Resignation

Ralph E. Dodge, who at the last annual town meeting was elected a member of the board of assessors, has tendered his resignation to the board of selectmen, the said resignation to take effect immediately. The board will convene next Monday night at which time they will take action on the election of a successor to Mr. Dodge.

SIGN OF SPRING

A sure sign of spring is found in the office of the city clerk, where the first licenses have already been issued to local fishermen. The season does not open by law until April 15, but the more ardent disciples of the whipping rod and swirling line are getting their kits in readiness.

FORD COUPE BURNED

Lowell police were last night notified by the Lawrence police that a Ford coupe was found badly burned near the Lawrence pumping station. The number plate, which was 97637, is registered to a Buick touring car owned by a Mr. Dranchand, who formerly lived at 496 Moody street, but who recently sold the Buick car and sailed for France.

MEN BLIND TO WOMAN'S SUFFERING

How many men, think you, have any idea of the pain endured by women in their own household, and often without a murmur? They have no patience when the overworked wife and mother begins to get pale, have headaches, backaches, faint spells, or is melancholy and cannot sleep. There is help for every woman in this condition, as evidenced by the many voluntary letters of recommendation which we are continually publishing in this paper for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It will pay any woman who suffers from such ailments to give it a trial.—Adv.

SHOT NEAR HEART

Man Wounded While Demonstrating "Bullet Proof" Vest

NEW YORK, March 15—Pierpont Potter, aged 36 years, employe of the United States Armorer Corporation, donned a bullet-proof vest yesterday and took his place against a wall in the basement of the building to demonstrate the device to prospective customers. Edmund C. McGrath, another employe, leveled a pistol and fired. Potter fell with a dangerous wound near the heart and the customers went away without placing an order.

Taken to a hospital by police, McGrath approached the bed of the wounded man with tears streaming down his cheeks.

"It's all right, Mac," Potter whispered, grasping his hand. "It was an accident; you couldn't help it."

For Baby's Cough

ALLEN'S LUNG HEALER

Is Wonderfully Effective

To mothers who hesitate to give their babies strong medicine we wish to state emphatically that Allen's Lung Healer is as harmless as honey. A child of five once drank a whole bottle without harm. It contains no narcotic and less than one per cent. alcohol.

DOSAGE FOR CHILDREN

1 to 2 years, ¼ teaspoonful.
3 to 4 years, ½ teaspoonful.
5 to 7 years, 2-3 teaspoonful.
8 to 12 years, 1 teaspoonful
13 to 16 years, 1½ teaspoonfuls.

These are approximate doses, an overdose will do no harm, but will be a needless waste.

WOOD DECORATED BY KING OF ITALY

LAWRENCE, March 15.—The award by the king of Italy to William M. Wood, president of the American Woolen Co., of the royal degree of chevalier, with the cross and crown of Italy, was made known by the Italian vice consul here yesterday. He said the insignia had been received at the Italian consulate in Boston from the embassy at Washington and would be forwarded to Mr. Wood at Palm Beach, Fla.

The vice consul explained the degree as "a personal reward of merit granted only to those who through some exceptional philanthropic deed have become worthy and have gained favor in the eyes of the king."

It was learned yesterday that Mr. Wood had recovered from his recent indisposition and would return to his home in Andover within two weeks.

EXTENSION COURSE IN AUTOMOBILES

Extraordinary interest has been shown in the state university extension course in gasolene automobiles, which begins this evening at the Lowell high school at 7.30 o'clock, and as many enrollments have already been received it is expected that the first session will be well attended and a number of new enrollments received.

The class, which is open to both men and women, will have for its instructor John J. Gildee. Discussions of the parts and types of automobiles will be included in the course, along with a study of engines, transmissions and lighting and starting systems.

Applications may be filed by those interested either at tonight's session or at the office of Superintendent of Schools Molloy in city hall.

PLANS ALL LAID FOR BIG BANQUET

Arrangements for the banquet of the American Irish Historical society of Lowell were finally completed last night, when the committee in charge got together and attended to the last small details. The committee reports that the informal reception from 6.30 to 7.30 o'clock and the program of music and speaking to follow the banquet are the main features of the affair.

The president of the society, Dr. Michael A. Tighe, will call to order at 7.30 and present the toastmaster, Dr. William P. Lawler. The invocation will be given by Rt. Rev. Monsignor William O'Brien, and the main speakers will be Hon. W. T. A. Fitzgerald and Joseph Smith, both of Boston. Other speakers will be Jeremiah J. O'Sullivan, Hugh J. Molloy, Rev. Appleton Grannis and Mayor Brown, and all of them will have something to say relative to the objects of the society and the work which it has outlined. A musical program by a well known quartet will enliven the evening's entertainment.

COTTON REPORT BY CENSUS BUREAU

WASHINGTON, March 15.—Cotton consumed during February amounted to 473,073 bales of lint and 38,509 bales of linters, compared with 395,115 of lint and 37,365 of linters consumed in February last year, the census bureau announced yesterday.

Cotton on hand Feb. 28, in consuming establishments amounted to 1,596,582 bales of lint and 177,472 of linters, compared with 1,327,155 of lint and 206,243 of linters a year ago, and in public storage and at compresses stocks were 4,221,830 bales of lint and 122,545 of linters compared with 5,603,139 of lint and 322,863 of linters a year ago.

Imports during February amounted to 34,761 bales, compared with 28,055 in February last year.

Exports for February were 338,440 bales, including 12,694 bales of lint, compared with 493,426 bales, including 9713 of linters in February last year.

Cotton spindles active during February numbered 33,787,329 compared with 33,496,356 in February last year.

BEQUESTS IN WILL OF SAMUEL STEVENS

SALEM, March 15—By the will of Samuel D. Stevens of North Andover filed for probate, the North Parish, No. Andover, is left $5000; No. Andover Historical society, $5000; North Andover improvement society and Lawrence hospital, $1000 each and Andover Village Improvement society, $500.

By the will of Harriet A. Clarke of North Andover, a trust fund of $10,000 after the death of a brother, is left to the First Unitarian society of Lawrence, the income to be used to provide good music at the church services. $1000 is also given to First Christian church, North Dighton for similar purposes.

About 400 cubic feet of air, weighing more than 30 pounds, pass through the human lungs every 24 hours.

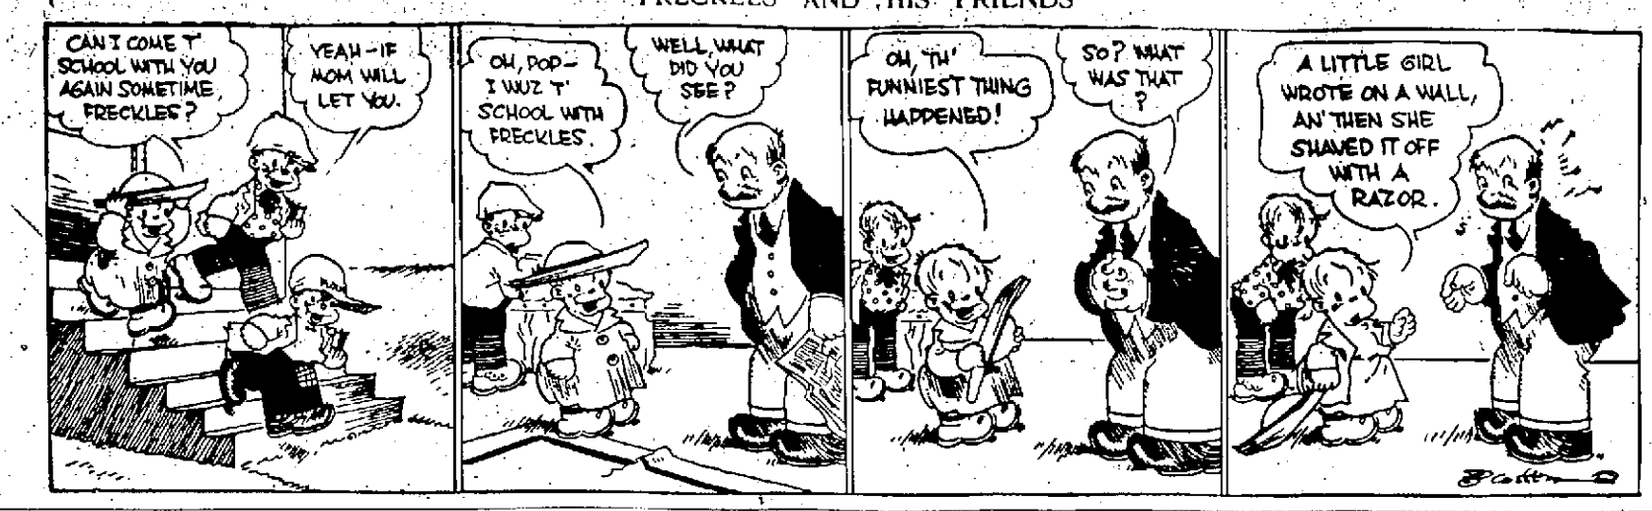

HIGH PRAISE FOR CHEVROLET SEDAN

"The Lowell public is really astonished at the wonderful coach work in this new superior Chevrolet sedan," says Messrs. Senter and Woodell, local Chevrolet agents. "And well they may be, for it is the classiest closed car ever offered at so low a price."

The body is low, strongly built and beautifully balanced throughout for greatest comfort and economy of wear, fuel and tires. A moulding around the body gives a more finished appearance and carries out the streamlike effect. Four wide doors afford easy entrance and exit to and from both front and rear seats. Three doors have inside latches—the right foredoor has an inside Yale lock and key. All doors are equipped with anti-rattlers. The color is black on upper structure, hood, running gear and wheels. Cowl and lower body panels are a toned Brewster green. Cord tires, straight-side, non-skid 30 by 3½ inches are standard equipment with demountable rims. Fuel supply is from 10-gallon gasoline tank on rear with Stewart vacuum system. Top material all in one piece and held under drip moulding positively prevents leakage.

The front seat is undivided for greater comfort and convenience of passengers and adds greater stability to the body frame. It is low, allowing ample head room and comfortable back rest. Rear seat is removable, affording easy access to back body panel. Both front and rear seats are deep and are finished in striped French plait velour over long coil springs. A cord robe rail with nickel fittings is attached to the rear of the front seat. Clutch and service brake pedals, foot accelerator, starting button, emergency hand brake and gear shift levers and 16-inch steering wheel are arranged for greatest driving convenience. The windshield is adjustable both top and bottom and has an additional permanent visor with rain gutter as protection from glare and storms. Windows are easily raised and lowered with Turnstedt window regulators. Rear window has a silk curtain. Mahogany garnish rails around all windows add to the effect of stability and custom coach work. Polished nickel hardware—door latches, window regulators, door-pull-to handles and dome light add to the distinctive interior appearance. All floor space is carpeted.

CAUSES OF STRIKES

At the Gompers meeting Monday Mrs. Conboy hit the nail on the head when she said that if the manufacturers would come out and show that a 20 per cent cut is necessary, the operatives would accept it. It is the unheralded posting of notices of a cut and the take-it-or-leave-it attitude of the manufacturers, that provokes the operatives to fight the reductions by every means in their power.

A plain, candid statement of the economic and industrial conditions that compelled the cut—if such existed—would probably have prevented the textile strikes and maintained the good feeling between employer and employed.

If the causes had been made clear, the consequences would have been accepted. The strikers are now and always have been open to conviction.

As we have already said, a friendly conference might have prevented all the trouble by removing all misunderstandings.

During the war, as Mr. Gompers intimated, the toilers attained a higher dignity than ever before in this country; and the principle of collective bargaining seemed to have been conceded by employers in general, in some cases reluctantly. It is true. But since the war there has been a growing tendency on the part of employers to recede from that position and to fix wage scales and working conditions rather arbitrarily.

This has naturally led to trouble, and it is one of the basic causes of most of the labor conflicts in progress over the country today.

Possibly there is a reason for it that does not appear to the public or to those on the outside; but if so, it would be well for the textile industry—manufacturers and operatives alike—to have it removed.

It is a well known fact that the textile business in New England is dull, very dull, that the manufacturers are face to face with industrial and economic conditions that in many cases have wiped out their profits. The annual report of the Merrimack Mfg. company shows this; and if these conditions were thoroughly explained to the operatives, we do not believe they would demand the impossible.

Let one of the mills concede collective bargaining and we venture to say that it will find that the surest means of retaining the good will and loyalty of the operatives even under the most adverse conditions. Wise diplomacy is better than war.

"Boost Lowell, boom Lowell, but don't bust Lowell."

That was the final appeal of a very plain and logical statement made to the city council by Tyler A. Stevens on the financial and economic condition of our city and the need for retrenchment in municipal expenditures. As member of the budget and auditing commission Mr. Stevens laid before the commission the inevitable consequences of a continuation of our policy of municipal extravagance. He pointed out that while the average tax rate of the state is $20.19, our tax rate is $31.40 and that if our expenses increase at the present rate the tax rate in 1927 will be $40 and in 1930 about $43. Another increase in the valuation of property which may come unless economy is practiced, would put rents higher than at present when in line with the general tendency to lower prices, they should be coming down. Mr. Stevens' warning is timely, logical and to the point. It is the duty of the city council to hew to the line as closely as possible even in the face of obstacles that may seem insuperable.

The city government is conducted for the benefit of all the people and hence the council should not be dragooned into adopting any course that will increase the tax rate if by any reasonable policy of economy, it can be kept down. Any city whose tax rate is above the average for the cities of the state, is handicapped in seeking new industries as manufacturers always look to the tax rate as one of the basic items in the cost of production.

We have a housing problem awaiting solution. The people expect some easement in the housing situation either from new construction or from a reduction in line with the cost of living which must eventually affect all values. Unless the ratio of expenditure be reduced the tax rate will continue to soar with disastrous results to the city and the inevitable consequence of putting all municipal departments on short allowance for a number of years.

"Boost Lowell, boom Lowell, but don't bust Lowell," is good advice and the city council in voting the appropriations should accept it as the course of safety and sanity in dealing with our finances and the economic problems presented in maintaining the public service through the municipal departments.

CLASH WITH THE ALLIES

It looks as if we have made a false step in our relation toward the allied nations of Europe, because of a lack of diplomatic tact. We had only announced our decision not to enter the Genoa conference when we put in a demand for payment of $241,000,000 for the services of our troops in the Rhineland since Armistice day; and not merely a demand for payment, but an assertion of the alleged priority of our claim for payment from the money paid by Germany under the reparation agreement of the Versailles treaty.

That must have come like a thunderbolt to the allied representatives, although it was originally agreed that the armies in the Rhineland should be paid for.

But it is objected that the American claim would call for the greater part of all the money paid thus far by Germany under the reparation agreement.

We showed our generosity toward the allies by refunding the war loans and even by letting the interest account run; but in the present instance we put forward our claim with the coarseness of a bailiff who threatens to smash down the door when serving a summons.

Our claim is just, and had a little tact been used in submitting it, we should have fared quite as well as a creditor, and at the same time held the good will of the debtor nations.

These nations now deny that we have a prior claim on the reparations and that as we did not sign the Versailles treaty, we may not stand on an equal footing with the nations that did, nor have the right to claim priority in this particular case.

The bill, however, appears to be legally contracted under an agreement made after the armistice to the effect that the payment of the expenses for the Rhineland armies should have first claim on the reparation funds turned over by Germany.

These seems to be a misunderstanding about this matter; but while the allied powers will probably do what they can to meet this demand, yet it is plain that they are piqued over the blunt and undiplomatic manner in which the demand was made.

It is presumed that this claim with others from each of the allies against the body will be considered simultaneously and dealt with under a common policy based upon existing agreements. To insist on payment as at first proposed, would cause the allied powers to become our lasting enemies.

This is what we finally get for our disinterestedness in refusing to ask any indemnity or to accept any mandatories; but in the end the army bill will be paid. We need the money, but the allies will find it difficult to pay such a bill at the present time. They are likely also to object that it is excessive as it is undoubtedly much greater than the bills of other powers for maintaining occupation forces. The Americans want to live better than the others.

PHONOGRAPHS

Phonograph makers say they'll sell 1,500,000 machines this year.

Phonograph sales rise and fall with the tides of prosperity. About 540,000 machines were sold in 1914. Sales crept up to 600,000 in 1916, 900,000 in 1917, and reached a peak of 2,225,000 in 1919, when the boom exploded. We express ourselves in music more ardently when times are good.

How many records have you? The average is 35 to a machine. A New York banker heads the list, with 2100.

Ninety-five out of each 100 phonographs are sold on the installment plan, according to a check-up by the National Retail Dry Goods association.

Ninety per cent of the installment-plan buyers pay in full.

Ten per cent have their machines taken away by the collector.

HIGH FREIGHT RATES

The railroads, by high rates, in 18 months have lost 23 per cent of the business they might have had at low rates.

This is the estimate by Fred W. Putnam, of Minnesota railroad commission.

One estimate, dealing with something that never existed, probably is as good as another. But no one can deny that high prices, in the midst of a period of generally falling prices, strangle business.

Only a certain per cent of the public's income can be spent for transportation. Freight charges regulate volume of traffic.

OUR SOLDIER DEAD

When the army transport Cambral reaches New York around the end of the month, it will bring 1224 flag-draped caskets, the last large funeral procession of American soldiers who died in France.

Some 15,000 already have been brought home. About 32,000 of those who died overseas will be concentrated in American cemeteries abroad.

Thus the war slowly retreats into the mists of history and yet the bonus question is still unsettled.

If the coal mines close on April 1, the government should be ready to take charge and operate the mines until the parties in conflict see fit to settle their controversy. There is some difference between coal mines and cotton mills.

If those who have a longing for alcoholic liquor continue to patronize bootleggers, it will soon be necessary to open an institution for the blind in this city.

We need a new map of the western hemisphere showing how far the half of one per cent lines extend over the Atlantic and the Pacific. Volstead is not satisfied with the three-mile limit.

President Gompers will die fighting the battles of labor. He bears the weight of years with remarkable felicity.

Ten weeks' casualties in Belfast, Ire., show 83 killed and 167 wounded, offering proof of the inability of the local government to control the situation.

Still the stills are found and still the sales go on. With 27 drunks in the dock on Monday morning, it does not look as if the city were bone dry.

Those private distilleries make more work for the fire department, not to speak of the destruction of property.

Made Bad Break

Mr. Jones at a dinner party had been trying to say something nice to his hostess. "What a small appetite you have, Mr. Jones," she remarked. "To sit next to you, Mrs. Smith," he replied, "would cause any man to lose his appetite." And then he wondered why he wasn't invited to the next affair.

A Thought for Today

For myself I am certain that the good of human life cannot lie in the possession of things which for one man to possess is for the rest to lose, but rather in things which all can possess alike, and where one man's wealth promotes his neighbor's.—Spinoza.

A Word a Day

Today's word is specter. It's pronounced—speck-ter, with accent on the first syllable. It means—a ghost, a spirit, an apparation, a phantom. It comes from—Latin "spectrum," an image. Companion word—spectral. It's used like this—"Appearance of a specter at Antigonish, N. S., has sent a party there to investigate."

In Wrong Anyway

He saw her sitting in a dark corner, and knew that his chance had come. Softly he stole up behind her, and before she was aware of it, he kissed her passionately. "How dare you?" she cried. "Pardon me," he replied calmly, "I thought you were my sister." "You fool!" she snapped. "I am."

Offered Substitute

"Hair's getting a little bit thin on top, sir," said the barber. "Yes," was the customer's reply, "that's the result of too much Anno Domini, you know." "No doubt," remarked the barber after a pause, "never did think much of those new-fangled hair restorers. Try a bottle of our own make, sir."

Proved His Point

"All the world loves a lover." "It's not true. The other evening there were two of them in a picture theatre. He was pleading and she sulked, just to draw his on. He kept whispering, 'Be my darling again—O, be my darling again.' After half an hour of this somebody shouted out: 'For heaven's sake be his confounded darling.'"

Shock Crazed Him

Mrs. Boren (buying a railway ticket) —"What became of the ticket clerk who used to be at this window?" Ticket Clerk—"He's in the lunatic asylum." "You don't say so. What was the reason?" "A shock." "Shock, eh?" "Yes, one day last week a woman came to his window, bought a ticket, paid for it and walked away without stopping to ask a string of questions."

Beware

Swish, swish, swish!
Tish, tish, tish!
I'm the elusive,
Highly amusive,

Who lights the fires that burn so blue?
Who ties the knots in Old Brindle's tail?
Who turns the walls a ghastly hue?
Who leaves the bucket but steals the pail?
Who puts horses' teeth in the old grain chest?
Who fills each chamber with a mawkish light?
Who slaps Mary Ellen across the wrist?
Who sours fresh milk on a winter's night?

Swish, swish, swish!
Tish, tish, tish!
Watch my glance.
Take no chance.
I'm the Ghost of Antigonish.

MAN ABOUT TOWN

I noticed that in several of the school yards the boys are furnished with standards for high jumping and pole-vaulting and that they are deriving much benefit from the exercise thus afforded. Many of the youngsters are developing wonderful ability in high jumping and pole vaulting. This exercise serves to keep them interested and offers an equal opportunity to all the children to practice jumping over the bars. A few other pieces of apparatus might be conveniently used in some of the school yards, so as to offer variety that would interest all of the pupils for the reason that those who do not care for the high jump might like some other kind of exercise. But the shotput should be barred as dangerous in school yards. Already a very serious accident has resulted from its use.

Much interest is centered in the question of short skirts worn by high school girls in the city of Lawrence. Objection was made to the dresses worn by two girls as being too short and both were suspended. The father of one of the girls took the case to court and the judge decided that the school board had no right to suspend the girls on any such charge. It appears that the board insisted that the dresses should come at least three inches below the knees, but it seems the court was not inclined to allow any such authority to be exercised by the school board so long as the girls were modestly dressed even though their skirts were somewhat short.

Men from the park department are bitter in their comments upon the mischief done by boys on the various parks. Even the flower beds do not escape the reckless frolics of the youngsters. They think it no harm to run over flower beds that have been carefully graded by skilled gardeners. They break the buds of the tulips, sink some of the seeds so that they never reach the surface. One employe of the department working at Fort Hill park said that a great many boys seem to think that it is all right to destroy anything that belongs to the city, whether it is flowers, shrubs or street signs. Somebody is to blame for this state of affairs.

If the spring training doesn't produce any new men able to hold their own the two New York clubs are again going to start the season with a distinct advantage in having a well equipped pitching staff.

HARDING PARTY AT ST. AUGUSTINE

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla., March 15.—(By the Associated Press) Arriving here early today by train from Palm Beach, President Harding and his party planned to make a final two days stay here before leaving Friday on the return trip to Washington. The president breakfasted on his car and went immediately to the links for a round of golf.

Invitations have been accepted by the president and Mrs. Harding to be the honor guests at a public reception to be given at the Ponce de Leon hotel here tonight, for which about 1600 invitations have been sent out.

REOPENING OF THE ITALIAN PARLIAMENT

ROME, March 15. (By the Associated Press.)—The reopening of parliament this afternoon aroused only ordinary interest. Premier De Facta's speech outlining the policy of the government was not expected to contain pronouncements of any unusual character.

During the present session the treaties signed at the Washington armaments conference will be presented for ratification and this is anticipated without much opposition.

LONDON STRING QUARTET

At Colonial hall on Saturday evening of this week, the London String quartet will give one of its superb concerts under the auspices of the Middlesex Women's club. This is one of the milestones in musical activity. Wherever these artists have appeared they have been received with great acclaim. They were first heard in America last year at Pittsfield, where they played in the festival conducted by Mrs. Coolidge. They visited a few cities, then returned to London, coming back to America this winter for a tour. They made an instantaneous impression in Boston and have returned several times since the first concert in November. The Boston Evening Transcript had the following to say on their last visit: "They came; they played; they conquered. Not a delicate modulation, an accidental figure escapes the discerning four, as they weave and proportion the web of the music. When that web parts into strands, they set them in clear tracery. Cool heads, warm hearts and quick energies guide and spur them. To the beauty in which they drenched Beethoven's slow movement, to the light fire with which they tipped his finale, an expert audience answered not only with applause, but with cries and cheers."

WRIST FRACTURED

Spiros Thomas, of 48 Lewis street received a fracture of the wrist yesterday afternoon and his wagon was badly smashed when it was struck by an automobile truck owned by E. A. Wilson & Co., in Broadway. Aleck Finesoties, who was riding in the wagon with Thomas, was thrown out and dragged in the street, but escaped with slight injuries. The accident occurred at a point near Wilson's coal yard.

GIRL BURNED TO DEATH

FALL RIVER, March 15.—Virginia E. Gadouas, 1-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Gadouas, 158 Hunter street, died yesterday afternoon in a hospital as the result of setting fire to her clothes while playing with matches.

Her mother found her a blazing torch behind the door of the pantry in her tenement. The little girl was burned from her head to her waist.

FIGHT OVER 48 HOUR LAW IN R. I.

Three Bills Involving Working Hours up for Consideration in Legislature

R. I. State House Becomes Center of Interest in Textile Strike Situation

PROVIDENCE, R. I., March 15.—With three bills involving the 48 hour week up for consideration today in the legislature, the state house became the center of interest in the Rhode Island textile strike situation. Leaders of the striking textile workers had given orders that there should be no demonstration while the house and senate were considering working hours legislation, but Thomas F. McMahon, president of the United Textile Workers, and several of his lieutenants were prepared to take part in discussion of the bills before a senate committee. Representatives of the mill owners, on the other hand, were making determined efforts to head off a 48 hour law.

The main fight centered about the bill introduced in the house by Representative James F. Lavender of Bristol, providing for a 48 hour week for women and children under 16 years. The measure was placed on the calendar of the house last week without reference to a committee and a vote on the principle of the bill was looked for today. Friend and foes of the bill alike admitted that the vote would be close. Employing interests of the state, including the cotton textile mill owners, Employers' association and Metal Trades' association, focussed their fight upon having the bill referred to a committee or continued on the calendar. Labor representatives were insisting that the vote be taken and the bill advanced on its way to passage.

Two bills were to be the subject of a public hearing before the judiciary committee of the state senate. One fathered by Senator Joseph E. Noel of West Warwick, is similar in its terms to the Lavender measure, providing a 48 hour working week for women and children.

The other, introduced by Senator John J. Barry of Central Falls, asks for a 48 hour week for workers generally.

In a petition addressed to the legislature asking that action on the Lavender bill be deferred eleven cotton manufacturers whose mills are closed or crippled by the strike, declared that it would be unfair to adopt the 48 hour week in Rhode Island while industries in other states competing with Rhode Island industries, had longer working hours.

"It is an injustice and a menace to the very existence of the industry of any one state, if the 48 hour rule is applied only to it," said the petition.

The petition was signed by the Apponaug company, the Crompton company, of Crompton, Crown Manufacturing company, of Attleboro, Mass., Dexter Yarn company, of Pawtucket; Hope company, of Hope, and Phenix, Interlaken mills of Arkwright; Jenckes Spinning company of Pawtucket; B. B. & R. Knight Inc., largest owners of mills in Rhode Island; Sayles Finishing plant, Inc., of Saylesville; Slater Yarn Co. of Pawtucket and the United States Finishing Co., of Pawtucket.

McMahon Returns

PROVIDENCE, March 15.—Thomas F. McMahon, president of the United Textile Workers of America, who returned this morning from accompanying President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor on his tour of New England textile cities, announced that a meeting of the emergency board of the International United Textile Workers would be held in Boston at 11 o'clock Saturday morning.

Mr. McMahon refused to say for what purpose the meeting was called, except that it was to consider matters which had a bearing on the textile strike in Rhode Island and other centres.

EXISTING RATES ON RAW WOOL UPHELD

WASHINGTON, March 15—Existing rates on raw wool from the west destined to manufacturing points around Boston, were held reasonable today by an Interstate Commerce commission examiner who reported to the commission his recommendations after investigating the complaint of the Boston Wool Trade Association. The rates attacked by the association were chiefly the charges for combination rail and water hauls on wool produced in the west and moved to the Pacific coast for trans-shipment, via the Panama Canal.

The examiner declared that the railroad practice of refusing to halt cars moving to the Pacific coast at various points along the lines to allow picking up of small wool shipments, which privilege is given to cars moving east with an all rail haul of wool in view, constituted a discrimination against the rail and water traffic. This it was suggested, the railroads should be required to remove. The report will not be made effective until approved by the commission itself.

Berton Braley's Daily Poem

On The Way

Youth passes, blithe and gay and sweet;
Before my window down the street
The young girls saunter on their way
To shopping and to matinee,
Silk-stockinged, slim, with dainty feet.

At times with glances indiscreet
They flirt with someone that they meet.
(That's natural when some lithe, gay
Youth passes!)

And now and then, from this my seat,
I try to catch a glance that's fleet;
But—I am forty, getting gray,
And to those flappers I'm passe.
Once I was young—now, I repeat,
"Youth passes!"

HOOVER OPENS WAR ON VICIOUS CYCLE

By HARRY HUNT

WASHINGTON, March 15.—As an engineer, not as secretary of commerce, Herbert Hoover has set under way a study of how to control or eliminate the "business cycle" which now swings the nation alternately from periods of prosperity to hard-time levels of depression and unemployment.

At a conference called for Washington March 21, representatives of trade associations will be asked to cooperate in the study and to assist in carrying out whatever final recommendations may be made.

Hoover hopes to produce a gently undulating plan of general prosperity.

The new undertaking is an outgrowth of views and material developed by the president's unemployment conference held last fall.

Convinced that only sane and scientific control of the economic factors entering into the recurrent ups and downs of business can solve the problem that conference undertook, Hoover secured from the Carnegie foundation an appropriation of $50,000 to finance an expert inquiry, into how such control could be effected.

Then he secured Wesley C. Mitchell of the national bureau of economic research of New York to direct the investigation, with Edward Eyre Hunt as right hand assistant.

To Take Six Months

All sorts of national business, social and labor agencies, will contribute to the study, which is expected to consume about six months. In setting the inquiry under way, Hoover says:

"There is a solution somewhere, and its working out will be the greatest blessing yet given to our economic system, both to the employer and the employe."

The viewpoint from which the experts who are to study the situation approach it is set out by Hunt, who will be secretary of the committee.

"Unemployment on a vast scale is always a result of business depression," says Hunt. "The problem of unemployment, then, is only a part of the larger one of preventing or mitigating alternations of business activity and stagnation.

"The business cycle is marked by peak periods of boom between valleys of depression and unemployment.

Penalties of Booms

"The peak periods of boom are times of speculation, over-expansion, extravagance in living, relaxation in effort, wasteful expenditure in industry and commerce, with consequent destruction of capital.

"The valleys are marked by business stagnation, unemployment, and suffering.

"Both these extremes are vicious, and the vices of the one beget the vices of the other.

"It is the wastes, the miscalculations, the mal adjustments grown rampant during booms that make inevitable the painful process of liquidation.

"The most hopeful way to check the losses and misery of depression is therefore to check the feverish extremes of 'prosperity.' And the best time to act is at a fairly early stage in the growth of the boom!"

Organizations Active

Uniting in the effort to chart a pleasantly level landscape for American business, under Hoover's new program, will be experts from the federated American engineering societies, the department of commerce, the department of labor, the United States chamber of commerce, national bureau of economic research, the bureau of railway economics, the Russell Sage foundation, and many others.

NEW MODEL BUICK ROADSTER

A new Buick model roadster to be known as the "Special 6-54," was exhibited for the first time at the New York show by the Buick Motor Car Co., a subsidiary of General Motors. The new car speaks for itself. It has been designed because of the continued popularity of the Buick "54" which was brought out in 1916, but has not been manufactured since that time. Buicks are at the show in Mechanics building and at the Copley-Plaza at the Boston show.

"Like its elder brother," says Mr. Hale of the Lowell Buick Co., "the new 'Special 6-54' is built on a big chassis, with 32x4½ cord tires and a gear ratio of 4 1-3 to 1. It looks impressive and its performance bears out its appearance. The Buick power plant can always be relied upon to deliver full measure, and the present car's distinction lies in its appearance and its aid to comfortable and even luxurious driving. It is fitted with soft, easy-riding springs and snubbers front and rear and carries more conveniences in the form of attached accessories than are to be found in other cars of the same general design.

"The body is enamelled in Buick maroon, with black fenders and red wire wheels of the Houck type demountable at the hub. The top is of khaki, with special nickel and leather binding, and nickel finish is repeated on the radiator, windshield wiper, spotlight, deck rails, running-board binding and hood fasteners. Special etched aluminum threshold plates are furnished with the running board step plates of rubber and nickel silver guards on the side apron. Lamp equipment consists of special design drum type headlamps and cowl lamps.

LOWELL LODGE OF ELKS ELECTS OFFICERS

At one of the best attended meetings in years, the Lowell lodge of Elks held their election of officers last night for 1922 and 1923, the officers-elect to be installed early in April by a visiting suite.

JOHN T. DURKIN
Exalted Ruler

The officers elected were: Exalted ruler, John T. Durkin; esteemed leading knight, Walter E. Turnbull; esteemed loyal knight, James E. Donnelly; esteemed lecturing knight, Thomas J. Dowd; secretary, John J. Lee, P.E.R.; treasurer, John J. Healey; tyler, John J. Gilley; trustees, John H. Farrell, P. E.R., Edward F. Saunders and James H. Walker; delegate to the grand lodge convention, in Atlantic City, Exalted Ruler, Sam Scott; alternate to the convention, Richard T. Robinson, P.E.R.

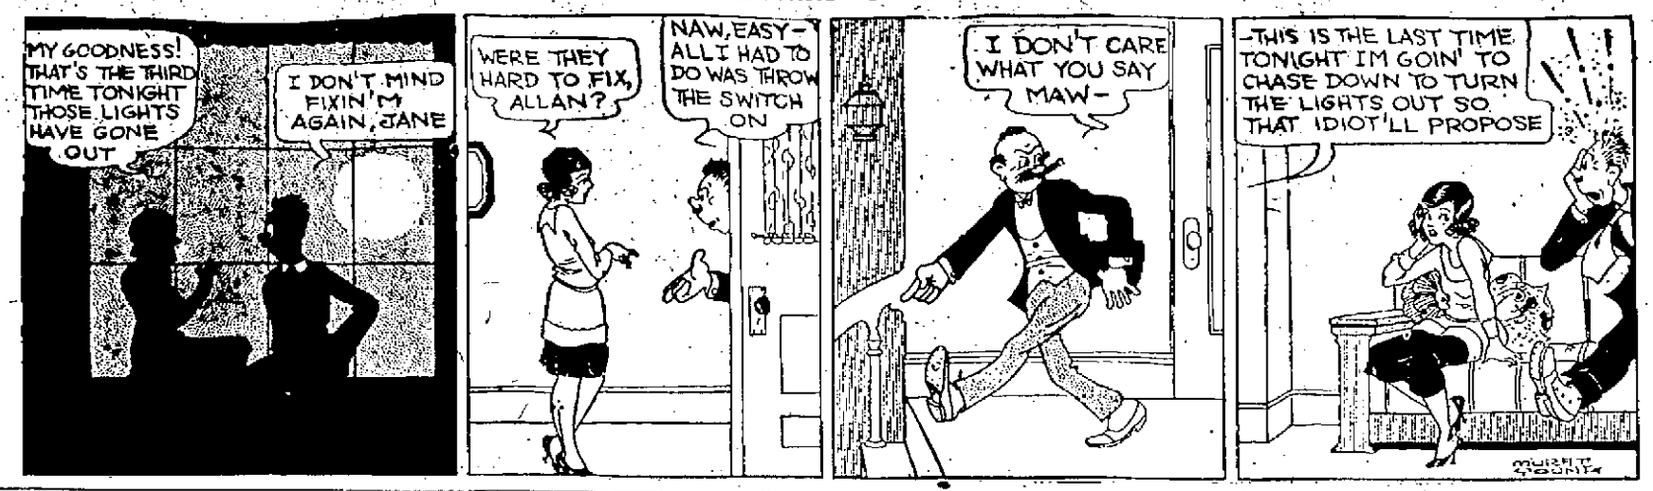

FRATERNAL NEWS

Commander George D. Crowell occupied the chair at last evening's meeting of Walker-Rogers post, 662, Veterans of Foreign Wars, which was held in Memorial hall. Several new members were admitted and plans for the Memorial day observance were discussed. The invitation to attend the dedication of the Comrade Buchanan bridge at Lynn in the near future was accepted from Overseas post of that city.

STRENGTH— VITALITY— HAPPINESS

A Message to People in Poor Health Who Want to Be Well

If you are in poor health merely from a general run-down condition; get some Gude's Pepto-Mangan of your druggist and take it with your meals for a few weeks or until you feel right again. Pepto-Mangan is a wonderful tonic and blood-builder and is very pleasant to take. It does not act like a miracle. Its effects are gradual, but real and sure. It contains iron in a form easily digested and absorbed by the system. For thirty years Gude's Pepto-Mangan has been used by physicians as a tonic for run-down people. Don't continue to be weak, nervous and headachy—take Gude's Pepto-Mangan and restore your good health. Thousands have been helped back to health by it—you can be benefited if you will accept this truth and act now. Sold in both liquid and tablet form.—Adv.

A LARGE number of women's ailments are not surgical ones. Serious displacements or radical changes have not yet taken place.

A tiny part in a fine clock may become loose and cause the clock to gain or lose. If not attended to in time, the part may fall from its place and cause serious trouble. So it is with women's ailments, they start from simple causes; but if allowed to continue, produce serious conditions.

When the warning symptoms are first noted, take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve the present troublesome ailment, and to prevent the development of serious trouble.

Portland, Ind.—"I was troubled with irregularity and constipation and would often have to lie down because of pains. One Sunday my aunt was visiting us and she said her girls took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and got well, so mother said she guessed she would let me try it. It is doing me good and I praise it highly. You are welcome to use this letter as a testimonial."—STELLA NEWTON, R. R. No. 8, Portland, Ind.

Baltimore, Md.—"For several months I suffered with severe backache and general weakness. I could not sleep comfortably at night for pains in my back. I found your book at home and after reading it began at once to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I have had very good results and some of my girl friends are taking it now. You may use this letter to help other girls as the letters in your book helped me."—ROSE WAIDNER, 3018 Roseland Place, Baltimore, Md.

"DANDERINE"

35-cent Bottle Ends all Dandruff, Stops Hair Coming Out

Ten minutes after using Danderine you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp. Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them, helping the hair to grow long, strong and luxuriant. One application of Danderine makes thin, lifeless, colorless hair look youthfully bright, lustrous, and just twice as abundant.—Adv.

One Player in the Big Leagues is Worth Two in the Bush

Who will fill George Burns' place in center field for the New York Giants? McGraw hated to give up Burns, but was forced to in order to get Heine Groh. Filling the vacancy left by the departure of Burns is one of McGraw's big problems.

The three players trying for the position are I. M. Boone, who was a whale of a hitter in the minors; Cunningham, with the Giants last year, and Ralph Shinners, for whom McGraw paid $35,000 to the Indianapolis club. Shinners has the call in spring practice he has made a big hit with the New York leader.

BOXING

In bringing Billy Woods of Manchester and Cleveland Johnny Downes together here tomorrow night "Deak" Dodge has signed up what can be termed a real "natural match."

Both of the principals are not only well known locally but both only recently won over the same man here, Johnny Avila. Three weeks ago Downes and Avila met in a match that went over the distance. Downes was awarded the decision. Then last week Woods came to town and engaged Avila in battle. And again the Lowell welter lost a decision after ten fast rounds.

Downes' bout here with Avila was his first and only appearance in Lowell, but he made a fine impression. Woods, though, has performed here on many occasions, and early this season sprung one of the greatest pugilistic surprises of the year, when he set down Sailor Darden.

The semi-final number between Billy Murphy, the popular Acre boy and Johnny Lucas, is looked upon as an event that ought to prove a hummer. Murphy has been a sensation since taking up the ring game, while Lucas has been enjoying much success in and around Boston this season.

Lefty Williams, who is traveling along at a fast clip, will meet an aggressive performer from Lawrence, named Danny Murphy, in one preliminary and Young Mullin of the Acre and Kid Hooker of Belvidere will entertain in the other.

Benny Valgar appears to be back in form. His victory over Jimmy Fruzetti of Brockton at Lynn the other night, according to reports, was clean cut.

Harry Greb, of Pittsburgh, gave the old dope a kayo blow in New York the other night when he won over Tom Gibbons of St. Paul. Gibbons, with a string of kayos a mile long was regarded as a sure winner, and was made a top heavy favorite in the betting. And it was also whispered around the country that he would be the next opponent of Jack Dempsey. But Greb "spilled the beans," and now the Pittsburgher is on the trail of "Tiger Jack."

Martin Flaherty, Jr., whom fans consider one of the most likely looking prospects, presented here in recent years, has already received several offers for bouts out of town. Promoters remembering his famous "dad" are among those who have opened negotiations to show the young fellow at their clubs. He is training every day under the watchful eye of Martin, Sr., and will soon be ready to tackle any boy of his weight in this vicinity.

According to some of the best known critics, the small town of New Holland, in the eastern part of Pennsylvania, has produced one of the greatest middleweights seen in that section of the country in recent years. The name of the new sensation is Jew Schupp, a boy of twenty-two years, three of which have been spent in the ring.

Schupp has never yet had a chance to show his wares outside of his native state, and his manager, Joe Kennedy, is desirous of having him appear in this section. One of Schupp's notable performances was a victory over Tommy Loughran, the Philadelphia middleweight, who defeated Bryan Downey in Philadelphia last week.

Fred Fulton, Minnesota heavyweight, got his famous haymaker working at Philadelphia last night and knocked out Jim Holland, Baltimore, in the sixth round of a scheduled eight-round bout. Fulton floored Holland four times in the first round, but the Baltimorean came back strong in the second round and was on even terms until the knockout blow, a left hook to the jaw.

Jim Palmer, Philadelphia, won from Mickey Walker, Newark, N. J., on a foul in the fifth round.

Eddie O'Dowd won the decision over Willie Spencer, New York, in a 12-round bout at Columbus, Ohio, last night.

The 10-round bout between Benny Leonard, lightweight champion, and Johnny Dundee, scheduled for March 27 at Milwaukee, has been postponed until late in April. It was announced from New York today. Postponement is said to be due to inability to obtain a permit for a March 27 bout, as another fight is scheduled near the Mulkern arena for that date.

TIGER ROOKIE LOOKS LIKE REAL STAR

BY BILLY EVANS

Is the name of Johnson destined to shine in American league circles even after the passing of the great Walter?

The pitcher who bids fair to uphold the prestige of the name is Sylvester Johnson, a Detroit recruit. It's a big task, but many experts believe the youngster can do it.

During the winter I received letters from several umpires who have worked behind Johnson. All of them agree that Johnson is ready for the majors.

One of them was very strong in his praise for the Tiger recruit. "Johnson is a big leaguer right now" is the way he put it. "He ought to be able to step right in and take his regular turn. What is more, with a club like Detroit behind him, he should win at least 60 per cent. of his games."

During one of the major league meetings I had a talk with Duffy Lewis. In his day as a big leaguer Duffy could sway with the best of them. In the Coast league Lewis led that organization at bat with a mark better than .400. That is the first time such a thing has ever happened in the Coast league.

If there was one style of pitching that Lewis liked it was the fast ball pitcher. A sweeping hook bothered Duffy, but a fast ball was made to order for him, and the faster the better. Detroit had announced the purchase of Pillette and Johnson. I asked Lewis what he thought about them.

Made Lewis Pop 'Em Up

"They are great prospects," he replied "Both of them have a great fast ball. You know I always could hit a fast ball. Well, those two birds had me popping the ball in the air all the season."

That statement struck me as quite a compliment, coming from a player known as a fast ball hitter. It would seem to mean that both these young men have something on the fast ball.

Sam Crawford, one of the greatest hitters in the history of the game is now playing in the Coast league. Last year he batted against the pair many times. Here is what he says about Johnson:

"That Johnson has one of those happy fast balls, much like the one Walter had when he came to the American league. It is a tough ball to hit. He also has plenty of other stuff and should develop into one of the very best pitchers in the majors."

SPORT FLASHES FROM SOUTHERN CAMPS

Pitching, as in past years, is going to decide the issue in the major leagues.

That is why pitching receives so much attention in the gentle spring. That is why major league magnates send their battery men south a couple of weeks ahead of the rest of the squad.

The New York Giants won the World's Series because the fine pitching of the National leaguers was too much for the sluggers from the American league.

The pitching of the New York Americans did not suffer in comparison. The Yankee twirlers were almost as effective as the Giants' pitchers.

The breaks favored the Giants and the breaks decided the result. In some of the cases the break was old Timely Hit Himself.

I never umpired or watched a World's Series that featured better pitching than the 1921 clash. On the side of the Giants it was Nehf, Douglas and Barnes, while the Yankees had only two aces, Mays and Hoyt.

Never in my life have I seen a better curve ball than Barnes used in the series. It fairly snapped. Curve ball pitching of the style used by Barnes is most troublesome to a free swinging club like the Yankees. Douglas, on the other hand, crossed the Yankees by using a curve instead of the spitter as generally expected.

Cleveland failed to repeat in the American league last year because of lack of consistent pitching. If Jim Bagby and Walter Mails are able to win say 40 games between them in 1922 the Indians are going to be very much in the running.

Despite the fact that every club has an army of pitchers in the south, tales floating northward about second Johnsons and Alexanders have been few and far between. Possibly the recruit pitchers are not going to startle the baseball world.

In speaking of Johnson every player and umpire who has seen him in action lays stress on his fast ball.

After all, the fast ball is the thing. So it looks as if the name of Johnson is to continue to shine in American league pitching circles.

Any number of stories about infielders, outfielders and catchers have been spread broadcast. A good many have been picked to stick beyond a doubt. But so far no one seems to enthuse to any great extent over the pitching possibilities of the rookies.

VICTORY FOR C. Y. M. L.

Y. M. C. I. "Victory Parade" Halted in Fast Game—Score 26 to 12

The C.Y.M.L. team halted the victorious sweep of the Y.M.C.I. last night at the Crescent rink and won the third game of the seven-game series by the score of 26 to 12.

The game was more open than the previous clashes between these two outfits, and the fact that less holding and wrestling occurred gave the lyceum quintet an opportunity to display their famous teamwork, and the victory was accomplished mainly because of this fact.

The result came as a surprise to all but the C.Y.M.L. players and their rooters. They felt all along that once the old combination got working, the picture would change. Their confidence was justified soon after the game got underway.

Eight points right off the reel for the lyceum gave them confidence and a feeling that the "worm had turned," and with such an auspicious start they played on at a winning gait and their superior work could have but one result.

The Y.M.C.I. team after winning the first two felt there was "nothing to it," and even after the bad start, the players had hopes of coming back in the later stages and landing on top. But they did not seem to have the "pep," so characteristic of their previous endeavors, and while they rallied in the second session, the rival aggregation met them at every turn and refused to be denied.

Roddy Martin and Phil Flynn, the lyceum heavyweights, were the stars of the game, the former getting five baskets and the latter four, two of which were on long shots.

Harry Gisaheen refereed the game. He put in a busy evening, but kept the play opened up all the way, and his work met with general satisfaction. He called 34 fouls, 18 on the Y.M.C.I. and 16 on the C.Y.M.L. The lineup:

C.Y.M.L.		Y.M.C.I.
Keyes, Martin, lf		rb, McGowan, Adams, Low
Foley, rf		lb, Pepper, Lew
Allen, c		c, Lane, Adams
Martin, Randall, lb		rf, Keenan
Flynn, rb		lf, Grant, O'Connor

Summary: Goals—Allen 1, Foley 1, Keenan 3, Foley 1, Martin 5, O'Connor 1. Fouls—C.Y.M.L. 16, Y.M.C.I. 18. Referee—Gisaheen.

Sacred Hearts Win

In the preliminary game of an elimination series to decide which of three teams will be the challenger of the winner of the St. Anne's-St. Patrick's series, the Sacred Hearts defeated the Broadways by the score of 20 to 7. The lineups were as follows:

SACRED HEARTS		BROADWAYS
Foley, lf		rb, J. O'Connor
Maguire, rf		lb, Manning
Harrington, c		c, C. O'Connor
McDonald, rb		lf, Rogers
S. Sheehan, lb		rb, Knefo

Much interest is being shown in the visit here on next Friday night of the famous Germantown team of Clinton, Mass. The team has set up a fine record this season and points to a 14 to 11 victory over Lew's Lowell Five as one of its accomplishments.

The move to bring the Clinton outfit here to meet Lew's team is due to the fact that a team was sought that would give the local man's star aggregation a contest. In two games already played here by Lew's club, the ready played here by Lew's club, the opposition in both instances proved easy picking. First the Lawrence military team and then the Pere Marquette club. The Lowell five set both down without much effort and fans began to regard the outfit as invincible. After looking over the season's record it was discovered that the Clinton team had "set 'em back" and negotiations were immediately opened to bring the clubs together.

The Clinton lineup will include Strunz, Valles and Pittroff forwards, Dietel center, Baer and Braunhardt, guards and Schmider, substitute. Lowell Five will have Arthur and Richard Ryan, Mulvanity, Wing, Winn Keenan and Lew.

Fans throughout the city are still talking about the great amateur games between St. Anne's and St. Patrick's teams, and now with each having won one apiece, indications point to the third contest being one of the greatest on record. Already plans are underway for meetings of the rival rooters and many new cheers are expected to feature the final clash.

Ruth Yankee "Cop"

NEW YORK, March 15.—Just when New York fans of American league persuasion were sitting back and sighing contentedly over their team's lineup, they learned today that Bobby Roth, one of Miller Huggins' outfielders, had been off the reservation and had been indefinitely suspended by the mite manager. To balance this news, it was learned that George Herman Ruth would act as field boss of the Yankees during the coming season. Ruth has been playing in the outer works, but has aspired to cavort around first base, and his appointment as field marshal may give him a chance to come in closer to the umpires some time during the ensuing campaign.

John McGraw's Giants are suffering acutely from sunburn down at San Antonio, and Cecil Causey has followed John Rawlings to the hospital for treatment. The Giants ran a marathon against the Camp Travis team yesterday, scoring 15 runs, while the soldiers were amassing a single tally. Brooklyn's entry for the National league stakes has been reinforced by the acquisition of George Whitted from Pittsburgh. Burleigh Grimes' contract is still unsigned.

The ball this year, according to several of the Yankees, is not as lively as last season and home runs will not be as cheap as they were in 1921. Everett Scott, the new shortstop, said the ball does not come down to short as fast as last season. Only two balls have been hit over the fence so far, both in the batting sessions and the two exhibition games with the Pelicans. Willinger hit one over the left field fence in practice and Ruth one over the centrefield wall.

Philly Teams in Action

PHILADELPHIA, March 15.—Both the Phillies and Athletics were in action yesterday at their training camps at Leesburg, Fla., and Eagle Pass, Tex. The American leaguers had a family game, the Hawks defeating the Owls 19 to 7, while the Phillies trounced the Leesburg team, 17 to 2.

Ruth Halts Indians

CLEVELAND, March 15.—The Cleveland Indians were forced by bad weather into another day of idleness, except for a short workout chasing flies and playing catch yesterday, according to advices received from Dallas.

Cobb Orders Long Session

DETROIT, March 15.—A harder practice session than usual was on the Detroit Americans' progam at Augusta, Ga., today, Manager Cobb wishing to make up for time lost yesterday when the team knocked off early to be the guests, along with Baseball Commissioner Landis, at a Rotary club barbecue.

White Sox vs. Giants

CHICAGO, March 15.—The Chicago Americans and World Champion Giants faced their third meeting of the spring exhibition series today, the scene of hostilities having been shifted from San Antonio to Seguin, Tex., the training camp of the American leaguers.

The Chicago Cubs, who have been working from dawn to dusk, were put through another hard drill yesterday at their Catalina Island, Cal., training camp.

TUFTS TRACK SCHEDULE

MEDFORD, March 15—Six meets, including two intercollegiate competitions are on the schedule of the Tufts college track team, announced yesterday. The dates follow:

April 29, New Hampshire college at Durham.

May 10, Boston university at Medford.

May 13, Eastern Intercollegiates at Springfield.

May 16, Northeastern college at Medford.

May 19-20, New England Intercollegiates at Worcester.

June 3, Massachusetts Aggies at Amherst.

THREE BOXERS SUSPENDED

NEW YORK, March 14.—The New York state boxing commission yesterday announced the suspension of three boxers. K. O. Laughlin and Ralph Schappert were suspended for 30 days from March 13 for an unsatisfactory contest at the College City Athletic club, Troy, on that date, and Jimmie Mark for 30 days for failure to fulfill a contract with Ridgewood Grove Sporting club on March 1.

PIRATES SELL WHITTED

PITTSBURGH, March 15.—The Pittsburgh National league baseball club yesterday announced that George H. Whitted, outfielder, has been sold to the Brooklyn club for the waiver price of $2500.

Swift meteors, become visible at an average height of 81 miles and disappear at 56 miles.

Star Infielder Arrives at Hot Springs—Hopes to Make Good at Shortstop

Boechel and Watson Only Missing Braves—Cooney a Versatile Player

Roth Suspended and Ruth Made Captain of New York Yankees

BOSTON, Mar. 15.—Joe Dugan, former third baseman for the Athletics, is happy over the prospects of being shortstop for the Red Sox. Arriving with Al Waters, catcher, at the Red Sox training camp at Hot Springs, Ark., Dugan said he was still a bit weak after his recent illness but ready to go out and do his best to make good in the new position, filling the gap left by the transfer of Everett Scott. Walters was in good shape and ready to join the squad in practice today. Rain continues to hamper workouts at Hot Springs, however, and there was no assurance of a full day's work.

With the exception of Boeckel and Watson, the Braves' team is complete at St. Petersburg, Fla. Manager Mitchell was reported to be in a quandary over what to do with John Cooney. The lad pitches well with his left hand, makes difficult stops and throws in the infield, and dazzling one-hand catches as an outfielder. Cooney's father played on "Pop" Anson's Chicago team, and the Braves call him a "ball hawk," good at any position. Mitchell plans to have the first practice game between the Regulars and second team tomorrow.

LOWELL DRIVING CLUB

All Holidays Decided Upon as Racing Dates—Other Club Notes

All holidays were decided upon as racing dates at last night's meeting of the Lowell Driving club and Agricultural Society, Inc., held in the club rooms. It was voted that all 1922 memberships would be entitled to admission, with lady, to all events.

The following were elected to membership: Frank J. Sherwood, Harvey B. Greene, Frederick Harrington, Worcester; Charles Stacey, Manlnug. Officials of the club expressed the hope that every business man in the city would join the club and help boost this popular sport.

Herbert A. Rugg was appointed a committee of one to obtain information in regard to the local club joining the junior league of amateur driving clubs. The junior league is to be entertained by the Boston Driving club on the Charles River speedway some time this coming summer.

It was announced that work of laying a water pipe from Chelmsford street to the track so that the oval will be well watered during the coming season is underway.

During the hobnobbing of the meeting the subject of two-minute trotters was brought up. One of the members submitted a clipping from a horseman's magazine, which contained the following list. It is singular to note that Uhlan, whose name heads the list, is practically a Lowell product, having been goaled in Bedford, a town a few miles south of Billerica.

The complete list is as follows: Uhlan, bg, 1.58 record at 8 years old; Lee Axworthy, bh, 1.58¾ record at 5 years old; Lou Dillon, chm, 1.58½ record at 5 years old; Arion Guy, bc, 1.59¼ record at 3 years old; Major Delmar, bg, 1.59¾ record at 6 years old; Peter Manning, bg, 1.57¾ record at 5 years old.

BRITTON HAS GREAT RECORD

Britton is the only holder of a fight title who has never been knocked out. Britton has lost decisions, had his back on the rosin, but he has never failed to get up before the count of ten.

Benny Leonard, holder of the lightweight title, has twice been knocked out. In his first year as a professional, 1912, Joe Shugrue stopped him in four rounds. The following year Frankie Fleming knocked him out in the same number of rounds.

Johnny Dundee, holder of the junior lightweight title, was kayoed in the first round of his fight with Willie Jackson in 1917.

Jimmy Wilde, holder of the world's flyweight title, went out of his class to meet Pete Herman and was out on his feet when they stopped the bout.

Georges Carpentier, holder of the world's light heavyweight championship, has been the most knocked out of all champs. He has taken the count three times.

Johnny Kilbane went out of his class to meet Lightweight Champion Benny Leonard and lasted only three rounds.

Jim Flynn once knocked out Jack Dempsey. That was when Dempsey was an unknown. It is claimed Jack purposely picked out a soft spot.

All of Cleveland is convinced that Ryan Downey knocked out Middleweight Champion Johnny Wilson, not once, but three times, in their bout in that city.

SUNDAY GOLF MOOT QUESTION FOR YEARS

CHICAGO, March 15.—That Sunday golf has been a moot question since the game was youthful, is shown by the researches of a student of the game's history, and golf has been played in its present form probably longer than any other competitive sport.

Many scoldings by preachers, public condemnations by magistrates and even fines by judges have been uncovered from the lore of Scotland, but also an antique writer of the native heath of golf has recorded that no less strict a teacher than John Knox was not opposed to golf during the afternoon of the Sabbath.

Back in the 16th century, however, there was entered in the records of the kirk of Tyninghame that certain gowff on the Sabbothe and they promelslet not to use any pastymo on yo Sabbothe."

McGraw Likes Big Pitchers

Manager John McGraw of the New York Giants is very partial to big pitchers.

If a bush league heavier is a six-footer he always has a better chance of getting a real tryout with the Giants.

Three rokies who hope to stick with the Giants are George Stanton, a southpaw, who is 6 feet 5 inches; McGloughlin, who is more perpendicular, measuring 6 feet 6 1-2 inches, and Claude Jonnard, who is the midget of the trio, although he is 6 feet 1 inch.

Billy Evans Says

Perhaps 15 years ago Connie Mack originated the idea of holding a meeting before each game. The object was to talk over the weakness or strength of the opposition.

Mack's baseball idea was more or less a slight change in a football custom that has been in vogue for years. As long as one can remember it has been the policy of football coaches to talk to their elevens before and between halves.

For years Mack was the only major league leader to use the daily conference idea. Now it is a part of the routine of every major league club and a number of minors.

Ball players refer to these conferences as "skull practice." At these meetings the mistakes of the previous games are discussed. Incidentally plans are made for winning the afternoon's game.

"Dode" Rush, formerly of Detroit, now with Washington, always used to say that at these meetings the players learned how to make runs without base hits. Often players say it is a meeting held to arrange details as to how the game should be played, and then have the players do the opposite when they get on the field.

While these meetings are held to discuss everything in a serious vein it is only natural that something humorous should crop out every now and then to afford a bit of amusement. In this connection I recall an experience that I heard Lefty Leifeld relate last fall.

It seems Manager Fohl, aside from the routine business, would every now and then spring some stuff on the recruits relative to the rules and the like. Leifeld was appointed instructor to the recruits.

According to "Lefty," each evening he would look up a dozen questions in the rule book, set the answers down in black and white, and the next day, paper in hand, would be ready to spring the questions.

In the spring of the year Bill Gleason was playing second base for the Browns. One day Leifeld picked on Gleason thusly:

"Say, Bill, what is the distance from the home plate to second by a direct line through the pitcher's box?"

Gleason didn't know the exact figure, but rather than confess his ignorance of the question, replied:

"How should I know. I never run that way. It is customary for me to touch first on the way to second."

That broke up the meeting for the day.

BOWLING

The result of last evening's match in the big bowling tournament started in this city among the various leagues, was as follows:

Lawrence Mfg. Co., 5684 and Baraca league, 5526.

Lowell Textile, 5723 and Bay State 5362.

Y.M.C.I., 5480 and Mass. Mill 5587.

Bridge street, 5476 and Waterhead, 5564.

DEMPSEY TO HUNT DEER IN MAINE

PORTLAND, Me., March 15.—Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion, is to hunt deer in Maine next fall. He has accepted an invitation to be the guest of Walter Hinds of this city at his camp at Oxbow, 45 miles northwest of Houlton, in Aroostook county, and will be accompanied by Jack Kearns, his manager, and a few friends. The party plans to reach here on October 1, the opening day of the deer hunting season.

LYNCH WINS FROM MARTIN

PROVIDENCE, March 15.—When Referee Phil Powers of Boston gave Joe Lynch of New York, ex-bantamweight champion, the decision after a terrific 12-round battle with Terry Martin of this city yesterday evening the crowd showed its dissatisfaction by staging a near-riot.

Police escorted the referee from the ring.

Martin scored a knockdown in the initial session and, in the opinion of local newspapermen, carried seven of the 12 rounds.

In the semi-final Billy Harmon of Boston won from Jimmy Kirke of New York, when the referee stopped the fight in the eighth round. Harmon won all the way.

LONGMEADOW GOLF CLUB

The annual meeting of the Longmeadow Golf club was held late yesterday afternoon at the Washington club. The following officers were elected: President, Gen. Adelbert Ames; vice president, Charles L. Marren; secretary, John J. Flaherty; treasurer, George H. Hart; directors, John M. O'Donoghue and William C. Purcell.

Anti-Ku Klux Klan Organization

HEALDTON, Okla., March 15.—An anti-Ku Klux Klan organization, known as the Knights of the Visible Empire, has been formed here. John Q. Hyde, an attorney and one of the organizers, announced in a statement today that the purpose of the society, "is to protest against mob rule as exemplified in the teachings of the Ku Klux Klan."

Tornado Death Toll Stands at 24

NEW ORLEANS, March 15.—The death toll from the series of tornadoes and cyclones that struck various points in Louisiana, Mississippi, Arkansas and Oklahoma, Monday and early yesterday, stood today at 24. At least 89 persons were injured. Property damage was estimated at several hundred thousand dollars.

Ship Sold Prior to Date Set for Bids

WASHINGTON, March 15.—Secretary Denby told the house naval committee today that the steamship Great Northern, formerly the flagship Columbia of the Atlantic fleet, was sold by the shipping board prior to the date set for opening of bids, but with the distinct understanding that any bidder offering more than the sale price, would get the ship.

Oppose Commission to End Coal Dispute

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 15.—(By the Associated Press)—Disapproval of the appointment of a governmental commission to effect a settlement of the threatened coal strike April 1, was expressed in a telegram sent Sertary of Labor Davis by President Frank Farrington of the Illinois mine workers at noon today.

Leather-Pushing Prince Is Spending $130,000 a Year

By EDWARD M. THIERRY

NEW YORK, March 15.—Roaming across the United States in a racing automobile is a sure-enough prince scattering dollar bills. He's Prince Mohamed Ali Ibrahim, nephew of the Sultan of Egypt, and his income is a mere $200,000 a year.

With him is his social secretary, Louis "Blink" McCloskey, pugilist and former Philadelphia newsboy, who landed his secretarial job by knocking out his predecessor. The prince himself is a leather-pusher of parts.

"I teach him boxing and help him spend his roll," says Blink.

"Ah, but I do not spend it all," smiled the prince. "I save money. Ne c'est pas, Blink?"

"Oui, Monsieur. You bet," said "Blink," who speaks French with a Philadelphia accent.

"How much do you spend a year?" the prince was asked.

"Oh, only about 30,000 pounds," he said, carelessly. "I put the rest away. Some day it may rain."

Pause for mathematical calculation: That's $130,000 spending money, at present exchange rates.

How does he spend it? The prince shrugged his tailored shoulders. Traveling, clothes, automobiles, petrol, cigarets and what not—one has difficulty keeping track of such things.

He isn't married—and swears he isn't going to be. "Wives," he says, "are too expensive."

The prince admitted a fondness for the movies. His favorite actresses are Pearl White and Mary Miles Minter. He's going to take a house at Hollywood for a few weeks before he returns to Egypt three months hence.

"I want to see for myself," he explained, "if Hollywood beats Paris and Cairo."

LAUNCH NEW SCHOONER

Puritan Hopes to Represent U. S. in Championship Races in Fall

ESSEX, March 15.—The schooner Puritan, which will fish out of Gloucester and in the fall will contend for the honor of challenging for the international fishing vessel championship trophy, was launched here today. A product of the same designer and the same builders that shaped the Mayflower, which was barred from the races last year, the Puritan took the water from the same ways.

She was christened by Miss May Adams of Gloucester, a niece of Captain Benheim, managing owner of the Manta club syndicate that is financing her, in the presence of several hundred persons. Most of the gathering was from Gloucester, among them several skippers who have been members of racing schooner crews. They commented on the Puritan's trim appearance.

The new schooner is somewhat smaller than the Mayflower, 139 feet overall and 106 feet on the waterline, 29.6 feet wide, and with a 12-foot depth of hold.

She was taken in tow at once for Gloucester, there to take on sail and to be further equipped for the fisheries on which she will start within a month.

"WAR" IN KENTUCKY

Protest to Governor Against Troops Using Armored Tanks and Machine Guns

NEW YORK, March 15.—Charges that state troops were using armored tanks and machine guns in Newport, Ky., "in a fashion which suggests enemy occupation of a country in time of war," were made today in a letter of protest to Gov. Morrow of Kentucky from the American Civil Liberties union.

The troops were called out to preserve order in connection with a strike of rolling mill employes.

SUDDEN DEATH OF FORMER LOWELL MAN

The many friends of Charles H. Joyce, a former well known Lowell business man, will be pained to learn of his death which occurred at sea while he was en route to New York.

Deceased was in business here for many years, his last place of business being in Middle street. He was born in this city and lived here up to within a few years ago. He had been ailing for some time and while it was known that he had not long to live, yet it was not expected that he would pass away so suddenly. The body has been removed to his late home in Watertown.

Deceased is survived by his wife, Regina Dalton Joyce, and one daughter, Alice, of Watertown; his mother, Mrs. Ellen T. Joyce, and five sisters, Mary, a teacher in the high school, Rose, Anna, Jane and Alice, all of Lowell.

MURDER OF CIRCUS MAN

Sister of Victim Said to Have Received Letter From Brother Telling of Threats

RIVERSIDE, N. J., March 15.—Burlington county authorities today were in possession of a letter said to have been written to his sister by John T. Brunen, circus proprietor, slain at his home last Frday, in which he told of an attempt on his life by his wife Mrs. Doris Brunen, and of his intention of making a will cutting her off with one dollar. He expressed belief that he was being "framed by his own household."

Prosecutor Jonathan Kelsey said one arrest and "possibly more" would be made today.

Brunen furnished Ellis Parker, Burlington county detective, with a long list of persons he believed were planning his death two months before he was slain, Parker said today.

GOLD CERTIFICATES WITHOUT DEMAND

WASHINGTON, March 15—Issuance of gold certificates without demand, discontinued in 1917, was resumed today by the treasury.

Gold certificates have always been available upon demand but during the war silver certificates were issued on ordinary checks. Resumption of the ordinary use of gold certificates was said by treasury officials to remove the last artificial currency situation growing out of the war and to indicate a return to normal conditions.

The treasury now holds approximately $3,000,000,000 in gold and it was said there is now no reason why gold certificates should not be freely available.

Steward Pays Liquor Fine

Continued

$100. An appeal was taken through counsel. The men were arrested by Officer John W. Mahan, who does duty in a local theatre.

Testimony given showed that Gigure, while in the navy, purchased the pictures in Italy and Greece. He showed some of them to Christos in the theatre. Christos, in turn, showed the pictures to Officer Mahan. The officer claimed that he had reason to believe there were more pictures in the set and did nothing about the matter at that time. A few days later he requested Christos to get the pictures for him. Christos got the pictures, more than 20 in number, and gave them to Mahan. The arrests followed. The court ruled that Christos was guilty of no offense but he was satisfied that Gigure was guilty. The smallest fine allowed by the law was imposed.

New Yorkers Arraigned

Robert P. Cooney and Joseph Lamar, who gave residences as New York city, were charged with larceny of $20 worth of shirts. The government requested a continuance which was granted. The date set for trial was March 25. Each was held in bonds of $300.

George Newell, who conducted a store at 20 Pearl street, pleaded not guilty to a charge of illegal keeping of liquor. His case was continued until March 25. Members of the liquor and vice squad raided the place yesterday afternoon. They found the store empty, but in a room above it six quarts of whiskey were found.

Feared Her Husband

Antonio B Pereisa was found guilty of drunkenness and sentenced to two months in the house of correction. His wife appeared against him and said that she was afraid he would kill her if he was not locked up.

The breaking and entering and larceny charges against Victor L. Kenna and Hugh Muldoon were filed. The men have been indicted already by the grand jury on other charges.

The larceny case involving William Reynolds, Herbert C. Lough and the disappearance of a large quantity of liquor from the Bay State storage company was continued until March 29 owing to the illness of a government witness.

PRESENT BONUS BILL TO HOUSE

WASHINGTON, March 15.—With but a single change from the form in which it was approved last week by the ways and means committee majority, the compromise soldiers' bonus bill was ready today for formal presentation to the house. It was approved late yesterday at a meeting of the entire committee, the vote being 19 to 5.

The amendment of Representative Andrew, republican, Massachusetts, proposing payment to the relatives of service men who died during the war or since, was not incorporated in the bill.

Speaker Gillett, before his departure for Florida with President Harding, told Chairman Fordney not to depend entirely upon a suspension of the rules as a means of getting the bonus bill before the house.

This was disclosed today by Mr. Fordney after his attention had been called to despatches from Palm beach. He explained that the bill could be taken up next Tuesday or later under a special rule and added that he was not opposed to full and free discussion on the floor.

"I am willing that the sunlight be turned on the bill," said the Michigan member, who will direct its course in the house.

Speaker Gillett is expected to spend several hours here Saturday en route to Springfield, Mass. where he will speak on Sunday before resuming his official duties and Mr. Fordney and other house leaders expect to confer with him at that time on the question of procedure.

Indications today were that the completed bill would not be presented to the house until tomorrow as the committee report will not be completed and printed before that time.

GERMAN REPARATIONS

Recognition by Other Governments of Rights of U. S. in Distribution Sought

WASHINGTON, March 15.—Recognition by other interested governments of the rights of the United States in connection with distribution of German reparations was all that was sought at this time in the recent demand upon the allied finance ministers for payment of $241,000,000 expenses of the American Army of Occupation, it was stated today by a high administration official.

Having "established its case," it was said, the United States will not press further now its demands for payment of the bill.

IGNORED ORDER AGAINST MASS PICKETING

PAWTUCKET, R. I., March 15.—Several hundred strikers were on picket duty during the noon hour today at the Jenckes Spinning Co.'s plant despite the order of Sheriff Andrews against mass picketing. They marched in couples 105 feet apart outside the plant. The militia were on duty but did not interfere. No deputy sheriffs or policemen put in an appearance.

Antonio Santos was fined $10 and costs in the district court today on the charge of revelling. The police claimed that he interfered with two girls who were on their way to work in the Tamarack mill which is crippled by the strike.

STRIKE MAY INCLUDE GARMENT WORKERS

PROVIDENCE, R. I., March 15.—In the course of a speech before a mass meeting in Pawtucket at noon today President McMahon of the United Textile Workers said he would hold a conference in New York next week with Benjamin Schlesinger, International president of the United Garment Workers of America, on the question of calling out on strike all garment workers in his organization who may be called upon to handle cloth manufactured in mills in Rhode Island and elsewhere in New England where strikes are now in progress.

BOMB EXPLODED IN HOME OF CHICAGO ALDERMAN

CHICAGO, March 15.—The "gold coast" was shaken to its foundations last night by a bomb exploded at the home of Alderman Charles J. Agnew.

The front of the Agnew home, which is just off Lake Shore Drive, was wrecked by the blast and windows in homes for a block around shattered. Mrs. Agnew was blown from bed by the force of the explosion.

No cause for the outrage was known.

PERSHING OPPOSES DRASTIC REDUCTION

WASHINGTON, March 15. (By Associated Press.)—House appropriation committee proposals to cut the regular army to 115,000 enlisted men and 11,000 officers, aroused Gen. Pershing yesterday to a renewed declaration that the whole national defense project put through in 1920 would be imperilled if the slash recommended was made by congress.

Success of that "sound military policy and system of national defense," he said in a statement to the Associated Press, depended upon adequate provision for the military establishment.

"It appears now, due to the demands for economy in our national expenditures, another critical hour for the army and national defense is at hand," he said.

Referring to "the frequent slashes" in army strength made by congress since the war, Gen. Pershing said a "vacillating course" with respect to army personnel discouraged competent men from entering the service and lowered the morale and efficiency within the army until it was "difficult if not

STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, March 15.—The increased firmness of foreign exchanges prompted further covering of short contracts at the opening of today's stock market. Railway shares, the stabilizing feature of the previous day, were again the strongest issues, although gains were limited to fractions. Oils showed firmness, but motors were irregular. Norfolk & Western's decline of a half a point, was the only reflection of the impending coal strike. Among specialties, Kelsey Wheel was most prominent, rising 2¼ points on the company's excellent annual report.

Trading was active and broad during the morning, almost 350,000 shares changing hands in the first hour. Cast Iron Pipe was another stock to profit by its fairly good statement of earnings. Utilities extended recent gains, especially Consolidated Gas, People's Gas and Public Service of New Jersey. Mercantile Marine pfd., rose 1⅝ points and gains ranging from fractions to one point were made by Harvester, Gulf States Steel Bethlehem Steel, Beet Heaviness was shown by Mexican Petroleum and Famous Players which lost one and two points respectively. Call money opened at 4 per cent.

Shippings, independent steels, coppers and foreign oils were most active and strong at midday, but Cast Iron Pipe reacted 2 points on realizing sales. Famous Players was under increased pressure, however, losing 3¼ points and Great Northern and Northern Pacific were fractionary.

High grade rails, particularly Great Northern and Northern Pacific, broke sharply later. Oils, motors, equipments and steels also were 1 to 3 points under forenoon prices. The closing was heavy.

Member of Legislative Committee to Try Charges Against Justice Pierce

BOSTON, March 15.—The legislative committee that will constitute the court to try charges brought against Justice Edward Pierce of the supreme court as reason for his removal from the bench, was completed today.

The seven house members will be: E. G. Norman and M. J. Fitzgerald of Worcester; R. H. Coolidge, Medford; J. T. Potter, North Adams; H. B. White, Ayer; A. P. Richards, Plymouth; E. Adlow, Boston, and O. E. Brennan, Lowell. The senators named were: L. F. Hardy, Huntington; Lewis Parkhurst, Winchester; W. E. Monk, Waterlown.

STRIKERS SEND TRIBUTE

Express Sympathy for Agent Straw Over Loss of His Daughter

MANCHESTER, N. H., March 15.—Sympathy for an afflicted friend and former co-worker today overcame feelings of resentment caused by the textile strike when leaders of the operatives' group learned of the death of Josephine Straw, eight-year-old daughter of W. P. Straw, agent of the Amoskeag mills, who is directing the fight against the workers. The little girl died suddenly last evening after an attack of appendicitis.

The strikers' board of strategy voted this morning to draw up a resolution of condolence for Mr. Straw and to accompany their message with a floral offering.

"Our fight is not a personal one, it is a matter of business," union officials said.

BRIEF BUT IMPORTANT WIRE DESPATCHES

WASHINGTON, March 15.—Objection to increasing the membership of the federal reserve board, with a view to giving agricultural interests representation as proposed in a bill passed by the senate, was voiced today by Secretary Mellon at a hearing before the house banking committee.

NEW YORK, March 15.—J. P. Capablanca, world's chess champion, sailed today for Europe. He will compete in the international tournament in London next July after preliminary exhibitions in France and Spain.

NEW YORK, March 15.—Gale H. Carter was elected president of the Pacific Mail Steamship Co., today succeeding George J. Baldwin, who was elected to the newly created office of chairman of the board.

SEATTLE, Wash., March 15.—Hereafter each shipping board passenger liner leaving this port will carry 25 Bibles and 25 Hymnals. The steamer Bay State was the first vessel to be supplied.

NEW YORK, March 15.—The steamship St. Paul, once the fastest on the Atlantic, will quit the North river pier where she has lain since October, 1920, and resume her place as a first class passenger ship plying between New York and Hamburg, it was announced today by the International Mercantile Marine.

LOWELL OFFICER IN LAWRENCE SEIZURE

Prohibition Enforcement Officer Bowers took a flying trip to Lawrence this noon and at the head of a party from the Lawrence vice and liquor squad made a successful raid at 8 Fulton street, Carmilo Contarino, found on the premises, was arrested.

A 150 gallon still, two double condensers, two kerosene air tanks, a small quantity of shine and 27 barrels of 50 gallon capacity were found and broken up. Fred McEnaney, district claim agent for the Bay State storage, accompanied Officer Bowers and gleefully assisted in breaking up the equipment.

Officer Bowers received his call at 11.20, drove over in the machine and was back at 2 o'clock. The Lawrence raiding squad was led by Daniel Dwyer and composed of Officers Griffin, McDonald and Morrissey.

HELD IN $10,000 EACH

NEW YORK, March 15.—Joseph Gaylica, steel contractor, and James H. Fiske, city steel inspector of construction work on the American Theatre in Brooklyn, which collapsed last November and caused seven deaths, were arrested today, charged with manslaughter. They were held in $10,000 bail each for hearing on Saturday.

Daugherty Discusses Coal Strike Danger — Thinks Operators Erred

PALM BEACH, Fla., March 15. (By Associated Press.)—Disappointment over the refusal of operators in the bituminous coal industry to meet union miners in conference in an effort to write a new national wage contract was expressed yesterday by Atty Gen. Daugherty. At the same time he reminded all parties involved that the threatened strike is not a private matter, but involves the public, who look to the government for protection.

"I think it was a mistake on the part of the operators to hold out against a preliminary conference with the mine workers," Mr. Daugherty declared. "There is a contractural relation between the two interests. They agreed under terms of the 1920 scale agreement to meet and discuss a new scale. They ought to do so. And it is fair to remind them that the government itself is a party to this contract and therefore has a right to take a hand in the business . . .

"Also all parties involved might remember that the present dispute is not a private affair. The public is interested and its rights must be protected by the government as I think they will be insofar as may be possible."

Expressing the hope that the threatened strike would not take place, Mr. Daugherty said that "if it does, those immediately involved might remember that the country must not be left without the fuel necessary to maintain the transportation and essential industries."

VATICAN OFFICIALLY ANNOUNCES CHANGE

ROME, March 15—(By the Associated Press)—Official announcement was made from the Vatican today that Pope Pius had extended to 15 days, the interval to elapse between the death of a pope and the session of the Sacred College to elect his successor.

(Unofficial but authoritative announcement that such a decree would be issued, was made recently.)

BREWERY SEIZED

NEW YORK, March 15.—The Central Brewery was seized today by federal agents of alleged violation of the Volstead act. According to the complaint, the company brewed 4½ per cent beer to be sold in unlabelled bottles and distributed it in old sugar barrels.

"Greed for Diamonds Curse of Times"

NEW YORK, March 15.—"Greed for diamonds and furs is the curse of the times," Judge Louis D. Gibbs, of the Bronx county court declared today in suspending sentence on Saul Zuker, millinery dealer, who pleaded guilty to receiving stolen goods. "Modern woman, yes, a great majority of them," he said, "are using the dollar mark to steer their husbands into jail. Just as long as the men of the family bring home the money, no questions are asked."

ADMITS KILLING MAN

Cunningham Said by Police to Have Confessed Murder of Johnson

DEDHAM, March 15.—Taking of testimony began today in the trial of Caleb Loring Cunningham, wealthy East Milton resident, for the murder of John Johnson of West Quincy, on the night of Jan. 5, 1921. Assistant District Attorney George A. Adams said yesterday that Cunningham confessed to the police that he killed Johnson after he had surprised the latter cutting wood on the Cunningham estate.

Mrs. Eva M. Johnson, widow of the dead man, testified that after dinner on Jan. 5 her husband, carrying an axe, left home to go into the woods. She said that she did not see him again until his body was brought in that night by the police. Cunningham is said to have told the police that he shot Johnson after the latter had made a move toward his pocket. Poachers killed an uncle of the defendant 30 years ago.

Daniel Fitzgerald, Joseph L. Dillon, Herbert L. Johnson and John A. Grady, four boys of the neighborhood, who with a patrolman found the body, told of coming upon it beneath a pine tree on the estate at about 9.30 o'clock that night. After calling Medical Examiner Frederick E. Jones of Quincy, the boys said the body was carried to Johnson's home.

Dr. Jones testified that Johnson had been shot in the back and that the bullet had come out through the abdomen. He said that except for the wound and evidences of a previous affection in one lung the body was normal.

MEMORIAL AUDITORIUM

Mayor Brown Appoints Auditorium Custodian and Clerk of Records

Appointments said to have been made by Mayor Brown last week came to light today. Collin H. MacKenzie of 23 Mothuen street has been appointed custodian of the Memorial Auditorium, and Paul M. O'Dowd of 42 Mansur street has been appointed clerk of records for the building. The chances are, however, that these appointments are but temporary for the board of trustees to be named later to administer the affairs of the auditorium would, in all probability, want to select their own custodian and clerk of records.

SKATING RACE AT KASINO TONIGHT

Tonight at the Kasino Leo Burque will skate five miles, 80 laps, against Arthur White, of the Highland Daylights. Al. Nebes, the well known expert, has been training these skaters and says it is a tossup as to which will win. White is a good sprinter, but hasn't as good a plugging pace, while Burque has a long distance stride with plenty of speed. White, therefore, will have to depend upon his sprints to win and Burque will try to win by the wearing-out process. Burque won the three-mile race last week and finished rather weak but Nebes says it was only the nervous strain, as it was his first race. Burque, according to his trainer, will be in good shape tonight and will make the distance easily.

Lowell Ad Club

insisted on selling one thing, and fought to the bitter end to make the sale—the protection of his wonderful, beautiful France—and was successful. The little men of Nippon, said the speaker, were the most wonderful salesmen of all; they succeeded in selling our naval bases in the Pacific and retaining their own.

The major went on to pay a tribute to the soldiers of the great war and their officers as magnificent salesmen; the boys sold themselves into the belief that the cause was good and just and then sold their idea to the Germans, that one American doughboy was equal to four or five Germans. The speaker then related a series of anecdotes from his personal experience, each of which brought great applause because of its bearing on the naivete of the enlisted men, and the way in which they conducted themselves.

He exhorted the members to sell the city of Lowell to its residents, convincing them that it is the best city in the world. Nobody can do this better than an ad club, he said. Then they could sell other people from various angles; publicity, a "better business" bureau, in the formation of which the Boston ad men would be glad to cooperate, placing signs on outskirts of the city that everyone passing through would know the city's name, and many other minor efforts.

He paid a tribute to the Lowell newspapers, saying that they were of a splendid type. A city is judged by its newspapers, said the major, and the bigger and better they are the bigger and better becomes the city. He urged the merchants represented to patronize the newspapers, since advertising is the lifeblood of all trade.

Every member of the club should assume some responsibility, and do something for the good of the cause, said Major Swan. If the ad club works actively along this line they will sell Lowell as "the livest and best town in the best state and the best country in the world."

Prior to the meeting an excellent luncheon was served by Caterer M. A. Lydon and President Frank Rieard presided at the meeting which followed. Charles J. Keyes of The Sun led the assembly in singing "The Long, Long Trail."

Workman in a French iron works has been retired on a pension after continuous employment of 52 years.

U. S. LOAN TO AUSTRIA

Lodge Resolution to Extend Loan of $50,000,000 for 25 Years Adopted

WASHINGTON, March 15—The resolution of Senator Lodge, republican, Massachusetts, extending for 25 years the loan of $50,000,000 made to Austria for famine relief, was adopted unanimously today by the senate and sent to the house.

Extension of the loan as provided by the Lodge resolution has been urged recently by many American organizations. The resolution was approved unanimously today by the senate finance committee and unanimous consent given for its immediate consideration in the senate.

Senator Lodge told the senate that the Austrian government was without sufficient funds to operate and also pay the loan. Other nations which had joined in famine relief work he said, had promised also to extend their loans.

MAYOR OF GLOUCESTER MUST STAND TRIAL

GLOUCESTER, March 15.—Mayor trial today on the charge that he slandered the American race committee in his inaugural references to the manner in which the schooner Elsie was equipped to compete in the international fishing vessel championship series last fall. Judge Edward J. O'Brien of Lynn denied motions by counsel for the mayor that the declaration be amended, that the whole matter be dismissed and that a plea in abatement be accepted. He directed that the trial be held at an early date, to be determined shortly. The committee based its allegation on statements attributed to the mayor that the Elsie was equipped for the international race with a main boom longer than usual and with sails that elonged to another vessel.

LAST DAY FOR FILING FEDERAL TAX

Today is the last allowed under the federal law for the filing of the 1921 income tax returns. All day long the offices of the local deputies were crowded with those who have allowed their obligation to go until the last day. According to the schedule given out last week the local office will be open tonight until 8 o'clock.

STRANDED U. S. SHIP IS REFLOATED

HAMBURG, March 15.—The American steamer West Munham, which ran ashore off Helgoland last week while on her way to Russia with a cargo of corn for famine relief, was refloated last evening, and proceeded to the river Elbe in tow. The leakage caused by her grounding has been brought under control.

PETITION IN BANKRUPTCY

Dr. Finnegan has had posted in all schools a large chart, showing periods of exclusion from and time of readmission to public schools of pupils sick with a communicable disease and contacts in the same households.

Small pocket copies of the chart will be given to all school physicians and nurses and later on the same rules will be made to apply to private schools.

The diseases named on the chart are infantile paralysis, chicken pox, diphtheria, spinal meningitis, German measles, influenza, measles, mumps, scarlet fever, septic sore throat, smallpox, trachoma, typhoid fever, typhus fever and whooping cough.

The quarantine period for the patient prescribed by the health department, the length of time a patient is to be excluded from school and the treatment of contacts who are immune and not immune and general remarks are included on the chart, applying to each disease above mentioned.

The chart also states that readmission to schools of pupils and teachers excluded on account of communicable diseases is authorized only upon presentation of a certificate from the health department, through the director of school hygiene and signed by the school physician.

MORTGAGEE'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE

By virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by John G. Argiraklis, of Lowell, to the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, to the Middlesex Safe Deposit and Trust Company, a corporation having its place of business in said Lowell, dated February 12, 1916, and recorded in the Registry of Deeds for the Northern District of said County, Book 550, Page 35, will be sold at public auction for breach of the conditions of said mortgage deed on the premises hereinafter described on Tuesday, the fourth day of April, A. D. 1922, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed and therein described substantially as follows:

A tract of land, with the buildings thereon, situated in said Lowell, on the westerly side of Suffolk street, containing forty-two hundred ninety-one and 77-100 (4291.77) square feet of land, more or less, and thus bounded and described: Beginning at the southeasterly corner of the premises and at the northeasterly corner of land conveyed by the Proprietors of the Locks & Canals on Merrimack River to Samuel W. Brown by deed dated March 16, 1839; thence running westerly on land formerly of said Samuel W. Brown, eighty-six and 29-100 (86.29) feet; thence northerly at an angle of 77° 5' thirty-eight and 86-100 (38.86) feet to land conveyed by said Proprietors to Amasa Brown by deed dated January 14 1842; thence in a northerly direction three feet; thence easterly seventy (70) feet, more or less, to said street at the northeasterly corner of land conveyed by said Proprietors to Ephraim Andrews by deed dated September 11, 1839; thence southerly in a curved line on said Suffolk street sixty-two and 61-100 (62.61) feet; thence southerly on a straight line on said Suffolk street six and 77-100 (6.77) feet to the point of beginning. Being all and the same premises to said John G. Argiraklis conveyed by two deeds, one given by James F. Queenan, Executor and Trustee, and the other given by James F. Queenan and Walter F. Queenan, both dated May 13, 1911, and both recorded in said Registry, Book 467, Pages 214 and 215, and being all and the same premises to said John G. Argiraklis conveyed under the name of John Argirakis by two deeds, one given by Nicklas G. Orphanos, dated May 27, 1918, and recorded in said Registry, Book 520, Page 80, and one given by John Rabias dated August 24, 1915, and recorded in said Registry, Book 542, Page 493.

The above described premises will be sold and conveyed subject to any and all unpaid taxes, municipal or other assessments and tax sales which may be due or to become due thereon. The purchaser will be required to pay $300 in cash at the time and place of sale, and the balance in ten days from the day of sale at 12 o'clock noon at said Trust Company.

Up One Flight, Over Grant's

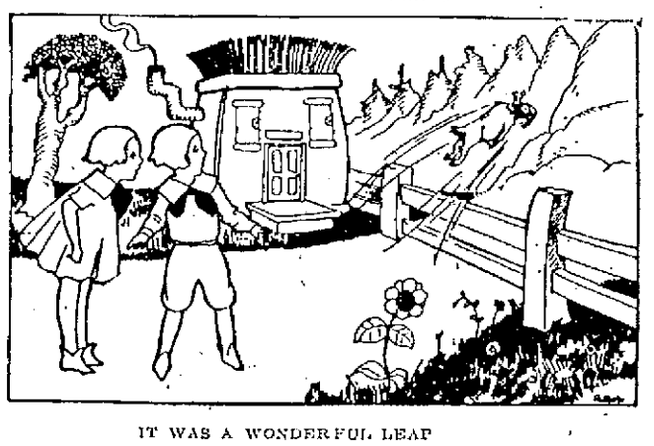

When you call you will see one good reason why we are here. An artist would call it The Precious North Light, from the three large windows of the wide frontage on Merrimack street. The great masters knew the value of a north light when they mixed the colors for those matchless gems that modern artists imitate, but never equal.

When you select the material for your dress or coat, come up one flight at 212 Merrimack Street, and get the benefit of a true north light and the largest line of fine woolens in Lowell, at prices that will prove to you that our business methods eliminate the middleman's profit. Truly,

Adventures of the Twins

THE GOAT DISAPPEARS

IT WAS A WONDERFUL LEAP

Onward went the little procession, Nancy first, then Nick, and last of all the goat carrying the basket with the chocolate cake.

At last they came to the first of the Seven mountains, but right at the foot of it a toll gate closed the road. The twins didn't know what a toll gate was; all they saw was a great wooden beam directly in their path, and they stopped to consider how they could get 'round it or over it or under it.

"I know a way," said the goat. "If you take the basket and set it on the other side I'll show you how."

All this time no one was in sight. A queer little house with a roof like a hairbrush squatted at the side of the road, but no one came out of it to help them. There was nothing to do but to take the goat's advice.

Nick took the basket and set it carefully on the other side of the gate. "Now watch me," said the goat. "Do just as I do. After we're over we can pick up the basket and climb the mountain. We ought to get to the top before sunset. We'll be safe there for I understand that from the top you can see the world like a map. I'm anxious to see where we are going, particularly the Princess Therma in her castle of mirrors. I intend to marry her."

"You!" cried Nancy and Nick.

"Ahem! Well, perhaps," answered the goat, who had forgotten that he was speaking aloud. "But I'll never marry anybody and neither will you if we stand here at this stupid place all day. Watch out everybody! Clear the track!"

The goat ran back a few steps, then turning, he lowered his head and gave a spring.

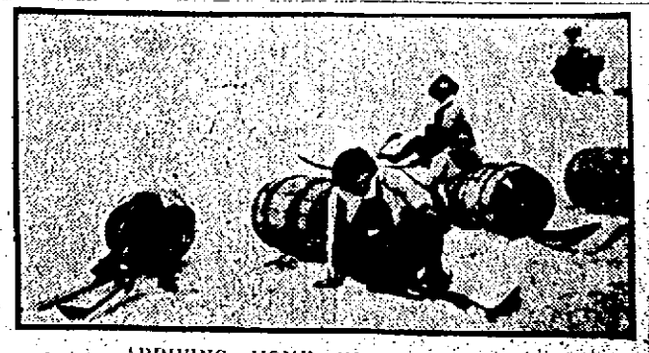

It was a wonderful leap, and he landed almost half way up the mountain. But lo and behold! The mountain, you know, my dears, was rubber and the goat bounced back. For miles and miles he went through the air like a black and white comet. Finally the twins lost sight of him, but he was still going.

FARMERS MEET IN BILLERICA CENTRE

There was a large gathering of men and women at the Farmers' Institute meeting, which was held today at the Billerica Centre Congregational church. The affair was held under the auspices of the Middlesex North Agricultural society and was successful in every way.

During the morning session, which opened at 10 o'clock there was an interesting discussion on "The Business of Farming." At noon an appetizing dinner was served in the vestry of the church by the Ladies' Aid society and at the close of the meal vocal selections were given by Miss Lolla Bull, while Miss Evelyn Spaulding gave interesting readings.

During the afternoon session, which opened at 2 o'clock there was a very instructive and interesting talk on "Books and Reading for the Home" by Miss E. Kathleen Jones, general secretary of the division of public libraries, department of education of Boston. It was announced that today's meeting will be the last this season.

REQUIEM MASSES

There will be an anniversary requiem mass at the Sacred Heart church Thursday morning at 8 o'clock for John Joseph O'Donnell, who lost his life on the U.S.S. Manley during the world war.

MR. AND MRS. B. O'DONNELL.

In loving memory of our late mother, Mrs. Annie T. McNamara, who died March 17, 1921. Sadly missed by her two sons, but not forgotten. There will be a mass of requiem Thursday morning at 8 o'clock at St. Michael's church for the repose of her soul.

AT THE TEXTILE SCHOOL

Interesting Talk on "Shoddy" by Representative of Springfield, Vt., Company

"Reworked Wools," more commonly known as "shoddy," was the subject of the sixth of a series of lectures on industrial problems connected with textiles given in the assembly hall of the Textile school before the student body yesterday afternoon by J. Waller Bliss of the John T. Slack Co., Springfield, Vt. The speaker was introduced by President Herbert Smith of the Lowell branch of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers. Mr. Bliss was accompanied by Edward A. Biggelow, L.T.S. '05, a trustee of the school, who is also associated with the Hopeville Manufacturing Co. of Worcester.

The speaker began with an explanation of the general misunderstanding in regard to shoddy, stating that but one-fifth of the wool needed to clothe people of cold climates is grown in the world, the other four-fifths must necessarily be made up of reworked wool.

The single wool fibre, from the original fleece to a suit of wool, was traced through its every stage by Mr. Bliss, who then explained the up to date method of reclaiming wool from rags. This operation may be performed six or seven times, according to the results of the experiments by the bureau of standards, in Washington, before the fibre finally becomes worn out and useless.

Specimens of various manufactured textiles were exhibited to prove that high-grad reworked wool may be the basis of very desirable fabrics, the display being under the care of P. M. Bloomfield, secretary of the Wool Fibre association of America. The specimens shown formed part of the exhibits at the recent Boston Textile exposition.

A motion picture, showing the manufacture of woolen and worsted fabrics, taken in the Textile school under the direction of the United States department of agriculture, was shown at the end of the lecture.

DEATHS

M'ALLISTER—The news of the death of Mrs. Emma E. McAllister, which occurred last evening at her home, 69 Warwick street, will cause much sorrow among her friends and throughout the community, as her husband, Melvin F. McAllister, died less than two weeks ago. At that time Mrs. McAllister was in good health and her brief illness followed by her death is tinged with a sadness that makes her passing one of sincere regret. Her age was 53 years 11 months and 7 days. She leaves one daughter, Elva M. McAllister, and three grandchildren, all of Lowell; one sister, Mrs. Addie V. Batcholder of Concord, N. H., and one brother, Benjamin F. Hall of Peterboro, N. H.

PERRY—Richard T. Perry, a well known resident of North Billerica, died last evening at his home, 16 Wilson street, after a long illness, at the age of 62 years. Mr. Perry was born at Ballardvale and had resided at North Billerica for the past 45 years. He took an active interest in town affairs, having served seven years as selectman. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Harriet A. Perry; three daughters, Mrs. Luke A. Woodbury, Mrs. J. Dana Richardson and Miss Marjorie Perry, also by two grandchildren, all of Billerica; two brothers, Job Perry of Lawrence and George H. Perry of Brookline, and two sisters, Mrs. A. B. Bladen of North Easton and Mrs. Matthew Kohlrausch of North Billerica. Mr. Perry was one of the oldest members of Thomas Talbot lodge, A. F. and A.M.

M'NAMARA — Thomas McNamara, for many years a resident of the Sacred Heart parish and an employe of the Waterhood mills, died yesterday at his home, 206 Moore street, after a brief illness, aged 55 years. He leaves his wife, Mrs. Margaret McNamara; one daughter, Mary A.; one son, Joseph D.; one sister, Mrs. Jane Noonan of England, and three brothers, James, Peter and John McNamara of England. He was a member of the Holy Name society of the Sacred Heart church, St. Vincent de Paul society, and the A.O.H.

WATSON—Mrs. Eugenie (Sarre) Watson died March 6, at the Picton hospital, Ontario, Canada, aged 45 years. She was the widow of Walter Watson, who died about a year ago. Mrs. Watson had been in failing health for some time. Her parents were born in France and came to Montreal years ago, and Mrs. Watson resided there until her marriage, after which she lived in Bloomfield. She leaves one daughter, Francis; four brothers, John H., Leon E., August P. and Louis Sarre, all of Lowell; two sisters, Mrs. Martin of Los Angeles, Cal., and Mrs. Rosenberg of Lowell. J. B. Sarre and Mrs. Rosenberg attended the funeral, which took place last Thursday in Bloomfield.

SLOAN—Mrs. Maude Sloan passed away early this morning at the age of 33 years. Her home was at 91 Vernon street. She is survived by her husband, Frank A. Sloan; two children, Frank, Jr., and Carol Sloan; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Butler, all of this city; two brothers, Claude Butler of Charlotte, North Carolina, and Ara Butler of Lowell; one sister, Mrs. Eva Slipp of Lowell. Mrs. Sloan was a member of the First Congregational church.

SMITH—Miss Sarah T. Smith, one of Lowell's oldest residents, died this morning at her home, 1 Marion street, aged 91 years, 11 months 9 days. Deceased was born in this city on April 6, 1830. She was one of the pioneer members of St. Patrick's church. Miss Smith leaves one nephew, Thomas E. Smith; three nieces, Mrs. Sarah Garvey, Miss Hannah M. Morris and Miss Mary I. Smith; fifteen grandnieces and nephews and four great grand-nieces and nephews.

CHAMPAGNE—Paul Champagne, a well known young resident of this city, died this morning at his home, 51 School street, after a lingering illness, aged 39 years. Deceased was born in this city and lived here all his life. For 10 years he was employed as a general foreman for Contractor William Drapeau. He leaves his wife, Mrs. Albertine (Desrosiers) Champagne; a foster daughter, Florette; his mother, Mrs. Marie (Molleur) Champagne, and a sister, Rev. Sister St. Joseph de Nazareth of the order of the Holy Family of Sherbrooke, Que. He was a member of Carpenters' union and Branch Pawtuckeville, A.C.F.

DEZIEL—Mrs. Emma (Houle) Deziel, wife of Gaspard Deziel and a resident of this city for 50 years, died last evening at the Lowell Corporation hospital, after a very short illness. She was 69 years of age. Besides her husband, she leaves one daughter, Marie Louise Deziel; one son, Rene Deziel; one sister, Mrs. Gustave Leclair, and two brothers, Philias and George Houle, all of Lowell. She was a member of St. Anne's sodality and the Third Order of St. Francis of St. Joseph's parish. The body was removed to her home, 524 Moody street, by Undertaker Joseph Albert.

SPECIAL MEETING

JAMES H. POWELL, Sec.

THE OLD HOME TOWN

LOCAL BARBERS ARE STILL ON STRIKE

Officials of the Journeymen's Barbers' union state that the present strike situation is practically unchanged, and their statement is fully corroborated by members of the master barbers' association.

National Organizer Merlino and Pres. Jordan of the local journeymen's union are doing some active work, visiting the various barber shops which at the present time do not bear the union label, preaching the gospel of organization and attempting to show the master barbers the benefits to be derived by co-operation with the union. They say that there are many of the shops now working under union conditions and are confident that others will fall in line.

One of the arguments frequently used by proprietors of non-union shops is that many men who are members of other unions still continue to patronize them. It is said, however, that the union, at some time in the near future, will take steps to acquaint the public with the status of various shops throughout the city, telling which employ union help and which are conducted on the open shop plan.

SWINDLING SOLDIERS' BENEFICIARIES

A communication, dealing with a scheme to swindle soldiers' beneficiaries, was read at last night's meeting of Chapter 6, American Disabled Veterans of the World War, held in Memorial hall with Commander Harry O'Sullivan in the chair. The communication was recently received from the association's headquarters and reads as follows: "It has been called to the attention of these headquarters that a concern styling itself the 'committee on war risk insurance beneficiaries" is apparently sending broadcast through the mail circular letters to all beneficiaries of term insurance, informing them that they propose to have congress introduce a bill whereby the treasury department shall issue bonds or certificates similar to Liberty bonds in coupon form of $57.60 each, to be turned over to such beneficiaries in order that they may have same cashed and receive the full amount of insurance due them. For such service they are requesting the beneficiary to remit $10 to defray expenses of same. Inasmuch as their proposition is next to an impossibility there can be no other purpose in the mind of the committee than to pick up easy money from the non-suspecting beneficiary. If this 'committee' does communicate with any of the members of your chapter kindly send the communication to the national headquarters."

A communication was also read from Miss May Gleason, supervisor of recreation of the Chelsea Naval hospital, in which she thanked the local chapter for the splendid show it recently put on in the hospital.

Reports from visiting committees were also read. It was announced that Commander O'Sullivan would go to Boston today to settle a number of claim difficulties.

BAND CONCERTS AND MOVING PICTURES

The Centralville Improvement association, at its meeting last night, discussed a number of innovations for the coming spring and summer and reviewed the winter's accomplishments.

Band concerts and moving pictures on a Centralville playground are two of the most important features of the work planned for this summer. The secretary was charged to get in communication with the mayor and see if band concerts in Centralville during the warm months can be arranged. The park board will be asked to provide the moving pictures and playground, the old Lakeview avenue baseball ground to be used in both instances.

A communication from the chamber of commerce, outlining plans for a zone committee, was read to the members. They were asked to name one of their number to serve on this new committee.

The establishment of a skating rink at the Greenhalge school during the winter was commented on favorably, after the committee in charge reported last night that not a single accident or drowning took place in the section during the skating season.

Edward T. Leahey, for the past several weeks employed as an investigator in the state aid department, has severed his connections with that office on orders of the civil service commission, who claim he was not legally appointed.

Current events were discussed at yesterday's meeting of the Educational club held in the Y.W.C.A. The following topics were talked over: Rees, Miss Sarah Fiske; Women in banks, Mrs. A. G. Dinsmore; The Filipino in Independence, Miss Almira Boynton; Chicago and its Forest, Mrs. Ida Whitely; Earthquakes, Mrs. E. L. Brooks; The World's Conference, Mrs. Edgar Perham. At the next meeting T. F. Fisher of the Vocational school will speak.

INJURED BY AUTO

James Scondras, aged 3 years, was slightly injured yesterday afternoon when he was struck by an automobile in Dutton street. The little fellow, it seems, ran from the sidewalk into the path of an automobile operated by Potter R. Hazard of Nashua road, Tyngsboro and was knocked down. He was taken to the Lowell Corporation hospital, where it was found that his injuries were not serious.

BOULEVARD DANCE HALL

Owners of Dance Pavilion That Collapsed Want Permit for New Venture

An attempt by Bechard brothers and Lirette, which started over two years ago, to conduct a public open air dance pavilion on the Pawtucket boulevard was renewed again last night when the license commissioners received a formal application for a license to conduct same. The new dance hall plans call for a hall about a mile beyond the former site, at the corner of the boulevard and Forry road near the old windmill landmark. The commission received the application and set March 28 as the date for hearing.

The old dance hall was demolished during the first big ice storm of the season. The roof caved in under the weight of tons of snow and was practically a total loss. The building in question was never used for the purpose for which it was built because of strenuous objections on the part of several prominent citizens.

The proprietors now think they have overcome all objections and with an up-to-date building in mind think they will be granted a permit. They say that the plans for the new roof will be first approved by the city engineer before work commences.

Francis A. Connor, inspector of buildings made his appearance before the commission and heard objections concerning the proposed removal of the commission quarters. Commissioners Putnam and McGrath and Clerk Flaherty were emphatic in their objections to the removal plan. The commissioners contend that if the present quarters are not large enough for them and the district court it should be removed to the Gorham street building. Inspector Connor said that he had nothing definite in view and that he would take the matter to Mayor Brown within a few days.

A number of minor cases were heard by the commission. A case against Ahleas Stilos involving a lodging house license was continued for one week upon request of counsel.

Geo. Mastoulas, a coffee-house proprietor at 495 Market street, charged with allowing gambling in his establishment was given a call down. The case of Joseph Purquette, a pool room proprietor, against whom a charge was made, that liquor had been purchased on the premises, was taken under advisement. Adelard Leblanc was on the carpet in connection with the ownership of an eating house which is conducted at 106 Chelmsford street. Officers of the vice and liquor squad said that they have had the place under suspicion for liquor violations. This case was also taken under advisement.

The following minor licenses were granted by the commission:

Common victualler, Joseph A. Gagnon, 9 First street; Waldorf System, 25 Merrimack street. Sale of second hand automobiles, Center Auto Co., 390 Middlesex street, and Milage A. Feindal, 557 Gorham street. Lodging house, Vera J. Murray, 86 Thorndike street; Desrosiers and Ducharme, 671 Middlesex street; Catherine Casey, 28 Lawrence street; Mary Jlonet, 30 Cabot street. To sell ice cream on the Lord's day, Harry Ellacopoulos, 467 Market street; Felix Kempinski, 305 Lakeview avenue. Hawker and peddler, Thomas C. Higgins, 157 Cross street; Joseph Cloutier, 15 Ward street; Louis Harris, 106 Chelmsford street; Sam Sandler, 137 Howard street; Edward P. Curley, 210 West London street. Junk collector, Morris Stoloff, 168 Grand street. Innholder, Walter F. Queenan, 38-48 Prescott street.

LOCAL STRIKE SITUATION

Reported That Pickets Induce Nappers to Stay Away From Mill

The napping department of the Hamilton Mfg. Co., which had been operating since last week, is practically shut down today, according to reports made at the strike headquarters this morning. There were about 40 nappers employed there, finishing up the work that had been left on the machines when the strike was declared, and finishing out samples, but yesterday, so it is said, the pickets at the plant succeeded in convincing the workers to remain away from the plant and today it was learned that not one of them reported for work this morning. It is felt at textile headquarters that the closing of the napping department will mean the suspension of operations at the mill altogether within a short time.

The pickets were on duty at the Bay State Cotton Corp. and Hamilton plants this morning and noon and picketing went along in a very quiet manner. The three regular patrolmen were on duty and two other officers were also on the scene. At the plant of the Hamilton in Jackson street this noon a sergeant and two patrolmen were on duty to see that the picketing was peaceful, but their services were not needed.

In an endeavor to unionize all the nappers of the city an open meeting for members of the craft will be held Friday evening in Trades and Labor hall in Central street. The meeting will be addressed by Organizer Reagan and President Hanley of the Lowell Textile council.

The loomfixers who are on strike at the Bay State and the Hamilton held their daily rollcall at their hall in City Hall avenue this morning. At the close of the meeting the secretary reported that every man had responded to the call.

TREASURER MAKES DEMAND FOR TAXES

City Treasurer Fred H. Rourke has made a demand upon Frank Hanchett for taxes based on assessed personal property for the year 1916, as ordered recently by the Supreme court, who returned judgment in favor of the city. The taxes amount to approximately $10,000.

When the demand was made, however, the city treasurer found that Mr. Hanchett is traveling with his family in the west, being in Phoenix when last heard from. Through the Union bank, however, the demand has been forwarded to him.

ZONE SYSTEM FOR CITY

Chamber of Commerce Will Appoint Committee to Plan Zone Systm

One of the new projects under consideration by the Lowell chamber of commerce is the creation of a committee to plan a zone system for the city. Of course, any plans of this sort must be approved by the city government and proper ordinances passed before they become effective, but the members of the chamber are hopeful that they may meet with success in the project, which they feel will add materially to the city's attractiveness and mark a decisive advance in civic betterment.

The idea, as conceived by the chamber, is along lines successfully carried out in many of the newer cities of the west and middle west. Although no definite plans have yet been formulated, it is extremely likely that the committee, when organized, will propose the division of the city into zones; the kind of buildings and the use thereof, the industries, the stores and other establishments which may locate in each district to be clearly defined.

This system, it is believed, would act as a check on the location of gasoline stations, small stores and other business enterprises in residential districts, where the citizens are constantly voicing complaints against the intruders. Relative to gasoline stations, for instance, it is thought that such establishments would be confined to the down-town district, and the small variety stores might be allowed to locate on street corners only. Of course, the business places now in operation in these sections could not be disturbed, but it is possible, according to those who have the idea under consideration that the public, once the zone system is thoroughly explained, would patronize enterprises in the locations in which they were assigned to operate.

LOCAL POSTMASTERSHIP

Examination for Position of Postmaster to Be Held at An Early Date

From a letter from Congressman John Jacob Rogers received in Lowell a day or two ago, it is learned that an examination for the position of postmaster at Lowell will be held at an early date.

This rather contradicts the general impression that such an examination would not occur for about six months, the usual length of service of a temporary appointee.

The local postmastership is still in an unsettled state, inasmuch as no word has been received as to whether or not Col. Charles A. Stevens, temporarily appointed by the congressman on the resignation of Postmaster John A. Meehan, will accept the office.

The letter from the congressman was in reply to one sent by a prominent local professional man, urging favorable consideration of the candidacy of Hon. Perry D. Thompson.

DIRECT SENTENCES FOR DRUNKEN DRIVERS

Judge Thomas J. Enright is going to co-operate in every way possible with the state authorities in the enforcement of the motor vehicle laws in this state. Drunken drivers will be given direct sentences, if the practice is kept up, regardless of disposition of similar cases in other places.

Immediately after the opening of the court session this morning his honor read a communication received from Frank A. Goodwin, registrar of motor vehicles for this state in which were given figures of adult and children death and injury cases for the year of 1921. The court said that the showing was frightful and that both public and police must co-operate to stamp out accidents and deaths due to automobiles.

In reading the communication the court stated that he wanted the police and public alike to know the facts of the case so that the horror of the whole thing would be brought home to them more clearly.

The communication read as follows.

Warning! In 1921, 335 pedestrians were killed. In 1921, 6524 pedestrians were injured. In 1921, 193 children were killed. In 1921, 3433 children were injured by motor vehicles in Massachusetts.

"The pedestrian and child have a right on the street without a license.

"You have to have a license and if you hit a child or pedestrian it is your fault as a rule.

"If a pedestrian or child is on the street or on the sidewalk adjacent you must get your car under absolute control and stop if necessary. You may lose a minute, but that is better than taking a life.

"If you want to retain your license don't hit a child or pedestrian."

The above indicates that Registrar Goodwin is going to be strict in enforcing the law this year. The warm weather has brought out many cars that have been stored up for the winter and in a short time the motor traffic will increase by nearly 100 per cent.

To stand in the good graces of both the state officials and the local court, operators will have to use the greatest of caution.

BLOCK CHANGES HANDS

The six-tenement block at 190-192 Pawtucket street, corner of Mt. Washington street, owned by Fred Lavigne, has been sold to Dennis J. Cahill. Each tenement contains five rooms with modern improvements. The property is assessed for about $15,000. The sale was effected through the office of T. H. Elliott.
